Proclamation Four, Series A, Easter Walter Brueggemann, 1989-11 Vol discusses appointed lessons for Easter Monday Ascension and the 2nd through 7th Sundays of Easter A Healing Homiletic Kathy Black, 1996-10-01 In A Healing Homiletic Preaching and Disability Kathy Black offers a unique and effective approach for preaching about disabilities By going to the heart of the gospel and drawing on the healing narratives or miracle stories Black shows how preaching affects the inclusion or exclusion of forty three million persons with disabilities from our faith communities A Healing Homiletic provides a new method of preaching about healing based on Scripture for understanding the needs of the disability community The Cumulative Book Index , 1994 A world list of books in the English language Pentecost 3 Patricia Wilson-Kastner, 1994 Discusses appointed lessons for the 20th through the last Sunday after Pentecost The Living Church , 1981-07 Luther's Church Postil Gospels: Pentecost or missionary sermons. 1907 Martin Luther, 1907

Rattling Those Dry Bones June Steffensen Hagen, 1995 Twenty two remarkable women of faith share their personal views and experiences of what holds them in the church This powerful collection includes some of the church's most well respected leaders theologians and teachers such as Madeleine L Engle Susan Cole Elisabeth Moltmann Wendel Virginia Ramey Mollenkott Rosemary Haughton and Nancy Hardesty Sermons of Martin Luther: Sermons on Gospel texts for Pentecost Martin Luther, 1907 Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing, Reference Reed, 1995-12

God and Capitalism Vern Visick, J. Mark Thomas, 2016-07-06 Printed in Partnership with The Center and Library for the Bible and Social Justice Can an economic system receive a response informed by biblical and theological ethics This collection of five essays first published in 1991 provides a solid yes to the way prophetic criticism rooted in the Hebrew tradition of social justice can assess the state of today's market economy In strong contrast to the conservative and Religious Right orientations of the 1980s the writers of this book crack the hegemony of neoconservatives in theology They also provide strong arguments for what H Richard Niebuhr called a transformational ethic Norman Gottwald discusses the rise of the Hebrew prophets and their call for economic justice William Tabb evaluates contemporary political economies in light of the prophetic tradition Beverly Harrison develops a prophetic approach to current socio economic troubles of the middle class Gregory Baum reviews Catholic perspectives on international economic arrangements and trends And finally Dorothee Soelle describes the economic and political implications of the Hebrew concepts of the Sabbath and the Year of the Jubilee

Empowered Believers Gonzalo Haya-Prats, 2011-01-01 This thesis by Gonzalo Haya Prats written in the Catholic interpretive tradition under the supervision of Johannine scholar Ignace de la Potterie at the Gregorian University in Rome reflects a faith tradition that historically remained open to the miraculous and resisted regulations on activities of the Holy Spirit in the Book of Acts Accordingly Haya Prats interprets the workings of the Spirit from a perspective of narrative sensitivity He is deliberately diligent to exercise due care so as not to obscure narrative flow and connectivity despite any ecclesial or interpretive precedents that might be of influence to the contrary His exegetical method is to let the original meaning be discerned and discovered according to the author's intention as closely as possible With this sound interpretive approach Haya Prats achieves a remarkable degree of freshness and insightful vision that all readers of Luke Acts will welcome Students and scholars alike should find this timely and thoughtful thesis to be a valuable and long lasting contribution to New Testament studies This English edition is made more accessible by including translations of all contemporary foreign languages and editor Paul Elbert offers occasional explanatory notes that engage current scholarship relevant to Haya Prats's presentation

The Christian Faith Michael Horton, 2011-01-04 Theology the study of God is a concern for every believer not just theologians or those in ministry It's the goal of good theology to humble us before the triune God of majesty as we come to understand him better This is a book of and about good theology Award winning author theologian and professor Michael Horton wrote The Christian Faith as a book of systematic theology and doctrine that can be preached experienced and lived as well as understood clarified and articulated It's written for a growing cast of pilgrims in ministry and laity who are interested in learning about Christ as a way of living as a Christian Who understand that knowing doctrine and walking in practical Christianity are not competing interests The Christian Faith is divided into six parts five of which each focus on an aspect of God while the first part sets up an understanding and appreciation for the task of theology itself addressing topics like The source of theology where the idea of theology comes from and what its limits are The origin of the canon how the modern Bible came about and why we can trust it The character of theology is the nature of theology practical theoretical or can it be both In a manner equally as welcoming to professors pastors students and armchair theologians Horton has organized this volume in a readable fashion that includes a variety of learning features A brief synopsis of biblical passages that inform certain doctrines Surveys of past and current theologies with contemporary emphasis on exegetical philosophical practical and theological questions Substantial interaction with various Christian movements within the Protestant Catholic and Orthodoxy traditions as well as the hermeneutical issues raised by postmodernity Charts sidebars questions for discussion and an extensive bibliography divided into different entry levels and topics At the heart of this book is a deep love for and curiosity about God Its basic argument is that a personal relationship with God goes hand in hand with the pursuit of theology It isn't possible to know God without studying him
