The Most Outrageous Trial in History Marie S. Burns, 2005-03-23 For almost forty years I have been involved in Church music and Bible teaching I taught adult classes served as a guest teacher as a guest speaker and delivered many sermons When I was involved in the music of the church as an organist pianist or director of the choir I taught a Bible class developing my own class format which demanded a lot of research and study I hold an L L B degree however as does every law student I learned very early the importance of and how to do research and documentation This has served me well in my Bible study and preparation for both teaching and writing During my years in law school I had the great experience of working for a blind judge and as a result was required to learn to read and write Braille During this time I also worked in the Capitol of my state and was permitted to sit in on hearings in the Georgia Public Service Commission the Supreme Court trials and served as stenographer in the Attorney General's office Through the years I have taken many special courses and non credit classes in Ancient History Archaeology Ancient Documents Hebrew Greek and other subjects related to the Bible and these have been an invaluable background source in my writing Although I am not now registered I have had certificates in accounting and nursing and worked with my husband D L Burns M D as head nurse and director of his clinic until his death from cancer I was elected to and served twelve years on the Valdosta Board of Education and served as Chairman of Personnel for twelve years as well as president and chairman of various committees I did not choose to run for a third term of six years but did not put education aside During my tenure of office I served as a substitute teacher for a couple of months in a class on the Constitution of Georgia and the United States where I saw the need for some parliamentary education As a result I wrote a Parliamentary Leadership Training Course which I taught over a period of several years in the high school and a number of civic professional and church organizations including the local synagogue For twenty years when my husband was living we would take a holiday of at least thirty days each year and traveled the world visiting the Near East the Middle East Europe all except Turkey and Russia China Japan the South Pacific and the Far East On one trip to Nepal we flew through the Himalayan Mountains in a helicopter just the two of us and the pilot to deliver some food to Tibetan refugees who had been granted asylum and were living at a very high level in the Himalayas My husband was requested to give a medical opinion on the health condition of the refugees and their living conditions In our travels we had many modes of transportation some more interesting than others particularly that of a camel ride across the Sahara Desert to visit an archaeological site and sailing in a felucca on the Nile River from Luxor Egypt down to the Aswan Dam visiting historic sites along the way Always before we left for our proposed destination I did research and prepared notes on that country which have been invaluable to me in my writing During my years of teaching I had a wide range of students which included college professors teachers ministers lawyers and laity many of whom were just getting acquainted with the Bible They repeatedly asked why I did not put my lectures and notes into a written form so that others could share them Finally in September 1988

I attended Valdosta Technical Institute a Georgia State Institution for computer training I bought my first computer and started writing in 1991 Since then I have written a commentary on all the books of the Old Testament except the twelve Minor and four Major Prophets and a commentary on The Apographa and Pseudepigrapha which covers the approximate four hundred year period between the Old and the New Testaments A list of the Bibles that include this work is also given In the New Testament a commentary has been written on A Parallel of the Four Gospels The Trial of Jesus and the Revelation to John This has entailed a lot of study and a lot of work but I ll just keep on writing until my goal of a commentary on ALL of the books of the Old Testament The Apographa and Pseudepigrapha and the New Testament is reached The Trial of Jesus Walter M. Chandler,2020-12-17 The Trial of Jesus is a work of American lawyer Walter M Chandler in which he examines the Jewish trial of Jesus from a purely legal perspective In the first volume Chandler establishes the New Testament as an authentic source of information for his examination of the trial He provides a legal argument for the credibility of the gospel writers and examines the legal legitimacy of using their witness in understanding the events that occurred He examines in detail Hebrew criminal law and constructs a legal brief The second volume deals with the Roman trial The Trial of Jesus from a Lawyer's Standpoint (Vol. 1&2) Walter M. Chandler,2023-11-12 In The Trial of Jesus from a Lawyer s Standpoint Vol 1 2 Walter M Chandler meticulously examines the legal proceedings surrounding the trial of Jesus Christ presenting a thorough analysis that juxtaposes contemporary legal principles with the judicial customs of ancient Judea Chandler employs a clear methodical style dissecting each event within the trial framework while illuminating the socio political variables at play The dual volume not only engages the legal scholar but also stimulates theological inquiry prompting readers to reevaluate the intersection of law morality and faith in a narrative that has shaped Western thought for millennia Walter M Chandler a noted attorney and legal scholar brings his vast expertise to this ambitious work informed by both his professional background and deep religious convictions His unique perspective is further enriched by his understanding of historical context and legal frameworks allowing him to articulate the complexities of the trial in a way that resonates with contemporary discussions about justice and legal ethics This book is ideal for readers who seek a nuanced understanding of the trial of Jesus whether they approach it from a legal historical or theological perspective Chandler s insightful analysis encourages critical thinking and offers fresh perspectives making this work a significant contribution to the fields of law and religious studies The Trial of Jesus from a Lawyer's Standpoint Walter M.
