Appealing to God or Man Nicholas J. Campbell, 2025-03-31 Appealing to God or Man Contrasting Barrenness and Family Death Narratives in the Hebrew Bible and Ancient Near East argues for a reevaluation of barrenness type scenes in the Hebrew Bible and ancient Near East More specifically the argument is for a distinction women in family death narratives appeal to men while women in barrenness narratives appeal to God Even the male centric epics of the ancient Near East show that women interact with the divine more during barrenness crises e g the wife s prophetic dream in the Etana myth than during family death crises e g male divine narratives in Kirta and Aqhat This distinction not only clarifies the narrative tropes but emphasizes the role of women in these crises and intersects with discussions of household roles in the ancient Near East Male and female roles in marriage and fertility drive the responses of characters in these idealized narrative worlds especially in family death and barrenness narratives

Marriage and Modernization Don S. Browning, 2003-03-20 The processes of modernization and globalization promise more wealth and health for many people But they are also a threat to the stability and quality of marriage and family life This new book at once sobering and constructive looks at the impact of these processes on marriage and asks what Christianity in cooperation with other religions can do to strengthen married life today Among the deleterious effects of modernization and globalization on marriage are a worldwide drift of men away from the responsibility of parenthood and the tendency of mothers too readily to take on the task of childrearing alone After looking at recent research on these and other problems Don Browning suggests that the cure for modern marital disruption entails reforming and reconstructing the institution of marriage while also nurturing relevant forms of social support Yet the effort to initiate a world marriage revival requires a complex cultural work and Browning explores the key contributions that the religions of the world must make for such an effort to be successful

Pentateuch with Targum Onkelos, Haphtaroth and Prayers for Sabbath and Rashi's Commentary: Leviticus, 1932

The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 20 Jerome A. Winer, 2013-05-13 Volume 20 of The Annual of Psychoanalysis ably traverses the analytic canvas with sections on Theoretical Studies Clinical Studies Applied Psychoanalysis and Psychoanalysis and Philosophy The first section begins with Arnold Modell s probing consideration of the paradoxical nature of the self provocatively discussed with John Gedo Modell focuses on the fact that the self is simultaneously public and private dependent and autonomous Alice Rosen Soref next explores innate motivation and self protective regulatory processes from the standpoint of recent infancy research her notion of a lifelong two track model of self and relatedness helps establish a normative baseline that can anchor psychoanalytic theory George Mahl makes an interesting contribution to Freud studies in the form of a new chronology of Freud s works and the number of pages they contain in the Standard Edition The section ends with Robert Galatzer Levy and Mayer Gruber s quasi experiment about disgust They test and disconfirm the hypothesis that disgust is an affective response to an abstract sense of disorder rather than a transformation of a concrete bodily experience by systematically exploring references to concepts of disgust in the Old Testament Section II on Clinical Studies opens with Henry Smith's fascinating elaboration of Freud's notion of screen memories into a theory of screening that denotes the general process by which mental content is organized He illustrates his thesis by invoking the screen language employed by a patient throughout her analysis Ernest Wolf next explores the tension between being a scientist and a healer in Freud and his followers to illuminate struggles within the psychoanalytic movement and to help account for current attitudes toward abstinence neutrality and gratification Kenneth Newman focuses on this same triptych of technical precepts He argues in the spirit of Winnicott and Kohut that analysts can only alter the hostile internal environments of their patients by becoming usable objects and cultivating an optimally responsive analytic environment A particularly rich collection of applied analytic studies forms Section III of the volume Individual chapters focus on the childhood of Vincent van Gogh W W Meissner the psychological healing process depicted in George Eliot's Silas Marner Richard Almond the self psychological meaning of blood brotherhood in D H Lawrence's Women in Love James Cowan ecstatic mysticism in the 19th century Indian saint Sri Ramakrishna Sudhir Kakar the disintegration of the Tyrone family in Eugene O'Neill's Long Day's Journey into Night Frank and Annette Lachmann and the nature and analytic significance of Freud's aesthetic response to Michelangelo's Moses Gary Goldsmith Finally in Section IV George Brook examines the commonsense psychological knowledge of everyday life that is the nonpsychoanalytic knowledge on which much of clinical psychoanalysis ultimately depends Taken together the four sections of Volume 20 of The Annual offer an exciting overview of contemporary psychoanalysis Section I highlights recent trends in psychoanalytic theorizing and the testing of psychoanalytic propositions Section II explores the relevance of new theoretical perspectives to clinical work Section III demonstrates the applicability of these new perspectives to psychobiographical and literary analysis and Section IV provocatively explores the points of connection between everyday ideas and attitudes and the tenets of psychoanalytic practice

God in Search of Man Abraham Joshua Heschel, 1976-06-01 Abraham Joshua Heschel was one of the most revered religious leaders of the 20th century and God in Search of Man and its companion volume Man Is Not Alone two of his most important books are classics of modern Jewish theology God in Search of Man combines scholarship with lucidity reverence and compassion as Dr Heschel discusses not man's search for God but God's for man the notion of a Chosen People an idea which he writes signifies not a quality inherent in the people but a relationship between the people and God It is an extraordinary description of the nature of Biblical thought and how that thought becomes faith The Theology of the Book of Genesis R. These are the Generations Matthew A. Thomas, 2011-03-17 Using a combination of form critical and linguistic methods the author seeks to understand the role of the toledot formula often translated These are the generations of Name in shaping the book of Genesis and the Pentateuch as a whole An examination of the formula uncovers that it functions primarily as a heading to major sections of text and draws the readers attention to focus on an ever narrower range of characters By starting from the perspective of the surface structure of the text and addressing questions that investigation raises the study is able to uncover and resolve a number of tensions within the text as well as provide insights into a number of other questions surrounding the toledot headings and the organization of the structure of the Pentateuch Africa and the Bible Gene Rice,2019-11-18 Africa and the Bible is a collection of essays about the African influence on and presence in the Old Testament written over Gene Rice s more than fifty years of scholarly service at Howard University School of Divinity They focus on characters with African heritage such as Ebed melech and Jehudi in Jeremiah and the prophet Zephaniah himself as well as dealing with texts that have been misinterpreted to the detriment of African Americans such as the story of the curse of Canaan in which Ham and all his dark skinned descendants are the ones viewed as cursed One article provides evidence that the original worshippers of YHWH may have been from the land of Kush One of Rice s earliest articles deals with the story of Joseph and relates it to Jim Crow Rice finds in the story a model for racial reconciliation that is still relevant today With a foreword by his colleague of many years Cain Hope Felder Professor of New Testament at Howard University School of Divinity now retired and a preface by Jonathan Rice Gene Rice s son the book is a treasure trove of carefully researched thought provoking articles and a perfect supplement to be used alongside a Hebrew Bible textbook Encyclopaedia Judaica: Ba-Blo Fred Skolnik,2007 Provides an exhaustive and organized overview of Jewish life and knowledge from the Second Temple period to the contemporary State of Israel from Rabbinic to modern Yiddish literature from Kabbalah to Americana and from Zionism to the contribution of Jews to world cultures The Sons of God in Genesis 6:1-4 J.J.T. Doedens,2019-03-19 In The Sons of God in Genesis 6 1 4 Jaap Doedens offers an overview of the history of exegesis of the enigmatic text about the sons of God the daughters of men and the giants First he analyzes the text of Gen 6 1 4 Subsequently he tracks the different exegetical proposals from the earliest exegesis until those of modern times He further provides the reader with an evaluation of the meaning of the expression sons of God in the Old Testament and the Ancient Near East In the last chapter he concentrates on the message and function of Gen 6 1 4 This volume comprehensively gathers ancient and modern exegetical attempts providing the means for an ongoing dialogue about this essentially complex and elusive passage And We're All Brothers: Singing in Yiddish in Contemporary North America Abigail Wood,2016-04-08 The dawn of the twenty first century marked a turning period for American Yiddish culture The Old World of Yiddish speaking Eastern Europe was fading from living memory yet at the same time Yiddish song enjoyed a renaissance of creative interest both among a younger generation seeking reengagement with the Yiddish language and most prominently via the transnational revival of klezmer music The last quarter of the twentieth century and the early years of the twenty first saw a steady stream of new songbook publications and recordings in Yiddish newly composed songs well known singers performing
