Penguin Int Short Stories:

The Penguin Book of International Short Stories Daniel Halpern, 1989      The Short Story and the First World War Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2013-07-31 Covering a range of topics settings and styles the book offers the first comprehensive study of short fiction from the First World War      Strange Pleasures 3 Dave Hutchinson, 2005-09-01 C S Thompson Lauren Halkon John Grant Chris Amies Teri Smith David V Barrett Lou Anders Robert I Katz Paul Kincaid Stuart Jaffe Marianne Plumridge K Z Perry Robert I Katz Ron Miller Randy M Dannenfelser John Grant Fay Sampson Edwina Harvey Ian Johnson Jean Marie Ward and Martha Garvey      Literature and International Relations Paul Sheeran, 2016-05-23 Making a strong case for the relevance of literary production to understanding international relations this persuasive volume highlights the potential rewards of developing a methodology to bring literature to bear on a discipline which has tended to neglect fictional sources Paul Sheeran considers the deep insight that can be gained from the study of key works in fiction and literature to enhance knowledge of the social forces shaping world affairs While there are numerous relevant works the author has carefully selected multi faceted and colourful sources of material to explore developments in contemporary global issues such as the demise of the Soviet Union the attack on the World Trade Centre infectious diseases and human conflict This exciting book enthusiastically breaks new ground and is highly suitable for courses on international relations cultural studies and literature      Narrative Concepts and Techniques in International Literary Fiction Ken Ireland, 2025-04-15 The omnipresence of narrative in our real life experience and in the media world makes it a vital and relevant factor for study This book presents an easily accessible guide to a series of key narrative topics with concise entries in a transparent format of compact paragraphs allowing quick reference and omitting footnotes and endnotes to aid fluency It uses throughout a wide range of illustrative examples from Western and non Western literature stressing the universal relevance and application of narrative concepts and techniques These examples are intended to stimulate interest in less familiar non mainstream but important texts and to highlight unsuspected features in more familiar texts Engaging with texts from Africa and Asia the Americas and Australasia as well as from Britain and Europe it will appeal to students of comparative literature to creative writers whose awareness of available techniques and devices can prompt fresh ideas and approaches and will introduce general readers can be introduced to new areas of literary experience      Who Are We? Old, New, and Timeless Answers from Core Texts Robert D. Anderson, Molly Brigid Flynn, Scott J. Lee, 2011-05-04 In this volume the Association for Core Texts and Courses has gathered essays of literary and philosophical accounts that explain who we are simply as persons Further essays are included that highlight the person as entwined with other persons and examine who we are in light of communal ties The essays reflect both the Western experience of democracy and how community informs who we are more generally Our historical position in a modern or post modern urbanized or disenchanted world is explored by yet other papers And finally ACTC educators model the intellectual life for students and colleagues by showing how to read texts carefully and with sophistication as an example of who we can be      Instructor's Manual to Accompany The International Story Ruth Spack,1998-07-28 The International Story is an anthology with guidelines for reading and writing about fiction The Instructor's Manual provides teaching suggestions detailed notes and summaries of the readings in the Student's Book

Writing Short Stories Courttia Newland,Tania Hershman,2015-04-23 Writing Short Stories A Writers and Artists Companion is an essential guide to writing short fiction successfully PART 1 explores the nature and history of the form personal reflections by the editors and help getting started with ideas planning and research PART 2 includes tips by leading short story writers including Alison Moore Jane Rogers Edith Pearlman David Vann Anthony Doerr Vanessa Gebbie Alexander MacLeod Adam Thorpe and Elspeth Sandys PART 3 contains practical advice from shaping plots and exploring your characters to beating writers block rewriting and publishing your stories      Global Cultures Elisabeth Young-Bruehl,1994-12-09 An anthology of 62 stories from around the non Euro American world providing new definitions of cultural diversity and commonality and an invaluable tool for teachers responding to the growing need for multicultural literature Over the past two decades sweeping political changes and burgeoning new technologies have resulted in communities being increasingly defined in global as well as regional and national terms Although the intellectual terra nova of world cultures remains largely uncharted this anthology of sixty two stories from around the non Euro American world provides what Elisabeth Young Bruehl calls an introductory map to the great wealth of literary works now being produced in at once the particular settings of the writers experiences and the global setting Young Bruehl finds that while the cultural diversity the stories exemplify is amazing so too is the similarity in thematic terms of the concerns that this diversity presents Thus she organized Global Cultures thematically to highlight and clarify how these worldwide cultures both converge and diverge A comprehensive general introduction outlines forces behind the transnational approach to literary study and chapter introductions contextualize each story Stories from India Cuba South Africa and Uruguay are connected by the theme of exile and immigration tales from Nigeria Guatemala Cameroon and Egypt share a theme of political violence and civil uprisings works from Taiwan Chile Jamaica and Syria describe commonalities of women facing effects of modernization prejudice war and immigration Global Cultures contributes to the fast growing body of contemporary short fictions newly available in English and is an invaluable resource to meet the need for multicultural literature      The Penguin Book of International Short Stories Daniel Halpern,1989      International Anthologies of Literature in Translation Harald Kittel,1995-01-01      Creative Writing and the Radical Nigel Krauth,2016-07-18 The rise of digital publishing and the ebook has opened up an array of possibilities for the writer working with innovation in mind Creative Writing and the Radical uses an examination of how experimental writers in the past have explored the possibilities of multimodal writing to theorise the nature of writing fiction in the future It is clear that experimental writers rehearsed for technological advances long before they were invented Through an in depth study of writers and their motivations challenges and solutions the author explores the shifts creative writing teachers and students will need to make in order to adapt to a new era of fiction writing and reading      The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women's short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo In doing so the book also develops the first book length conceptualisation of the features and meaning making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women's studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide      Fictions of Power in English Literature Lee Horsley, 2016-07-01 As a result of its imperial role Britain was closely involved with such romantic and disruptive myths of power such as the imperial adventure hero and the self deified charismatic leader Lee Horsley explores fictional representations of political power during this period surveying a wide range of texts from the adventure story romance thriller and science fiction to the novels of Conrad Huxley Orwell and Greene      Dreaming Suburbia Amy Maria Kenyon, 2004 A multifaceted cultural study of suburbanization in the United States and Detroit in particular during the postwar suburban boom Dreaming Suburbia is a cultural and historical interpretation of the political economy of postwar American suburbanization Questions of race class and gender are explored through novels film television and social criticism where suburbia features as a central theme Although suburbanization had important implications for cities and for the geopolitics of race critical considerations of race and urban culture often receive insufficient attention in cultural studies of suburbia This book puts these questions back in the frame by focusing on Detroit Dearborn and Ford history and the local suburbs of Inkster and Garden City Covering such topics as the political and cultural economy of suburban sprawl the interdependence of city and suburb and local acts of violence and crises during the 1967 riots the text examines the making of a physical place its cultural effects and social exclusions The perspectives of cultural history American studies social science and urban studies give Dreaming Suburbia an interdisciplinary appeal      International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters     The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimagined in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature     International Bibliography of Sociology Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2002-12 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge on the social sciences     Guicciardini, Geopolitics and Geohistory William Mallinson, 2021-06-15 This book demonstrates that geohistory is a more effective concept than geopolitics in understanding inter state relations at a time of considerable confusion in world affairs and that Francesco Guicciardini's thoughts are an efficient medium to demonstrate not only the inadequacies of geopolitics but that a geohistorical approach can be a more responsible way of understanding international affairs The book introduces a fresh approach based on the individual on which corporate characteristics and behaviour depend often in the shape of state interests which are unable on their own to predict actions driven by human behaviour The book shows how mainstream international relations theories are stuck in paradigms inadequate in explaining why world politics is moving in a direction that nobody could predict even a decade ago It shows how ideology can blur clear understanding In short it represents a new and intellectually refreshing approach and method in understanding and tackling the vagaries of relations between states     Men Without Women Haruki Murakami, 2017-05-09 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Including the story Drive My Car now an Academy Award nominated film this collection from the internationally acclaimed author examines what happens to characters without important women in their lives it ll move you and confuse you and sometimes leave you with more questions than answers Barack Obama Across seven tales Haruki Murakami brings his powers of observation to bear on the lives of men who in their own ways find themselves alone Here are lovesick doctors students ex boyfriends actors bartenders and even Kafka s Gregor Samsa brought together to tell stories that speak to us all In Men Without Women Murakami has crafted another contemporary classic marked by the same wry humor and pathos that have defined his entire body of work
