the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women s autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women s spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women s spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women s religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point     Teaching Australian and New Zealand Literature Nicholas Birns,Nicole Moore,Sarah Shieff,2017-05-01 Offers techniques for teaching Australian and New Zealand literature in college and discusses the history of the two countries Maori and Aboriginal texts colonialism gender landscapes violence indigenous aesthetics ethics and crime fiction Includes information on editions reference works and online resources Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses     Words to Walk by Todd Barr,Rodney John Sullivan,2005 Unveils Brisbane through the lives and works of the city s best loved authors With 25 scenic walks through Brisbane s literary past and present
