Penguin Island Anatole France, 2015-12-31 I LIFE OF SAINT MAEL Mael a scion of a royal family of Cambria was sent in his ninth year to the Abbey of Yvern so that he might there study both sacred and profane learning At the age of fourteen he renounced his patrimony and took a vow to serve the Lord His time was divided according to the rule between the singing of hymns the study of grammar and the meditation of eternal truths A celestial perfume soon disclosed the virtues of the monk throughout the cloister and when the blessed Gal the Abbot of Yvern departed from this world into the next young Mael succeeded him in the government of the monastery He established therein a school an infirmary a guest house a forge work shops of all kinds and sheds for building ships and he compelled the monks to till the lands in the neighbourhood With his own hands he cultivated the garden of the Abbey he worked in metals he instructed the novices and his life was gently gliding along like a stream that reflects the heaven and fertilizes the fields At the close of the day this servant of God was accustomed to seat himself on the cliff in the place that is to day still called St Mael s chair At his feet the rocks bristling with green seaweed and tawny wrack seemed like black dragons as they faced the foam of the waves with their monstrous breasts He watched the sun descending into the ocean like a red Host whose glorious blood gave a purple tone to the clouds and to the summits of the waves And the holy man saw in this the image of the mystery of the Cross by which the divine blood has clothed the earth with a royal purple In the offing a line of dark blue marked the shores of the island of Gad where St Bridget who had been given the veil by St Malo ruled over a convent of women Now Bridget knowing the merits of the venerable Mael begged from him some work of his hands as a rich present Mael cast a hand bell of bronze for her and when it was finished he blessed it and threw it into the sea And the bell went ringing towards the coast of Gad where St Bridget warned by the sound of the bell upon the waves received it piously and carried it in solemn procession with singing of psalms into the chapel of the convent
