The Commercial Appropriation of Personality Huw

Beverley-Smith,2002-08-15 Commercial exploitation of attributes of an individual s personality such as name voice and likeness forms a mainstay of modern advertising and marketing Such indicia also represent an important aspect of an individual s dignity which is often offended by unauthorized commercial appropriation This volume provides a framework for analysing the disparate aspects of the problem of commercial appropriation of personality and traces in detail the discrete patterns of development in the major common law systems It also considers whether a coherent justification for a remedy may be identified from a range of competing theories The considerable variation in substantive legal protection reflects more fundamental differences in the law s responsiveness to commercial practices and different attitudes towards the proper scope and limits of intangible property rights My Mathematical Universe: People, Personalities, And The

Profession Krishnaswami Alladi,2022-11-15 This is an autobiography and an exposition on the contributions and personalities of many of the leading researchers in mathematics and physics with whom Dr Krishna Alladi Professor of Mathematics at the University of Florida has had personal interaction with for over six decades Discussions of various aspects of the physics and mathematics academic professions are included Part I begins with the author s unusual and frequent introductions as a young boy to scientific luminaries like Nobel Laureates Niels Bohr Murray Gell Mann and Richard Feynman in the company of his father the scientist Alladi Ramakrishnan Also in Part I is an exciting account of how the author started his research investigations in number theory as an undergraduate and how contact and collaboration with the great Paul Erd s as a student influenced him in his career In depth views of the Institute for Advanced Study Princeton and several major American Universities are given and fascinating descriptions of the work and personalities of some Field Medalists and eminent mathematicians are provided Part II deals with the author s tenure at the University of Florida where he initiated several programs as Mathematics Chair for a decade and how he has served the profession in various capacities most notably as Chair of the SASTRA Ramanujan Prize Committee and Editor in Chief of The Ramanujan Journal The book would appeal to academicians and the general public since the author has blended academic and scientific discussions at a non technical level with descriptions of destinations in his international travels for work and pleasure The reader is invited to dig as deep as desired and is guaranteed to be treated to whimsical stories and personal peeks at some of the great luminaries of the twentieth and twenty first centuries      Southeast Asian Personalities of Chinese Descent Leo Suryadinata,2012 This is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of Southeast Asians Most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region Each of them has either self identified as Chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of Chinese ancestry There are also those who were born in China or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic Chinese connections With the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process Confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships In this case Professor Leo Suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to Southeast Asia I believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities In so doing he has done us all a great service
