Rooted In Faith Meditations From The Reformers:

Rooted in Faith Bernard Bangley, 2003 Rooted in Faith Daily Readings from the Early Protestant Church contains 365 daily devotional readings taken from the writings of early Protestant authors carefully selected and modernized by Bernard Bangley

The ^ANight Offices Phyllis Tickle, 2006-11-13 Phyllis Tickle's inspirational trilogy The Divine Hours™ was the first major literary and liturgical reworking of the sixth century Benedictine Rule of fixed hour prayer an age old discipline of saying prayers at certain times of the day This highly regarded trilogy has become one of America's best loved and most frequently consulted manuals for observing this ancient form of Christian worship Now in The Night Offices Tickle offers the perfect complement to The Divine Hours™ bringing together prayers psalms hymn texts religious poetry and other readings not included in the original trilogy covering the offices for the hours from late evening Compline to early morning Prime Fans of the Divine Hours™ will recognize Tickle's simple elegant format her use of a modern calendar rather than a liturgical one and the single ribbon in the binding to track one's progress through the year As in the trilogy Tickle makes primary use of the Book of Common Prayer and the writings of the Church Fathers and she draws all the scriptural readings from the Revised Standard Version The book includes a set of Matins Lauds and Prime specific to each day of the week and varied only by month Thus the Monday reading for January would be used every Monday in January but Monday in February would have new offices for it The cumulative total being 84 Matins 84 Lauds and 84 Prime 252 offices fits neatly into a single nightstand edition a small compact book that can be comfortably held in the hand Easy to use poetically rich with a superb sampling of devotional works The Night Offices will be welcomed by a broad readership Christian and non Christian alike

Tracts on the Modern Reformation of Korean Buddhism Gwon Sangro, Yi Yeongjae, Han Yongun, Tracts on the Modern Reformation of Korean Buddhism consists of four selected works by three writers Han Yongun's 1879 1944 Treatise on the Restoration of Korean Buddhism 1913 and Reform Proposals for Korean Buddhism 1931 Gwon Sangro's 1879 1965 Treatise on the Reformation of Korean Buddhism 1912 1913 and Yi Yeongjae's 1900 1927 Treatise on the Renovation of Korean Buddhism 1922 These works represent modern Buddhist intellectuals awareness of social reality and their new visions at the contemporary turning point of modernization The Treatise on the Restoration of Korean Buddhism emphasizes on superiority of Buddhism which encompasses both philosophy and religion and its modern features on the one hand and argues for the elimination of past evils and a social renovation on the other This work stresses the urgent necessity of the modern education studying abroad and the secured freedom of thought In Reform Proposals for Korean Buddhism Han advocates for the establishment of a unified institute the necessity of translation into the Korean language using the Korean script Han geul and the popularization of Buddhism In Treatise on the Reformation of Korean Buddhism Gwon insists that Korean Buddhism should overcome the old traditions of dependency or obedience as well as its exclusiveness and be radically reformed in the age of religious competition that is based on social evolution theory The Treatise on the Renovation of Korean Buddhism suggests an institutional direction of Buddhist reformation with a critical awareness of the system under the Temple Ordinances issued by the Japanese Colonial Government This work also proposes the establishment of a religious constitution and an innovative organization following a democratic model that pursues the separation of power These works emphasize the necessity of socialization education institutional and economical independence of Buddhism

The history of the reformation of religion within the realm of Scotland ... To which is added, I. An admonition to England and Scotland to call them to repentance, written by Antoni Gilby. II. The first and second books of discipline; together with some acts of the General Assemblies, etc. The editor's address to the reader signed: D. B., i.e. David Buchanan John Knox, 1790 Lay Theology in the Reformation Paul A.

Russell, 2002-06-20 This book examines the coming of the Protestant Reformation from the viewpoint of eight common people who were sufficiently disturbed by the events of 1521 to write treatises letters dialogues and sermons which they published Their works are lively testimony to the interest of laypeople in the affairs of the church and their willingness to discuss often complex theological training These works are among the first documents of lay theology and piety but they are also propaganda disappointed with the Catholic clergy and with secular authorities the authors of these pamphlets were called to prophesy preach and convert their readers listeners lest Christ return soon to find his church unprepared They demanded a new apostolate for laypeople something the clergy had feared for centuries and something which civic authorities feared as a potential source of radical ideas
