MEMORY Dorothea Lasky, 2025-11-04 A poet s spacious exploration of time memory and art in homage to Bernadette Mayer A spiritual homage to Bernadette Mayer s monumental artwork of the same title Dorothea Lasky s Memory is a cycle of poet s essays stirred by two profound questions What constitutes personhood and consciousness What memories get lost and why Expansive in her quest for answers Lasky launches an inspired investigation of the forces that form our lives and deepest senses of ourselves She identifies three dimensions of memory ancestral personal and poetic and in her singularly clear voice undertakes to enter into their mysteries From those recesses she returns with a wide ranging collection of essays that like lyric poems find the universal inside the particular Memory reflects on the banal private emotions and historical trauma dear departed poets Diane di Prima Lucie Brock Broido her father's battle with Alzheimer's and cultural events that have become charged sites of collective reminiscence the moon landing the music of Neutral Milk Hotel Other pieces face the flip side of memory asking what's left where memory is absent and what's real beyond the horizon of death The book closes with Time the Rose and the Moon an ars poetica published here in English for the first time which offers the ancient symbol of the Ouroboros as a figure for the nonlinear processes of time memory and art Like Mayer before her Lasky reveals memory to be huge and haunting as she accumulates impressions that challenge the very possibility of fixed meaning Every rose has the scent of death she writes And poetry is a perfume That will stay on your body forever Whatever happens this time around remember that

Designing Memory Sabina Tanović, 2019-11-28 This innovative study of memorial architecture investigates how design can translate memories of human loss into tangible structures creating spaces for remembering Using approaches from history psychology anthropology and sociology Sabina Tanović explores purposes behind creating contemporary memorials in a given location their translation into architectural concepts their materialisation in the face of social and political challenges and their influence on the transmission of memory Covering the period from the First World War to the present she looks at memorials such as the Holocaust museums in Mechelen and Drancy as well as memorials for the victims of terrorist attacks to unravel the private and public role of memorial architecture and the possibilities of architecture as a form of agency in remembering and dealing with a difficult past The result is a distinctive contribution to the literature on history and memory and on architecture as a link to the past

National and Transnational Memories of the Kindertransport Amy Williams, William Niven, Bill Niven, 2023 The first transnational study of the memory of the Kindertransport and the first to explore how it is represented in museums memorials and commemorations The Kindertransport the rescue of ca 10 000 Jewish children from the Nazi sphere of control and influence before the Second World War has often been framed as a British story This book recognizes that even though most of the Kinder were initially brought to the UK and many stayed it was more than that It therefore compares British memory of the Kindertransport to that of other host nations the US Canada Australia and New Zealand It is the first book to ask how the Kindertransport is remembered both in the countries of origin particularly Germany and in the host nations as well as the first to analyze how it is represented in museums memorials and commemorations Seeing memory of the Kindertransport in the host nations and in Germany as significantly different the study argues that the different national memory discourses around the Nazi persecution of Jews shape the respective countries' images of the Kindertransport and that those images in turn shape the discourses especially in Britain Yet while national memory frameworks remain crucial to how the Kindertransport is remembered the book also documents the increasing significance of transnational memory trends that link the host nations with each other and with the countries from which the children originated

Landscape, Race and

Memory Divya Praful Tolia-Kelly, 2016-04-22 Memory is seldom explored through the experience of geographically mobile racialized populations Whilst the relationships between the political value of landscape and national memory have previously been written through there has been little mention of postcolonial diasporic racialized citizens Using both visual and material culture this book examines the value of landscape and memory for postcolonial migrants living in Britain It uses memory to examine how postcolonial citizenship in Britain is experienced through remembered citizenships of other geographies abroad By reflecting on the cultural landscapes of British Asian women the book reveals social historical narratives about migration citizenship and belonging New spaces of memory are presented as mobile and as politically charged with meaning as the more formal spaces of memorialization The book offers a refiguring of race memory as being critical to English heritage and postcolonial politics and makes an important contribution to the writings on memory race and landscape Sexuality and Memory in Early Modern England John S. Garrison, Kyle Pivetti, 2015-11-19 This volume brings together two vibrant areas of Renaissance studies today memory and sexuality The contributors show that not only Shakespeare but also a broad range of his contemporaries were deeply interested in how memory and sexuality interact Are erotic experiences heightened or deflated by the presence of memory Can a sexual act be commemorative Can an act of memory be eroticized How do forms of romantic desire underwrite forms of memory To answer such questions these authors examine drama poetry and prose from both major authors and lesser studied figures in the canon of Renaissance literature Alongside a number of insightful readings they show that sonnets enact a sexual exchange of memory that epics of nationhood cannot help but eroticize their subjects that the act of sex in Renaissance tragedy too often depends upon violence of the past Memory these scholars propose re shapes the concerns of queer and sexuality studies including the unhistorical the experience of desire and the limits of the body So too does the erotic revise the dominant trends of memory studies from the rhetoric of the medieval memory arts to the formation of collective pasts Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. The Great Remembering's Penny Dreadful Collection Justin L. Smith, 2025-05-24 Follow the events that lead up to the full length novel The Great Remembering In 2022 s The Great Remembering Nazis secretly took over America and renamed it Neo Columbia They invaded Canada and Mexico The country is controlled by Oligarchs and the President is controlled by a Tech Oligarch But it didn t happen overnight Things were set in motion for decades The Penny Dreadful Collection shows the lead up to this For convenience I have simply combined the first volume of short stories into one anthology Page counts vary but the Penny Dreadful Collection should average 140 pages In chronological order but not their original publishing order Koschei s Arrow The Broken Arrow Ashley and Connie Moonlight Over Monte Carlo Operation Spring Heeled Jack Masterson s Miscalculation and Black Sheep and Black Jade All these back stories equaling a little over half of a full length novel as an anthology If you are interested in the theology I use in The Broken Arrow please me on Twitter Justin_L_Smith_ I can send you a thread that explains these things in greater detail The Broken Arrow is a short story With all the information I have on this it could never all work in a short story I have had much of my series planned since 2020 Unfortunately developing Systemic Mastocytosis in late 2023 has greatly slowed me down I intended to write a Dystopian Series that felt real Like this could all really happen Sadly what was intended as a warning about Horseshoe Theory was well warranted I am currently working slowly on the sequel to The Great Remembering when I have the strength energy and time to do so Once it is complete I will write a new series of short stories to go along with it and keep using the ideas I amassed over the years as some of these ideas won't work in full length novels I find this is more entertaining than a wiki page to flesh out various events and characters in the world of Scabbers

Joyce's Book of Memory John S. Rickard, 1999-01-06 For James Joyce perhaps the most crucial of all human faculties was memory It represented both the central thread of identity and a looking glass into the past It served as an avenue into other minds an essential part of the process of literary composition and narration and the connective tissue of cultural tradition In Joyce's Book of Memory John S. Rickard demonstrates how Joyce's body of work Ulysses in particular operates as a mnemotechnic a technique for preserving and remembering personal social and cultural pasts Offering a detailed reading of Joyce and his methods of writing Rickard investigates the uses of memory in Ulysses and analyzes its role in the formation of personal identity The importance of forgetting and repression and the deadliness of nostalgia and habit in Joyce's paralyzed Dublin are also revealed Noting the power of spontaneous involuntary recollection Rickard locates Joyce's mnemotechnic within its historical and philosophical contexts As he examines how Joyce responded to competing intellectual paradigms Rickard explores Ulysses' connection to medieval modern and what would become postmodern worldviews as well as its display of tensions between notions of subjective and universal memory Finally Joyce's Book of Memory illustrates how Joyce distilled subjectivity history and cultural identity into a text that offers a panoramic view of the modern period This book will interest students and scholars of Joyce as well as others engaged in the study of modern and postmodern literature
