Mother Macrina Stories By Those Who Knew Her:

Mother Macrina Irma Zaleski, 2000 A traditional holy woman's wisdom for the modern age Using the fictitious character of Mother Macrina Zaleski creates stories of a modern desert mother resonant with the Eastern monastic tradition This Female Man of God Gillian Cloke, 2003-09-02 This book is a study of the contribution of women to the development of the newly legitimate Christian church in the twilight of the Western Roman Empire There are many women noted for the example of their life in this period regarded amongst the luminaries of the day but while their male mentors the patristic authors have retained their fame the women who surrounded and influenced them have all but disappeared from sight The women themselves are partly to blame for this for in order to be pious it made sense to disguise one's sex sometimes literally Dr Cloke gives examples of those whose sex was discovered only after their death they sought to become androgynous a third sex before God This book looks at a multitude of examples in some detail and takes an overview of the role of Christian women at this time It should appeal not only to historians classicists and theologians but also to anyone who takes a general interest in the changing status of women over the centuries Lives of Roman Christian Women Carolinne White, 2010-01-28 Perpetua shouted out with joy as the sword pierced her for she wanted to taste some of the pain and she even guided the hesitant hand of the trainee gladiator towards her own throat Lives of Roman Christian Women is a unique collection of letters and documents from the third to the fifth centuries celebrating Christian women from across the Roman Empire During a crucial period in which Christianity transformed from a persecuted faith to the official religion of the Empire these writings reveal the women who chose to dedicate their lives to Christ by embracing martyrdom or by adopting a life of poverty and prayer renouncing not only wealth but also their duties as wives and mothers A Pure Mirror Turned to Face the Sun R. K. Coghurn, 2024-07-16 Both carefully researched and engaging this small book invites the reader into the story of a remarkable fourth century Cappadocian woman St Macrina the Younger who met challenges that may seem familiar today Surrounded by polarizing political conflict in an empire divided by growing disparities between rich and poor Macrina lived through earthquakes and disastrous droughts She saw people displaced by war and severe weather pushed into the ranks of the hungry and houseless She suffered breast cancer and lost loved ones in tragic unexpected deaths Her response was nothing less audacious fascinating and inspiring than a commitment to know reveal and reflect God in her actions and to make her home a microcosm of gospel life an inclusive community of love equality simplicity labor caring and generosity The story begins with Macrina's parents among Christian refugees hiding in the hills during the Great Persecution Restored to their family estates after the Edict of Milan they raised two of the Cappadocian Fathers and two other saints In this book we follow their eldest child Macrina as her lived faith changes the course of her own life and gradually and steadily permeates and remakes her family and community Stories of Christian Heroism Christian heroism, 1859 Apostolici: or, the History of the lives, acts, death, and martyrdoms of those who were contemporary with, or immediately succeeded the

Cappadocian Fathers had great influence on the church of the fourth century having brought their passion for Christ and theological expertise to life in their ministry Their work was not devoid of influence including that of their immediate family members Within their writings we uncover the lives of seven women the Cappadocian Mothers who may have had more influence on the theology of the church than previously believed As the Cappadocians wrestle with the Christianization of the concept of deification we find the women in their lives becoming models for their theological understanding The lives of the women become points of intersection in the kenosis theosis parabola Not only are the Cappadocian Mothers uncovered in the texts but they become models of an optimistic theology of restoration for all of humanity without constraint of gender
