Neil Ramsey

Romantic Imperialism Universal Empire And The Culture Of Modernity:

Romantic Imperialism Saree Makdisi, 1998-04-16 The years between 1790 and 1830 saw over a hundred and fifty million people brought under British imperial control and one of the most momentous outbursts of British literary and artistic production announcing a new world of social and individual traumas and possibilities This book traces the emergence of new forms of imperialism and capitalism as part of a culture of modernisation in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century and looks at the ways in which they were identified with and contested in Romanticism Saree Makdisi argues that this process has to be understood in global terms beyond the British and European viewpoint and that developments in India Africa and the Arab world up to and including our own time enable us to understand more fully the texts and contexts of British Romanticism New and original readings of texts by Wordsworth Blake Byron Shelley and Scott emerge in the course of this searching analysis of the cultural process of globalisation Choice Outstanding Academic Book of 1998 Romantic Imperialism Saree Makdisi, 1998-04-16 The years between 1790 and 1830 saw over 150 million people brought under British Imperial control and one of the most momentous outbursts of British literary and artistic production announcing a new world of social and individual traumas and possibilities This book traces the emergence of new forms of imperialism and capitalism as part of a culture of modernization in the period and looks at the ways in which they were identified with and contested in Romanticism through original readings of texts by Wordsworth Blake Byron Shelley and Scott Romanticism and the Biopolitics of Modern War Writing Neil Ramsey, 2023-02-23 This book illuminates the genesis and development of modern war writing in relation to Romanticism biopolitics and disciplinary theory Alimentary Orientalism Yin Yuan, 2023-06-16 What exactly did tea sugar and opium mean in eighteenth and nineteenth century Britain Alimentary Orientalism examines the contentious debates surrounding these exotic recently popularized and literally consumable things It suggests that the interwoven discourses that these commodities sparked transformed the period's literary Orientalism and created surprisingly self reflexive ways through which British writers encountered and imagined cultural otherness Romanticism's Debatable Lands C. Lamont, M. Rossington, 2007-04-17 This book uses the theme of debatable lands to explore aspects of writing in the Romantic period Walter Scott brought it to a wider public and the phrase came to be applied to debates which were intellectual political or artistic These debates are pursued in a collection of essays grouped under the headings such as Britain and Ireland Imperialisms E. Sauer, B. Rajan, 2004-10-28 Filling a major gap in historical literary and post colonial scholarship Imperialisms examines the identity statements of the world's major imperialisms in multiple theatres of competition over the course of four centuries Filling a major gap in historical literary and post colonial scholarship Imperialisms examines early identity statements and nuances of dominance of the world's major imperialisms in various theatres of competition Developed in collaboration with leading scholars in the field this book balances historical essays and case studies and encourages investigations of conversant and competing imperialisms their practices and rhetoric of self justification Europe west and east India the New World Africa and the Far East are among the sites of imperialism featured here which are analyzed in relation to intersecting debates on politics religion literature nationalism commerce conversion and race Valuable for preliminary or advanced studies Imperialisms provides multiple points of entry into and guidelines for a conversation both current and vigorous Ancient Rome and Victorian Masculinity Laura Eastlake,2019 Romans in Victorian literature are at once pagan persecutors pious statesmen pleasure seeking decadents and heroes of empire this volume examines how these manifold and often contradictory representations are deployed in a range of ways in the works of authors from Thomas Macaulay to Rudyard Kipling to create useable models of masculinity Race, Romanticism, and the Atlantic Paul Youngquist,2016-05-23 In highlighting the crucial contributions of diasporic people to British cultural production this important collection defamiliarizes prevailing descriptions of Romanticism as the expression of a national character or culture The contributors approach the period from the perspective of the Atlantic maritime economy making a strong case for viewing British Romanticism as the effect of myriad economic and cultural exchanges occurring throughout a circum Atlantic world driven by an insatiable hunger for sugar and slaves Typically taken for granted the material contributions of slaves sailors and servants shaped Romanticism both in spite of and because of the severe conditions they experienced throughout the Atlantic world The essays range from Sierra Leone to Jamaica to Nova Scotia to the metropole examining not only the desperate circumstances of diasporic peoples but also the extraordinary force of their creativity and resistance Of particular importance is the emergence of race as a category of identity class and containment Race Romanticism and the Atlantic explores that process both economically and theoretically showing how race ensures the persistence of servitude after abolition At the same time the collection never loses sight of the extraordinary contributions diasporic peoples made to British culture during the Romantic era Hospitality and the Transatlantic Imagination, 1815-1835 Cynthia Schoolar Williams,2014-05-13 Hospitality and the Transatlantic Imagination 1815 1835 argues that a select group of late Romantic English and American writers disrupted national tropes by reclaiming their countries shared historical identification with hospitality In doing so they reimagined the spaces of encounter the city the coast of England and the Atlantic itself Cultivating the Past, Living the Modern Amal Sachedina,2021-09-15 Cultivating the Past Living the Modern explores how and why heritage has emerged as a prevalent force in building the modern nation state of Oman Amal Sachedina analyses the relations with the past that undergird the shift in Oman from an Ibadi shari Imamate 1913 1958 to a modern nation state from 1970 onwards Since its inception as a nation state material forms in the Sultanate of Oman such as old mosques and shari manuscripts restored forts national symbols such as the coffee pot or the dagger khanjar and archaeological sites have saturated the landscape becoming increasingly ubiquitous as part of a standardized public and visual memorialization of the past Oman s expanding heritage industry exemplified by the boom in museums exhibitions street montages and cultural festivals shapes a distinctly national geography and territorialized narrative But Cultivating the Past Living the Modern demonstrates there are consequences to this celebration of heritage As the national narrative conditions the way people ethically work on themselves through evoking forms of heritage it also generates anxieties and emotional sensibilities that seek to address the erasures and occlusions of the past
