Romanization Of Britain An Essay In Archaeological Interpretation:

The Romanization of Britain Martin Millett, 1992-06-11 This book sets out to provide a new synthesis of recent archaeological work in Roman Britain The Romanization of Britain Martin Millett, 2025-01-16 The Romanization of Britain was greeted on first publication as an innovative study of cultural change and interaction offering a bold new perspective on Roman Britain based on archaeological evidence It set out to explore the social dynamics of cultural change from a local perspective by looking at the patterns of interaction between provincial peoples and imperial power Drawing together a wide range of excavated data as well as textual evidence it provided a new synthesis of the province whilst offering an alternative way of understanding cultural change in the Roman Empire more widely Its publication served to catalyse debate stimulating very considerable discussion and generating a wide variety of responses in a range of publications This revised edition adds a new introductory essay exploring the genesis of this classic work and reviewing the subsequent debate while also recalibrating the author's perspective on cultural change within the wider Roman provinces

The Oxford Handbook of Roman Britain Martin Millett, Louise Revell, Alison Jane Moore, 2016 This handbook is currently in development with individual articles publishing online in advance of print publication At this time we cannot add information about unpublished articles in this handbook however the table of contents will continue to grow as additional articles pass through the review process and are added to the site Please note that the online publication date for this handbook is the date that the first article in the title was published online Roman Britain is a critical area of research within the provinces of the Roman empire Within the last 15-20 years the study of Roman Britain has been transformed through an enormous amount of new and interesting work which is not reflected in the main stream literature Globalizing Roman Culture Richard Hingley, 2005 A study of identity and social change in the Roman empire and the relationship of this knowledge to understanding of the contemporary world Community and Identity at the Edges of the Classical World Aaron W. Irvin, 2020-10-13 A timely and academically significant contribution to scholarship on community identity and globalization in the Roman and Hellenistic worlds Community and Identity at the Edges of the Classical World examines the construction of personal and communal identities in the ancient world exploring how globalism multi-culturalism and other macro events influenced micro identities throughout the Hellenistic and Roman empires This innovative volume discusses where contact and the sharing of ideas was occurring in the time period and applies modern theories based on networks and communication to historical and archaeological data A new generation of international scholars challenge traditional views of Classical history and offer original perspectives on the impact globalizing trends had on localized areas insights that resonate with similar issues today This singular resource presents a broad multi-national view rarely found in western collected volumes including Serbian Macedonian and Russian scholarship on the Roman Empire as well as on Roman and Hellenistic archaeological sites in Eastern Europe Topics include Egyptian identity in the Hellenistic world cultural identity in Roman

Greece Romanization in Slovenia Balkan Latin the provincial organization of cults in Roman Britain and Soviet studies of Roman Empire and imperialism Serving as a synthesis of contemporary scholarship on the wider topic of identity and community this volume Provides an expansive materialist approach to the topic of globalization in the Roman world Examines ethnicity in the Roman empire from the viewpoint of minority populations Offers several views of metascholarship a growing sub discipline that compares ancient material to modern scholarship Covers a range of themes time periods and geographic areas not included in most western publications Community and Identity at the Edges of the Classical World is a valuable resource for academics researchers and graduate students examining identity and ethnicity in the ancient world as well as for those working in multiple fields of study from Classical Hellenistic and Roman historians to the study of ethnicity identity and globalizing trends in time

Frontiers of Colonialism Christine D. Beaule, 2017-07-11 For decades archaeologists have limited studies of frontiers and colonialism to a single polity empire or epoch This has been especially true of historical archaeologists but in this intriguing collection Beaule assembles archaeologists from around the world to determine the commonalities and differences of colonialism across the self imposed divide of contact v pre contact The work considers the expanding frontiers of the Romans Iroquois Egyptians Filipinos and the more familiar Mayan and Incan empires The goal of this volume is to expand the theoretical interpretations and perspectives to all archaeologists working in frontier colonial contexts not just those of the European empires

Roman Finds Richard Hingley, Steven Willis, 2007-04-10 Studies on finds in Roman Britain and the Western Provinces have come to greater prominence in the literature of recent years The quality of such work has also improved and is now theoretically informed and based on rich data sets Work on finds over the last decade or two has changed our understanding of the Roman era in profound ways and yet despite such encouraging advances and such clear worth there has to date been little in the way of a dedicated forum for the presentation and evaluation of current approaches to the study of material culture The conference at which these papers were initially presented has gone some way to redressing this and these papers bring the very latest studies on Roman finds to a wider audience Twenty papers are here presented covering various themes

Herod and Augustus David M. Jacobson, Nikos Kokkinos, 2009 Nineteen studies illuminating Herod's role in the Augustan client network and his remarkable achievements as expressed in his extensive building programme Josephus record is examined here in the light of the available documentary and archaeological evidence

Ethnic Constructs in Antiquity Ton Derks, Nico Roymans, 2009 A bold and original examination of the relationships between ethnicity and political power in the ancient world

Britannia John Creighton, 2006-01-31 Completely re evaluates evidence for the rule of the kings of Late Iron Age Britain
