Roots For A New Rhetoric:

Roots for a New Rhetoric Daniel John Fogarty, 1959 Methods of Rhetorical Criticism Bernard L. Brock, Robert Lee Scott, James W. Chesebro, 1989 Roots for a new rhetoric Daniel Fogarty, 1968 A Counter-History of Composition Byron Hawk, 2007-11-25

A Counter History of Composition contests the foundational disciplinary assumption that vitalism and contemporary rhetoric represent opposing disconnected poles in the writing tradition. Vitalism has been historically linked to expressivism and concurrently dismissed as innate intuitive and unteachable, whereas rhetoric is seen as a rational teachable method for producing argumentative texts. Counter to this, Byron Hawk identifies vitalism as the ground for producing rhetorical texts, the product of complex material relations rather than the product of chance. Through insightful historical analysis ranging from classical Greek rhetoric to contemporary complexity theory, Hawk defines three forms of vitalism: oppositional, investigative, and complex, and argues for their application in the environments where students write and think today. Hawk proposes that complex vitalism will prove a useful tool in formulating post-dialectical pedagogies, most notably in the context of emerging digital media. He relates two specific examples of applying complex vitalism in the classroom and calls for the reexamination and reinvention of current self-limiting pedagogies to incorporate vitalism and complexity theory.

What is the New Rhetoric? Susan E. Thomas, 2009-03-26

The Age of Information has spawned a critical focus on human communication in a multimedia world, particularly on theories and practices of writing. With the worldwide web impacting increasingly on academic and business communication, the need has never been greater for advanced study in writing communication and critical thinking across all genres, sectors, and cultures. In recent decades, the definitions of new rhetoric have expanded to encompass a variety of theories and movements, raising the question of how rhetoric is understood and employed in the twenty-first century. The essays collected here represent variations on these themes, with each attempting to answer the title's deliberately provocative question, addressing particularly how the classical art of rhetoric is still relevant today, how it is directly related to modern technologies and the new modes of communication they have generated, how rhetorical practice is informing research methodologies and teaching and learning practices in the contemporary academy.

The Rhetoric of Antisemitism Amos Kiewe, 2020-10-28

The Rhetoric of Antisemitism focuses on the initial struggle Christianity experienced with Judaism, intensifying a hatred thereof and settling on a religious dogma of eternal guilt meant to perpetuate antisemitism for eternity. Kiewe tackles the similar approach Islam has taken in its tension with Judaism and how it was turned centuries later into the Arab-Israeli conflict, significantly with the help of Nazi antisemitism and propaganda. This book discusses the significant rise of antisemitism in the 19th and 20th centuries, including the forged pamphlet The Protocols of the Elders of Zion that promoted the charge of Jewish world domination and the more recent Durban Conference 2001 as a major turning point in conflating antisemitism and anti-Zionism, including the linguistic games used to merge antisemitism with anti-Israelism. Scholars of religious studies, history, and rhetorical studies will find this book particularly useful Jewish Rhetorics Michael Bernard-Donals, Janice W. Fernheimer, 2014-12-02 This volume the first of its kind establishes and clarifies the significance of Jewish rhetorics as its own field and as a field within rhetoric studies Diverse essays illuminate and complicate the editors definition of a Jewish rhetorical stance as allowing speakers to maintain a resolute sense of engagement with their fellows and their community while also remaining aware of the dislocation from the members of those communities Topics include the historical and theoretical foundations of Jewish rhetorics cultural variants and modes of cultural expression and intersections with Greco Roman Christian Islamic and contemporary rhetorical theory and practice In addition the contributors examine gender and Yiddish and evaluate the actual and potential effect of Jewish rhetorics on contemporary scholarship and on the ways we understand and teach language and writing The contributors include some of the world s leading scholars of rhetoric writing and Jewish studies New Rhetorics Martin Steinmann, 1967 Heidegger's Roots Charles R. Bambach, 2003 There is a gap in the literature for an investigation of the shared themes between Heidegger s thought and that of the ideologists of National Socialism The author reads Heidegger s writings from 1933-45 in historical context showing his engagement with the National Socialists James A. Berlin and Social-Epistemic Rhetorics Victor J. Vitanza, 2021-01-16 The field of rhetoric and composition has at last received a long lost message delivered in the form of Victor J Vitanza s seminar on James A Berlin In this book that is an untext on Berlin s work and its impact on the field Vitanza acquaints us with Berlin by virtue of many Berlins in multiplicity and via the figure of an excluded third that wants to deliver to us a new message that was undelivered from Berlin to us and from Vitanza to Berlin after Berlin s untimely death in 1994 A seminar on a seminar on the teaching of writing it is teaching all the way down They met at the historical NEH seminar at Carnegie Mellon in 1978 Their friendship and rhetorical dialogues spanned only sixteen years but Vitanza continues the conversation through the seminar through this book rife with reflections and yes homework for his readers and through our reception of it It is up to us now to carry it forward As Vitanza writes I would prefer not to not think that what remains unsaid stays undelivered
