Africa A to Z: Continental and Country Profiles Esterhuysen, Pieter, 2013-12-07 The popularity of the first two editions of this book necessitated a third revised and updated version to record the many challenges in Africa since the first edition appeared in 1998 Africa is a vast and fascinating continent whose population has exceeded the one billion mark Africa A Z attempts to provide in a concise manner the facts for an elementary understanding of the continent and its complex problems The book falls into two main sections the five chapters on the first main section focus on the continent as a whole dealing with its physical and human diversity its eventful history and Africans struggle for economic survival The second main section contains profiles of 58 independent countries ranging from Algeria to Zimbabwe Presentation of the profiles is uniform in that the same themes are covered in each profile The data panels with the profiles contain data not provided in the text The maps appearing throughout the text were produced by AISA s cartography department The Concise Dictionary of World Place-Names John Everett-Heath, 2018-09-13 There is no populated place without a name and every name is chosen for a reason This fascinating dictionary unveils the etymological roots and history of thousands of locations and landmarks from around the world It contains over 11 000 entries and covers an enormous range of country region island city town mountain and river names from across the world as well as the name in the local language Place names are continually changing and new names are adopted for many different reasons such as invasion revolution and decolonization The Concise Dictionary of World Place Names includes selected former names and where appropriate some historical detail to explain the transition The names of places often offer a real insight into the places themselves revealing religious and cultural traditions the migration of peoples the ebb and flow of armies the presence of explorers local languages industrial developments and topography Superstition and legend can also play a part This new edition has been updated to include over 750 new names including Azincourt Kropyvnyts kyy and Tlaxcala It has also been edited to reflect socio political and geographical shifts notably the reorganisation of the French regions and their consequent name alterations as well as the decommunization of Ukrainian place names In addition to the entries themselves the dictionary includes two appendices a glossary of foreign word elements which appear in place names and their meanings and a list of personalities and leaders from all over the world who have influenced the naming of places

Dance History Janet Adshead-Lansdale, June Layson, 2006-05-18 Originally published in 1983 the first edition rapidly established itself as a core student text Now fully revised and up dated it remains the only book to address the rationale process techniques and methodologies specific to the study of dance history For the main body of the text which covers historical studies of dance in its traditional and performance contexts the editors have brought together a team of internationally known dance historians Roger Copeland and Deborah Jowitt each take a controversial look at the modern American dance Kenneth Archer and Millicent Hodson explain the processes they use when reconstructing lost ballets and Theresa Buckland and Georgina Gore write on traditional dance in England and West Africa respectively With other contributions on social dance ballet early European modern dance and feminist perspectives on dance history this book offers a multitude of starting points for studying dance history as well as presenting examples of dance writing at its very best Dance History will be an essential purchase for all students of dance

Ireland, Slavery and Anti-Slavery: 1612-1865 N. Rodgers, 2007-01-31 This book tackles a hitherto neglected topic by presenting Ireland as very much a part of the Black Atlantic world It shows how slaves and sugar produced economic and political change in Eighteenth century Ireland and discusses the role of Irish emigrants in slave societies in the Caribbean and North America

Towards an Understanding of the African Experience from Historical and Contemporary Perspectives Festus Ugboaja Ohaegbulam, 1990 This introductory survey provides a rich understanding of the African experience which until recently either had been omitted from the curriculum of institutions of higher learning or was distorted in written and oral literature The book identifies the post World War II civil rights movement in America and the independence revolution in Africa as the most decisive forces that generated interest in the study of the African black experience Includes four theoretical models for interpreting the black experience The author discusses the place and role of Africa in the development of human civilization focusing on Africa s Nile Valley civilizations and Western Sudanic empires It probes aspects of traditional African culture including the family traditional political institutions and religion and analyzes the impact on Africa and its peoples of such historical traumas as slavery colonialism and decolonization

Non-Western Educational Traditions Timothy G. Reagan, 2004-09-22 This text provides a brief yet comprehensive overview of a number of non Western approaches to educational thought and practice Its premise is that understanding the ways that other people educate their children as well as what counts for them as education may help us think more clearly about some of our own assumptions and values and to become more open to alternative viewpoints about important educational matters The value of this informative mind opening text for preservice and in service teacher education courses is enhanced by Questions for Discussion and Reflection and Recommended Further Readings included in each chapter New in the Third Edition Chapter 2 Conceptualizing Culture I We and The Other is new to this edition It is a response to feedback about the problems inherent in our general discourse about culture and in addition provides an example of a culture that is near to us but nevertheless alien the culture of the Deaf World Chapter 9 which deals with Islam and traditional Muslim education has been substantially revised The subtitle of the Third Edition has been changed to Indigenous Approaches to Educational Thought and Practice reflecting not so much a change in the emphases found in the book but rather a recognition of the growing scholarly interest in indigenous peoples their languages cultures and histories Various points throughout the text have been expanded and clarified and chapters have been updated as needed

Composing the Music of Africa Malcolm Floyd, 2018-12-17 First published in 1999 this volume explores the great diversity of music created by African communities is reflected in this book which discusses the ways in which a wide range of musical forms are composed and performed from Egypt to South Africa and from Ghana to Kenya As two composers explain here this diversity provides much inspiration for western contemporary composition Particular attention is paid to the contexts generate musical creativity Ceremonies and festivals celebrating birth death marriage or rites of passage provide the impetus for much composition and performance enabling young people to pick up early on some of the techniques and styles of which they then become the new exponents The book also looks at the role played by formal music education programmes and bodies such as the South African Music Rights Organization and the South African Broadcasting Corporation in fostering musical activity as well as the contribution of composers to the social and political changes that have dominated South African life in recent years

Cultures in Motion Peter N. Stearns, 2001-01-01 Kulturens vandring fra forhistorisk tid til nutiden Nkyin-Kyin James Gibbs, 2009-01-01 This collection brings together essays written over a thirty five year period They reflect James Gibbs s position vis vis the Ghanaian theatre as sometimes a remote onlooker sometimes an enthusiastic participant observer deeply involved in issues of perception and influence in a society moving through colonialism to nationalism independence and beyond The main body of the book is divided into four sections The first Outsiders and Activists looks at theatre for community development during the late 1940s some connections between drama and film and the astonishing involvement in Ghanaian performance culture of the Haitian poet and playwright Felix Morisseau Leroy The second section Intercultural Encounters examines ways in which classic Greek drama has been used by producers and writers in West Africa with special reference to Victor Yankah Kobina Sekyi Ghana s first published playwright and the Nigerian Femi Osofisan Section Three Plays and Playwrights concentrates on Efua Sutherland Ama Ata Aidoo and Joe de Graft This section uncovers issues of documentation and achievement that draw attention to the need for investment in organising resources for writing Ghana's theatre history The volume draws to a close with personal accounts of touring student productions in the 1960s with due attention to the influence of Bertolt Brecht and of involvement in a British film production on location The book closes with an updated complete bibliography of Ghana's chief dramatist Efua Sutherland

Facing the Sea of Sand Barry Cunliffe, 2023-04-25

Northern Africa is dominated by the Sahara Desert stretching across the continent from the Atlantic Ocean to the Red Sea This book is about the people who lived around the edges of the Desert and the different ways in which they responded to its challenges establishing networks of communication across its expanse But the Sahara has not always been a desert From about 9000 BC the region began to enjoy a warm humid period allowing vegetation to flourish and wild animals to move in Humans soon followed practising pastoral economies but with the onset of harsher conditions once more around 3000 BC the desert reclaimed its own Since then fluctuations in climate have continued to affect the lives of people living around the desert fringes The communities occupying the North African Coast and in the Nile Valley have come under the influence of the states dominating the Near East and the Mediterranean but those living in the Sahel to the south of the desert have developed their own distinctive cultures The book tells the story of the growing links between the two worlds showing that Africa played a crucial part in the development of the Old World before it was drawn into the story of the New World
