Romanesque Sculpture In Campania Patrons Programs And Style:

Romanesque Sculpture in Campania Dorothy F. Glass, 1991 This first comprehensive study in English of Romanesque sculpture in Campania places the material in the context of South Italian medieval culture Although medieval Campania was part of the Norman kingdom which at its zenith included almost all of South Italy it has distinguishable characteristics that set it apart from its neighbors the emphatic imprint of the Roman past a long lived Lombard settlement the authoritative conservatism of the abbey of Monte Cassino the lack of Byzantine dominance and close political and cultural ties with Sicily In this sense Romanesque sculpture in Campania is very much a local phenomenon for it evolved from a close study of local antiquity and the selective adaptation of elements from neighboring provinces From its beginning Romanesque sculpture in Campania is characterized by attention to small scale decorative motifs seen on both portals and capitals By the latter part of the twelfth century an avid interest in stone pulpits and paschal candelabra fostered both internal consistency in local workshops and specifically Campanian content in part inspired by the local liturgy Dorothy Glass s study urges that the definition of Romanesque be both expanded and extended chronologically to include the southern Mediterranean

Catalogue of the Sculpture in the Dumbarton Oaks Collection from the Ptolemaic Period to the Renaissance Dumbarton Oaks, Gary Vikan, 1995 These sculptures reflect the Blisses wide ranging tastes and extraordinary connoisseurship About a quarter are Greco Roman nearly two thirds of the rest are Late Antique mostly limestone carvings from Early Byzantine Egypt Sculpture from the Middle Byzantine period is very rare making the four pieces in this collection especially significant "The Sculpture of Reform in North Italy, ca 1095-1130 " Dorothy F. Glass, 2017-07-05 Entirely original in its methodology this study offers a fresh approach to the study of Romanesque fa e sculpture Declining to revisit questions of artistic personalities artistic style and connoisseurship Dorothy F Glass delves instead into the historical and historiographical context for a group of significant monuments erected in Italy between the last decade of the eleventh century and the first third of the twelfth century In her reading local culture takes precedence over names context over connoisseurship she argues that it was the cultural intellectual and religious life of the abbeys of San Benedetto Po and Nonantola that provided the framework for the Reformist ethos of much of the sculpture adorning the cathedral of Modena Glass argues that the monuments are deeply rooted in the concerns of the reform of the church more commonly known as the Gregorian Reform that these reform ideas and ideals were first fomented in monastic communities and then adopted by the new cathedrals built in cities that freed of submission to imperial German rule had recently rejoined the papal fold The Sculpture of Reform in North Italy ca 1095 1130 History and Patronage of Romanesque Fa es moves scholarship beyond continuously reiterated opinions concerning style attribution chronology origins and influence instead opening new and fruitful lines of inquiry into the patronage and historical significance of these extraordinary monuments Romanesque and the Past John McNeill, Richard Plant, 2024-11-01 The nineteen papers collected in this volume explore a notable phenomenon that of retrospection in the art and architecture of Romanesque Europe They arise from a conference organized by the British Archaeological Association in 2010 and reflect its interest in how and why the past manifested itself in the visual culture of the 11th and 12th centuries This took many forms from the casual re use of ancient material to a specific desire to re present or emulate earlier objects and buildings Central to it is a concern for the revival of Roman and early medieval forms spolia selective quotation archaism and the construction of histories The individual essays presented here cover a wide range of topics and media the significance of consecration ceremonies in the creation of architectural memory the rise of pictorial concepts in 12th century chronicles the creation of history in the Paris of Hugh of St Victor and the appeal of the works of Bernward of Hildesheim and of Hrabanus Maurus in the centuries after their deaths There are studies of buildings and the ideological purpose behind them at Tarragona Ripoll Cluny Pannonhalma Hungary La Roccelletta Calabria and Old St Peter s comparative studies of Trier Villenauxe and Glastonbury and of Bury St Edmunds Rievaulx and Canterbury and wide ranging papers on the tantalizing evidence for an engagement with an overseas past in Ireland an Anglo Saxon past in England and a Milanese past among the aisleless cruciform churches of Augustinian Europe The volume concludes with an assessment of the very concept of Romanesque

Romanesque and the Mediterranean Rosa Bacile, 2017-12-02 The sixteen papers collected in this volume explore points of contact across the Latin Greek and Islamic worlds between c 1000 and c 1250 They arise from a conference organized by the British Archaeological Association in Palermo in 2012 and reflect its interest in patterns of cultural exchange across the Mediterranean ranging from the importation of artefacts textiles ceramics ivories and metalwork for the most part to a specific desire to recruit eastern artists or emulate eastern Mediterranean buildings The individual essays cover a wide range of topics and media from the ways in which the Cappella Palatina in Palermo fostered contacts between Muslim artists and Christian models the importance of dress and textiles in the wider world of Mediterranean design and the possible use of Muslim trained sculptors in the emergent architectural sculpture of late 11th century northern Spain to the significance of western saints in the development of Bethlehem as a pilgrimage centre and of eastern painters and techniques in the proliferation of panel painting in Catalonia around 1200 There are studies of buildings and the ideological purpose behind them at Canosa Apulia Feldebro Hungary and Charroux Aquitaine comparative studies of the domed churches of western France significant reappraisals of the porphyry tombs in Palermo cathedral the pictorial programme adopted in the Baptistry at Parma and of the chapter house paintings at Sigena and wide ranging papers on the migration of images of exotic creatures across the Mediterranean and on that most elusive and apparently Mediteranean of objects the Oliphant The volume concludes with a study of the emergence of a supra regional style of architectural sculpture in the western Mediterranean and evident in Barcelona Tarragona and Provence It is a third volume based on the British Archaeological Association s 2014 Conference in Barcelona will explore Romanesque Patrons and Processes

Romanesque Sculpture in Maastricht E. den Hartog,2002 An inventory of the romanesque sculpture in the Bonnefanten Museum the Saint Servatius Church and Our Lady s Church in Maastricht especially Romanesque capitals

The Bishop Reformed Anna Trumbore Jones,2017-03-02 In the period following the collapse of the Carolingian Empire up to the Fourth Lateran Council 1215 the episcopate everywhere in Europe experienced substantial and important change brought about by a variety of factors the pressures of ecclesiastical reform the devolution and recovery of royal authority the growth of papal involvement in regional matters and in diocesan administration the emergence of the crowd onto the European stage around 1000 and the proliferation of autonomous municipal governments the explosion of new devotional and religious energies the expansion of Christendom s borders and the proliferation of new monastic orders and new forms of religious life among other changes This socio political religious economic and cultural ferment challenged bishops often in unaccustomed ways How did the medieval bishop unquestionably one of the most powerful figures of the Middle Ages respond to these and other historical changes Somewhat surprisingly this question has seldom been answered from the bishop s perspective This volume of interdisciplinary studies drawn from literary scholarship art history canon law and history seeks to break scholarship of the medieval episcopacy free from the ideological stasis imposed by the study of church reform and episcopal lordship The editors and contributors propose less a conventional socio political reading of the episcopate and more of a cultural reading of bishops that is particularly concerned with issues such as episcopal self representation conceptualization of office and authority cultural production images texts material objects space and ecclesiology ideology They contend that ideas about episcopal office and conduct were conditioned by and contingent upon time place and pastoral constituency What made a good bishop in one time and place may not have sufficed for another time and place and imposing the absolute standards of prescriptive ideologies medieval and modern obfuscates rather than clarifies our understanding of the medieval bishop and his world
