Recovering Ruth Robert L. Root, 2003-01-01 The task of editing and annotating a nineteenth century diary seemed straightforward at first but as Robert Root assembled scattered fragments of lost history and immersed himself in background research he became enmeshed in unexpected ways When doubts arose about who really wrote the journal Root found himself plunged into a mystery of lost identity drawn ever deeper into the drama and complexity of forgotten lives and engaged in a quest at times both compulsive and quixotic Part memoir part meditation on the nature of biography Recovering Ruth is the absorbing story of recovering a hidden past and of learning firsthand the complications of intimacy that develop between a biographer and his subject

Pulling Down the Barn Anne-Marie Oomen, 2004-07-28 Blending artful language and style with the dirt blood and sweat of farm life this collection of essays tells a moving story of growing up in rural Michigan Pulling Down the Barn eloquently recalls author Anne Marie Oomen's personal journey as she discovers herself an outsider on her family farm located in western Michigan's Oceana County in the township of Elbridge a couple hundred acres in the middle of rural America Written as a series of heartfelt interlocking narratives this collection of essays portrays the realities of farm life haying picking asparagus and cherries the machinery of tractors and pickers but each chapter also touches upon the more ethereal and rarely articulated the stoic love that permeates a family the farmer's struggle with identity and the way land can shape a childhood With its rich language and style Pulling Down the Barn engrosses the reader in Oomen's memories setting beauty and wonder against work and loss and paints a poignant portrait of growing up in rural Michigan

Divining, a Memoir in Trees Maureen Dunphy, 2023-02-21 Essays exploring the intimate yet universal intersection of one human life with trees A 2024 selection by the Sierra Club Wisconsin Chapter Book Club Finalist for the Midwest Book Awards In sixteen essays each named after a species of tree Maureen Dunphy explores the nature of human arboreal relationships and how each of these trees has literally served as a friend a confidante or a place to rest The depth and diversity of these relationships are revealed through essays that are both intimate and universal moving and informative While Dunphy s relationships with trees are unique and personal her work reveals the deep rooted complexity that connects all of humanity to our staunch upright companions in life the members of the Standing Nation Beyond providing oxygen food and shelter trees can be sites of emotional refuge sources of intellectual enrichment and a boon to physical mental and spiritual health With essays such as Stairway to Heaven The American Sycamore and Rocky Mountain High The Colorado Pinyon Dunphy gives readers many ways to reimagine our relationships with nature and self Within reflections of her personal experience she skillfully integrates scientific facts to achieve a balance of passion and practicality While technology screens and the stress of the modern world directs our attention elsewhere Dunphy brings the reader back to the trees right outside our windows
