The Romantic Imagination Frederick Burwick, Jürgen Klein, 1996 Die Wende Von Der Aufklärung Zur Romantik 1760-1820 Horst Albert Glaser, György Mihály Vajda, 2000 This volume is the twelfth to date in a series of works in French or English presenting the epochs and movements of a Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages Histoire Comparée des Littératures de Langues Européennes The original intention of the editors was to publish a four volume history of European literature from 1760 1820 and the first of these volumes Des Lumières au Romantisme Genres en Vers appeared as long ago as 1982 The volumes Genres en Prose and Théâtre are still awaited In their absence the present volume Époque imberblich attempts a more comprehensive and rigorous treatment of the period and its historiographical problems than was initially planned providing the reader with an overview of sixty eventful years of European literary history years in which German Classicism coincided with the birth initially in Germany and England of Romanticism And at the centre of this turbulent period of European intellectual and literary history stands the French Revolution Romantic Legacies Shun-Liang Chao, John Michael Corrigan, 2019-03-06 Romantic Legacies Transnational and Transdisciplinary Contexts presents the most wide ranging treatment of Romantic regenerations covering the cross pollination between the arts or between art and thought within or across the borders of Germany Britain France the US Russia India China and Japan Each chapter in the volume examines a legacy or afterlife in a comparative context to demonstrate ongoing Romantic legacies as fully as possible in their complexity and richness The volume provides readers a lens through which to understand Romanticism not merely as an artistic heritage but as a dynamic site of intellectual engagement that crosses nations and time periods and entails no less than the shaping of our global cultural currents The Evidence of the imagination Donald H. Reiman, Michael C. Jaye, Betty T. Bennett, 1978 Shelleyan Reimaginings and Influence Michael O'Neill, 2019-02-14 Through attuned close readings this volume brings out the imaginative and formal brilliance of Percy Bysshe Shelley's writing as it explores his involvement in processes of dialogue and influence Shelley recognizes that poetic individuality is the reward of connectedness with other writers and cultural influences A great Poem is a fountain forever overflowing with the waters of wisdom and delight he writes and after one person and one age has exhausted all its divine effluence which their peculiar relations enable them to share another and yet another succeeds and new relations are ever developed the source of an unforeseen and an unconceived delight A Defence of Poetry He is among the major Romantic poetic exponents and theorists of influence because of his passionately intelligent commitment to the onward dissemination of ideas and feelings and to the unpredictable ways in which poets position themselves and are culturally positioned between past and future The book has a tripartite structure The first three chapters seek to illuminate his response to representative texts figures and themes that constitute the triple pillars of his cultural inheritance the classical world Plato Renaissance poetry Spenser and Milton Christianity and in particular the concept of deity and the Bible The second and major section of the book explores

Shelley's relations and affinities with as well as differences from his immediate predecessors and contemporaries Hazlitt and Lamb Wordsworth Coleridge Southey Byron Keats including the influence of Dante on Shelley's elegy for his fellow Romantic and the great painter J M W Turner with whom he is often linked The third section considers Shelley's reception by later nineteenth century writers figures influenced by and responding to Shelley including Beddoes Hemans Landon Tennyson and Swinburne A coda discusses the body of critical work on Shelley produced by A C Bradley a figure who stands at the threshold of twentieth century thinking about Shelley

Afterlives of Romantic Intermediality Leena Eilittä, Catherine Riccio-Berry, 2015-12-24 Afterlives of Romantic Intermediality addresses the manifold even global artistic developments that were initiated by European Romantics In the first section the contributors show how the rising perspective of intermediality was discussed in philosophical terms and adapted itself to Romantic literature and music In the second section the contributors show how post Romantic writers visual artists and composers have engaged with Romantic heritage By exploring primary works that range from European arts to Latin American literature these essays focus on the interdisciplinary developments that have emerged in literature music painting film architecture and video art Overall the contributions in this volume demonstrate that intermedial connections or sometimes the conscious lack of such connections embody intriguing aspects of modernity and postmodernity

Picturing the Closet Dominic Janes, 2015 Picturing the Closet takes a pioneering approach to visual culture and by so doing builds on Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick's Epistemology of the Closet in order to present a compelling new approach to the British experience of queer culture since the eighteenth century

Wordsworth Translated John Williams, 2011-11-03 British writers of the Romantic Period were popular in Germany throughout the nineteenth century and translations of Scott Burns Moore Hemans and Byron among others became widespread This study analyses the reception of William Wordsworth's poetry in 19th century Germany in relation to other romantic poets Research into Anglo German cultural relations has tended to see Wordsworth as of little or no interest to Germany but new research shows that Wordsworth was clearly of interest to German poets translators and readers and that there was significantly more knowledge of and respect for Wordsworth's poetry and interest in his ideas and beliefs than has previously been recognised Williams focuses particularly on the work of Friedrich Jacobsen Ferdinand Freiligrath and Marie Gothein who span the early middle and late years of the century respectively and establishes the wider presence of many others translating anthologising and commenting on Wordsworth poetry and beliefs

War and the Body Kevin McSorley, 2013-01-25 This edited volume places the body at the centre of critical thinking about war and its consequences War is fundamentally embodied The reality of war is not just politics by any other means but politics incarnate politics written on and experienced through the thinking feeling bodies of men and women From steeled combatants to abject victims war occupies innumerable bodies in a multitude of ways profoundly shaping lives and ways of being human Giving the body an analytic recognition that it warrants and has often been denied in conventional war studies this book brings together new interdisciplinary scholarship that explores the numerous affective sensory and embodied practices through which war lives and breeds. It focuses on how war is prepared, enacted, and reproduced through embodied action, suffering, and memory. As such, the book promotes new directions in theorising war and transformations in warfare via an explicit focus on the body. This book will be of much interest to students and scholars of war studies, security studies, sociology, anthropology, military studies, politics, and IR in general.
