

The book cover features a dark, atmospheric photograph of an interior space. The scene is dimly lit, with warm, golden light emanating from a small, round lamp hanging in the center. The walls are textured and appear to be made of stone or plaster, with some areas showing signs of wear or peeling paint. A large, dark, rectangular object, possibly a piece of furniture or a screen, is visible in the foreground. The overall mood is mysterious and evocative, suggesting a room with a rich history and a sense of intimacy.

Room To Rhyme:

Room to Rhyme Seamus Heaney, Michael Longley, David Hammond (singer.), 1968 Rodney's Room-Rhyming Poetry
About Things Under the Sun John Pearsall, 2012-02-16 I have always been interested in rhyming poetry I even have a tattered copy of the old One Hundred One Famous Poems where there is to my way of thinking some of the greatest use of the language other than the Holy Bible Such poems as Trees by Kipling and Laugh and the World Laughs With You have been an inspiration to me for many years Every where I have been in church schools work or Lodge over the past seventy years I have written poetry about something In this book I have written about many things I have either seen in my office remembered from my past or have seen out my office window Irish Songs and Guard Room Rhymes Henry O'Cuire, Henry Quirk, 1881 The Mummers' Play Reginald John Elliott Tiddy, Rupert Spens Thompson, David Randall Pye, 1923 The Kill Room Jeffery Deaver, 2013-06-04 It was a million dollar bullet a sniper shot delivered from over a mile away Its victim was no ordinary mark he was a United States citizen targeted by the United States government and assassinated in the Bahamas The nation's most renowned investigator and forensics expert Lincoln Rhyme is drafted to investigate While his partner Amelia Sachs traces the victim's steps in Manhattan Rhyme leaves the city to pursue the sniper himself As details of the case start to emerge the pair discovers that not all is what it seems When a deadly knife wielding assassin begins systematically eliminating all evidence including the witnesses Lincoln's investigation turns into a chilling battle of wits against a cold blooded killer Primary Plans, 1909 Composition in the School-room E. Galbraith, 1885 Drip! Janet Butler, Literary Rooms Katharina Christ-Pielensticker, 2021-03-26 The four prose texts discussed in Literary Rooms position themselves in a literary tradition which highlights the manifold purposes the private room may serve it is a mirror of the inhabitant a context in which to position the self a place of and motor for identity quests a rich metaphor and a second skin around the inhabitant's physical body Even in times of increasing globalization and urbanization the room continues to root the inhabitant it serves as a retreat from the world and as a place in which to re negotiate questions of belonging gender class and ethnicity At the same time the room is inevitably porous and constantly oscillates between inclusion and exclusion The literary texts examined in this book are each highly fragmented and gesture towards a fragmentation of the contemporary world out of which they have grown as well as towards an abundance of fragmented self images Linking the approaches of narratology globalization and spatial criticism Literary Rooms argues that in order to account for the spatial properties of the room discourses developed during the spatial turn need to be extended and reevaluated Class-room Libraries for Public Schools Buffalo Public Library (Buffalo, N.Y.), 1923
