Coming of Age United States. President's Commission on Pension Policy,1981 Social Welfare in Developed Market Countries John Dixon,Robert P. Scheurell,2016-03-17 First published in 1989 this book analyses social welfare in countries with highly developed economies at that time For each country it considers the ideological framework underlying the social welfare system and describes the historical development of both the system and the political and socio economic context Each chapter looks at the structure and administration of the systems in place and how these are financed This is followed by a consideration of the nature of different parts of the welfare system a survey of social security personal social services and the treatment of the following key target groups the aged those with disabilities and handicaps children and youth disadvantaged families the unemployed and the sick and injured Each chapter concludes with an assessment of the

Shilton,2016-09-01 Workplace pensions are a vital part of Canada s retirement income system but these plans have reached a state of crisis as a result of their low coverage and inadequate insecure and unequally distributed benefits Reviewing pension plans through a legal and historical lens Empty Promises reveals the paradoxical effects and inevitable failure of a pension system built on the interests of employers rather than employees Elizabeth Shilton examines the evolution of pension law in Canada from the 1870s to the early twenty first century highlighting the foreseeably futile struggle of legislators to create and sustain employees pension rights without undermining employers incentives The current system gives employers considerable discretion and control in pension design and administration Shilton appeals for a model that is not hostage to business interests She recommends replacing today s employer controlled systems with pensions shaped by the public interest expanding mandatory broad based or state pension systems such as the Canada Pension Plan to generate pensions that respond to the changing workplace and address the needs and interests of retirees Engaging with the long running debate on whether Canadians should look to government or to the private sector for retirement income security Empty Promises is a crucial work concerned with the future of the Canadian retirement system Women and Work Paul Phillips,Erin Phillips,2000 Women and Work provides an analysis of the issue of workplace inequality Among the topics discussed are women s participation in the workplace the continuing disparity in wages the impact of new technologies free trade and economic restructuring and the involvement of women in the labour movement This revised edition amplifies the authors findings that little has improved in women s working conditions and prospects Hayes and Williams' Family Law Mary Hayes,Stephen Gilmore,Lisa Glennon,2012-08-23 Rev ed of Family law principles policy and practice 2nd ed c1999 A Subtle Balance Edward A. Parson,2015-06-15 A Subtle Balance critically reflects on major trends and enduring challenges over the last four decades of public policy and governance During this time a tension has existed between two aims for public decisions that they be based on the best available evidence and analysis and that they be fully democratic This period has seen a continuing drive for more direct citizen engagement in decision making and governments trying to address major policy issues through novel consultative and collaborative processes In essays that offer detailed and novel insights into the recent history of specific issues in social policy environmental policy and processes of policy advice and decision making contributors elaborate on how these trends have played out in diverse areas of practice what their consequences have been and how specific institutional reforms could reset the requisite balance between expertise evidence and democracy in Canadian public policy Inspired by the wide ranging contributions to scholarship and practice of A R Rod Dobell A Subtle Balance draws on the influences of distinguished scholars and sophisticated practitioners of public policy to assess recent changes in governance Contributors include Martin Bunton Barry Carin Ian Clark Rachel Culley Rod Dobell Lia Ernst Jill Horwitz John Langford Justin Longo Michael Prince Harry Swain Charles Ungerleider Josee van Eijndhoven Michael
