Higher Education Management and Development. Compendium for Managers Jeroen Huisman, Attila Pausits, 2010 Today as never before it is imperative that university managers possess the knowledge and the competencies necessary for leading modern higher education institutions Professional management enables higher education institutions to cooperate more effectively with partners ranging from local businesses to international enterprises and other stakeholders As higher education institutions grow larger and extend their reach into new areas and the functions demanded of them multiply academic administration and management become increasingly complex thus the need for skilled management and administrative personnel becomes more acute This book emerged as the product of the European Higher Education Management and Development EHEMD project a European multilateral curriculum development project under the coordination of the Danube University Krems and funded by the European Union in the framework of the Erasmus Lifelong Learning Programme Focusing not only on theoretical points of view but also on their practical applications as demonstrated in the accompanying case studies the publication covers the key aspects of modern university management The booklet is structured so that each chapter presents a particular aspect and application of university management and the entire volume reflects the core contents of the EHEMD curriculum Can higher education management be taught While we confidently say yes the answer needs some qualification The yes applies because higher education management is no different from any other subject in the social sciences The qualification is that a sound pedagogical philosophy and structure need to underpin such a programme The fundamentals of the EHEMD programme are that it is interdisciplinary that it is practice oriented and that students learn from each other and also learn independently With a strong emphasis on Central Southern and Eastern Europe this book addresses management challenges in higher education today and in the near future Teacher

Professionalism in Further and Higher Education Jocelyn Robson, 2007-05-07 The shape and nature of professional standards for further and higher education teachers are changing constantly This book provides a current account of developments and debates about both groups in an attempt to challenge strongly held beliefs Reform of Higher Education in Europe J. Enders, H.F. de Boer, D.F. Westerheijden, 2011-10-21 The volume Reform of Higher Education in Europe is published in celebration of CHEPS 25th anniversary All contributors to this book are working at CHEPS and bring their extensive knowledge of the deep seated reforms and changes to the field of higher education and research over the last 25 years The chapters are each devoted to a detailed policy analysis deeply rooted in CHEPS quarter century programme of theoretical and empirical research Some contributions cover key themes of concern since CHEPS early years including state university relationships quality assurance and funding Other contributions cover more contemporary higher education policy issues including European reform initiatives innovation the Bologna Process doctoral training and the Erasmus programme and debates around higher education institutions evolving functions including the university's third mission and the research function of universities of applied sciences What unifies all chapters is their recognition that policy success is dependent on smart implementation grounded in a comprehensive understanding of highly complex policy processes The book as a whole offers clear descriptions and analyses of how policy processes are implemented through co-ordinated institutional and stakeholder interventions This volume seeks to enhance academic and policy maker understanding of Europe's evolving higher education system as it emerges as a cornerstone of the contemporary knowledge society The Routledge
