Romans Discovering Gods Plan For The World:

Romans Lyman Coleman, 1989-01-01 Romans Richard Peace, Dietrich Gruen, Serendipity House, 1989 Romans Discovering God's Plan for the World, 1989 "The" Political Theory of the Schoolmen and Grotius John Martin Littlejohn, 1895 Exploring Romans George R. Knight, 2010 Romans is one of the few books in the New Testament that was not composed as a pastoral response to specific localized problems. Instead, this letter was written primarily to challenge and ultimately correct widespread misunderstandings about Christianity held by mid-first-century believers. Some of these beliefs are embraced even now. Paul's central focus in Romans is the means of obtaining salvation. Point by point, he systematically builds his case by articulating who needs salvation and why, the role of the law, God's response to the sin problem, resolution of the legal issues presented by sin, and the effect each has on the Christian's life. This devotional commentary divides the entire text into short passages that are followed by a detailed user-friendly exegetical explanation and practical application to everyday life. The lives of such men as Martin Luther and John Wesley, whose writings helped shape Western history, were changed by the study of Romans. It will change your life as well. Book jacket Exploring Romans John Phillips, 2002-03-01 John Phillips writes with enthusiasm and clarity, cutting through the confusion and heretical dangers associated with Bible interpretation. Another Day of Victory , No...I Won't Go There Donald H. Ledbetter
Th.D., 2021-07-26 In this writing we have considered how Jesus set the pattern for our early Christian faith in the Great Commission and how a spiritual battle can be expected as we learn to overcome the old sin nature. We learn that the baptism by the Holy Spirit occurs when the Holy Spirit immerses the new believer spiritually into the death of Jesus on the cross. As the new believer surrenders to the indwelling Christ, the filling of the Holy Spirit is experienced. However, when we sin against the Holy Spirit by lying, grieving, or quenching Him, our fellowship with Jesus is broken and must be restored by confessing our sin. Because we have the power of the resurrected Christ living in us, we begin our new life in Christ from the position of victory, seated together with Jesus in heavenly places. Even though we have this position of victory, we are tempted by the old sin nature, but a way of escape is provided by our saying, "No, I won't go there" to the temptation. Through this journey, we learn to surrender our all to Jesus, so He becomes our life as we live each day here on this earth. When we do this, Jesus lives His life through ours. It is my earnest prayer this book will enable us to understand how much God loves us and who we have become in Christ. Because of who Christ is in us through the Holy Spirit, we have the authority to say no to the temptation of sin. When Jesus is our life, we live with joy, peace, and victory in our hearts, whatever the circumstances of life may be.
