Chicagoland D.K. Olson, 2023-04-13 Chicago is a name that everyone around the world has heard of thanks to Al Capone Doug's love for Chicagoland and his desire to bring the same love for the Windy City and its suburbs to people presently living there or planning to reside there in the future supersedes his own personal shortcomings For people who used to live there the memories found in this book should be quite fulfilling The Chicago Ancestry chapters in particular promise to be historical and informative

A Reader on Preaching David Day, 2017-09-08 Every Sunday all over the world people rise up and claim to speak in the name of God It is an astonishing thing to do and an astonishing claim to make It is small wonder that the sermon has been the focus of debate discussion and investigation It has been dismissed as irrelevant in today s culture and has become the butt of numerous jokes and caricatures Yet the claim persists that these human words in some way can become God s message to these hearers This collection of twenty nine articles by international experts in the area of homiletics coincides with the revival of interest in preaching over the last twenty five years It is practical without being merely tips for preachers and it offers the necessary theoretical discussion for anyone who wants to take the art of preaching seriously No important issue has been omitted and taken as a whole the book constitutes a first class introduction to the principles processes context and theology of preaching Contributors include Walter Brueggemann David Buttrick Fred Craddock Edward Farley John Killinger Richard Lischer Thomas Long Elaine Lawless Jolyon Mitchell Cheryl Sanders and Thomas Troeger

How To Stop Elderly Abuse Anne Hart, 2002-07-02 Will you be able to help and protect yourself when you grow frail How can you stop elderly abuse by personality exploration and learning which pitfalls to avoid Are you more a directive or an informative person Do you ask for direction and easily give it Or do you seek and give information Your stance can help you take action to prevent elderly abuse for yourself and others How will you position yourself to avoid prevent and stop abuse of the aged What can you do right now Preliminary findings of four research studies made by the U S Department of Health and Human Services suggest that some potential causes of abuse of the elderly include the following 1 The majority of abused elderly cannot care for themselves 2 The abuser was experiencing stress Often the elderly victims and the care they required were identified as the source of stress 3 Violence begets violence It s banked throughout life and spent on the person who has the least power over us Sometimes violence continues from generation to generation as the normative response to stress 4 Most older individuals are not abandoned by their children Seventy five percent of the elderly live with these children or live less than 30 minutes away Eighty percent of home care to the aged is provided by family members living in the same household 5 The middle aged adult today is more likely to have a living parent than his counterpart of the past

Testing and Assessment in Counseling Practice C. Edward Watkins, Jr., Vicki L. Campbell, 2012-12-06 The primary purpose of this revision remains identical to that of the first edition to show how key personality cognitive behavioral and vocational tests assessment procedures can be used by counselors in their work with clients Too often assessment books only provide the reader with information about tests and assessment procedures They do not however take the next step showing readers how these tests assessment procedures can be used and integrated into the actual work of counseling This revision is designed to fill that void Chapter authors all of whom are experts in their respective topic areas share the theoretical and research backgrounds about a particular test assessment procedure and then provide a case example or examples to show how assessment data can be meaningfully incorporated into the counseling process
