Roman Technology And Crafts:

Roman Technology and Crafts Miranda Green,1979 Roman Technology and Crafts Miranda Jane Aldhouse-Green,1982 Roman Technology and Crafts Miranda J. Green,1981 The Oxford Handbook of Engineering and Technology in the Classical World John Peter Oleson,2008 Nearly every aspect of daily life in the Mediterranean world and Europe during the florescence of the Greek and Roman cultures is relevant to engineering and technology This text highlights the accomplishments of the ancient societies the research problems and stimulates further progress in the history of ancient technology International Symposium on History of Machines and Mechanisms Hong-Sen Yan,Marco Ceccarelli,2009-01-11 The International Symposium on the History of Machines and Mechanisms is the main activity of the Permanent Commission PC for the History of Mechanism and Machine Science HMM of the International Federation for the Promotion of Mechanism and Machine Science IFToMM The first symposium HMM2000 was initiated by Dr Marco Ceccarelli and was held at the University of Cassino Cassino Italy on May 11 13 2000 The second symposium HMM2004 was chaired by Dr Marco Ceccarelli and held at the same venue on May 12 15 2004 The third symposium HMM2008 was chaired by Dr Hong Sen Yan and held at the National Cheng Kung University Tainan Taiwan on November 11 14 2008 The mission of IFToMM is to promote research and development in the field of machines and mechanisms by theoretical and experimental methods along with their practical applications The aim of HMM2008 is to establish an international forum for presenting and discussing historical developments in the field of Mechanism and Machine Science MMS The subject area covers all aspects of the development of HMM such as machine mechanism kinematics design method etc that are related to people events objects anything that assisted in the development of the HMM and presented in the forms of reasoning and arguments demonstration and identification and description and evaluation Greek and Roman Technology: A Sourcebook Andrew N. Sherwood,Milo Nikolic,John W. Humphrey,John P. Oleson,2003-10-04 In this volume the authors translate and annotate key passages from ancient authors to provide a history and an analysis of the origins and development of technology Among the topics covered are energy basic mechanical devices agriculture food processing and diet mining and metallurgy construction and hydraulic engineering household industry transport and trade military technology The sourcebook presents 150 ancient authors and a diverse range of literary genres such as the encyclopedic Natural Histories of Pliny the Elder the poetry of Homer and Hesiod the philosophy of Plato Aristotle and Lucretius and the agricultural treatise of Varro Humphrey Oleson and Sherwood provide a comprehensive and accessible collection of rich and varied sources to illustrate and elucidate the beginnings of technology Glossaries of technological terminology indices of authors and subjects introductions outlining the general significance of the evidence notes to explain the specific details and a recent bibliography make this volume a valuable research and teaching tool Doing Museology Differently Duncan Grewcock,2013-09-05 One might believe that museum studies is a stable field of academic inquiry based on a set of familiar institutional forms and functions But as institutions museums have never been stable or singular and neither has the discipline of museum studies Museum studies as a field of academic inquiry has received little critical attention One result of this neglect has arguably been a lack of invention in museum studies another is the distancing of academic museum studies from museum practice Doing Museology Differently charts a different course A critical creative reflection on academic practice the book takes the form of a narrative account of museological fieldwork A research story unfolds challenging academic conventions at the level of its own presentation the book combines critical museum visiting with an autobiographical voice The identification of a previously underexplored interdisciplinary space leads the author to experiment with museum studies using contemporary developments in the theory and practice of human geography The new approaches to museological research and representation that emerge from this unique inquiry challenge assumed institutional and intellectual boundaries and act as a call to further creative experimentation

Greek and Roman Technology Andrew N. Sherwood, Milorad Nikolic, John W. Humphrey, John P. Oleson, 2019-10-23 In this new edition of Greek and Roman Technology the authors translate and annotate key passages from ancient texts to provide a history and analysis of the origins and development of technology in the classical world Sherwood and Nikolic with Humphrey and Oleson provide a comprehensive and accessible collection of rich and varied sources to illustrate and elucidate the beginnings of technology Among the topics covered are energy basic mechanical devices hydraulic engineering household industry medicine and health transport and trade and military technology This fully revised Sourcebook collects more than 1 300 passages from over 200 ancient sources and a diverse range of literary genres such as the encyclopaedic Natural History of Pliny the Elder the poetry of Homer and Hesiod the philosophies of Plato Aristotle and Lucretius the agricultural treatises of Varro Columella and Cato the military texts of Philo of Byzantium and Aeneas Tacticus as well as the medical texts of Galen Celsus and the Hippocratic Corpus Almost 100 line drawings indexes of authors and subjects introductions outlining the general significance of the evidence notes to explain the specific details and current bibliographies are included This new and revised edition of Greek and Roman Technology will remain an important and vital resource for students of technology in the ancient world as well as those studying the impact of technological change on classical society

JACT Review, 1992

Technology in Transition A.D. 300-650 Luke Lavan, Enrico Zanini, Alexander Sarantis, 2008-03-31 This book is the first general work to be published on technology in Late Antiquity It seeks to survey aspects of the technology of the period and to respond to questions about technological continuity stagnation and decline The book opens with a comprehensive bibliographic essay that provides an overview of relevant literature The main section then explores technologies in agriculture production metal ceramics and glass engineering and building Papers draw on both archaeological and textual sources and on analogies with medieval and early modern technologies Reference is made not only to the periods which preceded it but to the transition to the Early Middle Ages and to the technological heritage of Late Antiquity to the Islamic world Several papers focus on Italy whilst others
