Routledge Encyclopedia Of Translation Studies:

Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies Mona Baker, Kirsten Malmkjær, 2001 Drawing on the expertise of over 90 contributors from more than 30 countries this work offers a detailed overview of translation studies Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies Mona Baker, Gabriela Saldanha, 2019-09-20 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies remains the most authoritative reference work for students and scholars interested in engaging with the phenomenon of translation in all its modes and in relation to a wide range of theoretical and methodological traditions This new edition provides a considerably expanded and updated revision of what appeared as Part I in the first and second editions Featuring 132 as opposed to the 75 entries in Part I of the second edition it offers authoritative critical overviews of additional topics such as authorship canonization conquest cosmopolitanism crowdsourced translation dubbing fan audiovisual translation genetic criticism healthcare interpreting hybridity intersectionality legal interpreting media interpreting memory multimodality nonprofessional interpreting note taking orientalism paratexts thick translation war and world literature Each entry ends with a set of annotated references for further reading Entries no longer appearing in this edition including historical overviews that previously appeared as Part II are now available online via the Routledge Translation Studies Portal Designed to support critical reflection teaching and research within as well as beyond the field of translation studies this is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of translation interpreting literary theory and social theory among other disciplines Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies Mona Baker, Gabriela Saldanha, 2009-03-04 Praise for the previous edition of the Encyclopedia of Translation Studies Translation has long deserved this sort of treatment Appropriate for any college or university library supporting a program in linguistics this is vital in those institutions that train students to become translators Rettig on Reference Congratulations should be given to Mona Baker for undertaking such a mammoth task and successfully pulling it off It will certainly be an essential reference book and starting point for anyone interested in translation studies ITI Bulletin This excellent volume is to be commended for bringing together some of its most recent research It provides a series of extremely useful short histories quite unlike anything that can be found elsewhere University teachers will find it invaluable for preparing seminars and it will be widely used by students The Times Higher Education Supplement a pioneering work of reference Perspectives on Translation The Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies has been the standard reference in the field since it first appeared in 1998 The second extensively revised and extended edition brings this unique resource up to date and offers a thorough critical and authoritative account of one of the fastest growing disciplines in the humanities The Encyclopedia is divided into two parts and alphabetically ordered for ease of reference Part One General covers the conceptual framework and core concerns of the discipline Categories of entries include central issues in translation theory e g equivalence translatability unit of translation key concepts e g culture norms ethics ideology shifts quality approaches to translation and interpreting e g sociological linguistic functionalist types of translation e.g. literary, audiovisual, scientific and technical types of interpreting e.g. signed language, dialogue court. New additions in this section include entries on globalisation, mobility, localization, gender and sexuality, censorship, comics, advertising and retranslation among many others. Part Two, History and Traditions, covers the history of translation in major linguistic and cultural communities. It is arranged alphabetically by linguistic region. There are entries on a wide range of languages which include Russian, French, Arabic, Japanese, Chinese and Finnish and regions including Brazil, Canada and India. Many of the entries in this section are based on hitherto unpublished research. This section includes one new entry, Southeast Asian tradition. Drawing on the expertise of over 90 contributors from 30 countries and an international panel of consultant editors, this volume offers a comprehensive overview of translation studies as an academic discipline and anticipates new directions in the field. The contributors examine various forms of translation and interpreting as they are practised by professionals today, in addition to research topics, theoretical issues and the history of translation in various parts of the world. With key terms defined and discussed in context, a full index, extensive cross references, diagrams and a full bibliography, the Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies is an invaluable reference work for all students and teachers of translation, interpreting and literary and social theory.

Mona Baker is Professor of Translation Studies at the University of Manchester, UK. She is co-founder and editorial director of St Jerome Publishing, a small press specializing in translation studies and cross-cultural communication. Apart from numerous papers in scholarly journals and collected volumes, she is author of In Other Words: A Coursebook on Translation (Routledge, 1992), Translation and Conflict: A Narrative Account (2006) and Founding Editor of The Translator Studies in Intercultural Communication (1995), a refereed international journal published by St Jerome since 1995. She is also co-Vice President of the International Association of Translation and Intercultural Studies (IATIS).

Gabriela Saldanha is Lecturer in Translation Studies at the University of Birmingham, UK. She is founding editor with Marion Winters and current member of the editorial board of New Voices in Translation Studies, a refereed online journal of the International Association of Translation and Intercultural Studies, and co-editor with Federico Zanettin of Translation Studies Abstracts and Bibliography of Translation Studies.

Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Technology

Chan Sin-wai, 2014-11-13. The Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Technology provides a state-of-the-art survey of the field of computer-assisted translation. It is the first definitive reference to provide a comprehensive overview of the general, regional and topical aspects of this increasingly significant area of study. The Encyclopedia is divided into three parts. Part One presents general issues in translation technology such as its history and development, translator training and various aspects of machine translation, including a valuable case study of its teaching at a major university. Part Two discusses national and regional developments in translation technology, offering contributions covering the crucial territories of China, Canada, France, Hong Kong, Japan, South Africa, Taiwan, the Netherlands and Belgium, the United Kingdom and the United States. Part Three evaluates specific matters in translation technology with entries focused on subjects such as alignment bitext computational lexicography corpus editing online translation subtitling and technology and translation management systems The Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Technology draws on the expertise of over fifty contributors from around the world and an international panel of consultant editors to provide a selection of articles on the most pertinent topics in the discipline All the articles are self contained extensively cross referenced and include useful and up to date references and information for further reading It will be an invaluable reference work for anyone with a professional or academic interest in the subject ROUTLEDGE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF INTERPRETING STUDIES Franz
