The People's West Lake Qiliang He,2023-07-31 The People s West Lake examines the Chinese Communist Party s CCP efforts to reconfigure Hangzhou s urban space alter the natural environment in West Lake Xihu and refashion the city s culture in post 1949 China It pieces together five initiatives between the 1950s and the 1970s the dredging of the lake the construction of the public park of Watching Fish at the Flower Harbor Huagang guanyu the afforestation movement the development of collectivized pig farming around West Lake and the two campaigns to remove lakeside tombs These projects were intended to generate visible and tangible results a lake with a good depth a scenic public garden greener hills surrounding the lake a growing swine population and rising productivity of fertilizer and a tourist site cleansed of burial grounds while also being readily subject to the Party's propaganda. These initiatives were designed both to achieve economic, cultural, and ecological utilities and to forge and popularize a sense of socialist nationhood. The CCP's endeavor to fundamentally transform the West Lake area also opened up possibilities for both human and nonhuman actors to variously benefit from, get along with, and undermine the political authorities planning. This book thus emphatically foregrounds and unifies the agency of both humans and nonhuman entities that are not necessarily tied to intentionality, bringing into question the legitimacy of the human/nonhuman binary. Author Qiliang He explores the agency of both humans and nonhumans, including water microbes, aquatic plants, the park pigs, trees, pests, and tombs, to affect, deflect, and undercut the CCP's sociopolitical programs, thereby diminishing the efficacy of state propaganda. Highlighting the nonpurposive agency of both actors, problematizes the long-held resistance accommodation paradigm which presumes the resisters a priori subjectivities independent of the socialist system in studying the state-society relationship in the People's Republic of China. Using a project-based approach, The People's West Lake gives the nature-human relationship in Mao's China, best known as Mao's war against nature, historical and cultural specificities to reexamine the PRC regime's central planning and the issues related to it.

Battle for Hegemony in the World Moukda Mansapha, 2024-09-12. The best way to solve the problem is only two: money and knife. There are no shortcuts to climbing up, and if there is, it belongs only to the better prepared. In the prosperous times, the Chinese side tried to become a rich man but unfortunately failed. In the midst of troubled times, Fang Jie wanted to be a peaceful man but unfortunately he failed again. So he competes for the world. Chapter 1: The fierce cold wind came from the north, wrapped in snow foam and wiped the ground after blowing.
