The Penguin Guide to New York City 1991 Stephen Brewer, 1991      New York Magazine , 1992-08-31 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea      The Penguin Guide to San Francisco and Northern California, 1991 Georgia Hesse, 1990-12      Blue Nippon E. Taylor Atkins, 2001      Jack Kerouac's On the Road Harold Bloom, 2004 Presents ten critical essays published between 1973 and 2001 on Jack Kerouac s On the Road and includes a chronology a bibliography and an introduction by Harold Bloom      The Cumulative Book Index , 1992 A world list of books in the English language      Form and Fabric in Landscape Architecture Catherine Dee, 2004-03-01 Form and Fabric in Landscape Architecture provides an original visual approach to the study of landscape architecture by creating a spatial morphology based on use and experience of landscapes It explores aesthetic spatial and experiential concepts by providing a structure through which landscapes can be understood and conceived in design Fabric is the integrated structure of whole landscapes while form refers to the components that make up this fabric Together form and fabric create a morphology of landscape useful for the development of visual spatial design thinking and awareness This book is intended as both an introduction to the discipline for students of landscape architecture architecture and planning and a source of continuing interest for more experienced environmental designers      New Serial Titles , 1992

Programming for Everyone in Java Per B. Hansen, 2000-08-04 This book assumes very little or no knowledge of how computers work and shows how to write understandable programs in Java Even though most readers will not wish to become professional programmers programming is fun and useful and in today s world it is important for professionals in any field to appreciate what computers can and cannot do well To reach this level of understanding Per Brinch Hansen goes beyond the routine skills of a computer user and explains the art of programming in some depth allowing readers to write Java programs for use on the WWW or company s Intranet Although a book about programming with Java the same methods can be used for systematic programming in such languages as C Fortran and Pascal The book makes a splendid text for a one semester course on beginning programming and is backed by teaching aids available at the author s Website      Money/Space Andrew Leyshon, Nigel Thrift, 2005-06-28 Bringing together in one volume the most important writings of Andrew Leyshon and Nigel Thrift on money and finance including the unpublished classic Sexy Greedy this collection examines the economic social and cultural manifestations that go to make up the multiple vision of money Money it seems is the great God of our age It is also an economy a sociology an anthropology and a geography Linking money with the emergent patterns of global spatial order Money Space analyses the restructuring of financial markets in a range of spatial scales global national and local

Divided Sovereignities Rochelle Raineri Zuck, 2016-08-01 In eighteenth and nineteenth century debates about the constructions of American nationhood and national citizenship the frequently invoked concept of divided sovereignty signified the division of power between state and federal authorities and or the possibility of one nation residing within the geopolitical boundaries of another Political and social realities of the nineteenth century such as immigration slavery westward expansion Indigenous treaties and financial panics amplified anxieties about threats to national state sovereignty Rochelle Raineri Zuck argues that in the decades between the ratification of the Constitution and the publication of Sutton Griggs's novel Imperium in Imperio in 1899 four populations were most often referred to as racial and ethnic nations within the nation the Cherokees African Americans Irish Americans and Chinese immigrants Writers and orators from these groups engaged the concept of divided sovereignty to assert alternative visions of sovereignty and collective allegiance not just ethnic or racial identity to gain political traction and to complicate existing formations of nationhood and citizenship Their stories intersected with issues that dominated nineteenth century public argument and contributed to the Civil War In five chapters focused on these groups Zuck reveals how constructions of sovereignty shed light on a host of concerns including regional and sectional tensions territorial expansion and jurisdiction economic uncertainty racial ethnic and religious differences international relations immigration and arguments about personhood citizenship and nationhood
