Seasons of Love Eleanor Sampeck, 2004 Twenty five years ago an extended family made a return to nature move to the country. This magical book is the record of their struggles and growth. The book achieves its vividly realistic tone by covering the family's lived experience from joy to sorrow, life and death, and lofty to such mundane details as manure for the garden. Its pages are populated by four generations unusual in a time when the nuclear family is everything. Although the work is supported by sound theological and psychological theory, it never lingers too long in these realms but continues to continue the daily drama of one family's risky living of the gospel.

How Goes It With America III Harry Gael Michaels, 2011-09-07 The issues of concern are the frustrations, violence, educational disappointments, and insults to children of the United States. My book begins with the shooting at Columbine High School on April 20, 1999, and then takes a look back to the high lights of recent American history from WWII as an attempt to put into some perspective the major events that seem to have contributed to the devaluation of the professionalism of teachers and educators and public education in general. This then leads to a presentation of the need for educational reform with specific recommendations as well as guidance models for the young as an adjunct to societal reform and a final summation of purposes and directions for the future. It also provides teaching points and a guidance manual for those in the fields of counseling, civics, modern U.S. history, psychology, and sociology.

Global Organizing Designs George B. Graen, Joan A. Graen, 2005-08-01 This third volume of LMX Leadership: The Series addresses the question of how leaders prepare their teams for required, loosely directed, highly coordinated, and above all flexible operations. It is our hope that this volume will stimulate scholarly sweat, blood, and tears needed to make continued progress toward our goal of understanding how the powerful tools of relational leadership can be employed properly to create the flexible organizational structures required to compete successfully in the environmental turbulence of the 21st century. As we stated before, the rapidly changing information age is all around us, and we are struggling to cope with our out-dated, rigid, bureaucratic structures. The China Price has redefined the standards of performance world wide, and they cannot be met with obsolete organizing designs.

Peer Programs Judith A. Tindall, 1995 Peer Programs presents the rationale behind peer helping, the impact of programs on problems of society, sample programs, and organizational and implementation procedures.
