People Yearbook 2001:

People Yearbook 2001 Eric - Editor Levin, People Weekly Yearbook 2001, 2000 Hello It s morning in the millennium Do you know where your hot celebrities are They re right here in the pictorially packed pages of People s 11th annual year end review People Weekly, 2000 The People's Car Bernhard Rieger, 2013-04-16 Bernhard Rieger reveals how a car commissioned by Hitler and designed by Ferdinand Porsche became a global commodity on a par with Coca Cola The Beetle s success hinged on its uncanny ability to capture the imaginations of executives engineers advertisers car collectors suburbanites hippies and everyday drivers across nations and cultures Energy Policy and Regulation in the People's Republic of China C. P. Andrews-Speed, 2004-01-01 China is the world s second largest consumer of commercial energy and is therefore a significant contributor to atmospheric pollution It is becoming a major player in global and regional markets for energy products services and investment This book provides an overview of the formulation and implementation of energy policy in China Part One provides background information on China s energy sector Part Two examines the nature of China s energy policy and of the policy making process with examples drawn from the coal and natural gas sectors as well as from the government s drive to promote energy conservation and energy efficiency Part Three focuses on recent efforts to reform the energy sector in China and to regulate it more effectively paying particular attention to the electrical power sector and to small scale coal mines Part Four evaluates from the perspective of the citizen policy relating to the electrical power sector and to the closure of small scale coal mines Part Five addresses the international dimensions of China s energy policy with accounts of both inward and outward investment and of the international political implications About the author Dr Philip Andrews Speed is Director of the Centre for Energy Petroleum and Mineral Law and Policy at the University of Dundee Scotland He spent fourteen years as a geologist in the international mining and petroleum industries before coming to the Centre in 1994 gaining an LLM in Energy Law and Policy and joining the academic staff

India Jean Drèze, Amartya Sen, 2002 This book explores the role of public action in eliminating deprivation and expanding human freedoms in India The analysis is based on a broad and integrated view of development which focuses on well being and freedom rather than the standard indicators of economic growth The authors place human agency at the centerstage and stress the complementary roles of different institutions economic social and political in enhancing effective freedoms

Food Security and Social Protection for the Rural Poor in China Ling Zhu, 2017-03-27 Economic growth and its relevant subjects have been given the first priority in the research agenda since China initiated economic reforms in 1978 while the topics of social protection and gender equality have been largely left at the periphery for a long period This book is a collection of evidence based studies conducted mainly in poor areas of rural China during the recent two decades Based on individual interviews and sample data analyses this book emphasizes the importance of cooperative organizations to poverty reduction and puts forward that gender equality is closely related with sustainable development In addition it addresses the issues of food security and elimination of social exclusion the key to bridging economic divide It also studies social protection including basic health protection system nutrition and healthcare for children old age security for landless farmers and rural migrant workers By providing first hand accounts of different vulnerable groups such as the poor women migrant workers ethnic minorities and small farmers this book offers valuable insights into studies of contemporary Chinese society and economy

Diplomatic Law in a New Millennium Paul Behrens, 2017-07-04 The granting of diplomatic asylum to Julian Assange the dangers faced by diplomats in trouble spots around the world WikiLeaks and the publication of thousands of embassy cable situations like these place diplomatic agents and diplomatic law at the very centre of contemporary debate on current affairs Diplomatic Law in a New Millennium brings together 20 experts to provide insight into some of the most controversial and important matters which characterise modern diplomatic law They include diplomatic asylum the treatment and rights of domestic staff of diplomatic agents the inviolability of correspondence of the diplomatic bag and of the diplomatic mission the immunity to be given to members of the diplomatic family diplomatic duties including the duty of non interference but also the rise of diplomatic actors which are not sent by States including members of the EU diplomatic service This book explores these matters in a critical yet accessible manner and is therefore an invaluable resource for practitioners scholars and students with an interest in diplomatic relations The authors of the book include some of the leading authorities on diplomatic law including a delegate to the 1961 conference which codified modern diplomatic law as well as serving and former members of the diplomatic corps

Markets Over Mao Nicholas R Lardy,2014-09-10 China s transition to a market economy has propelled its remarkable economic growth since the late 1970s In this book Nicholas R Lardy one of the world s foremost experts on the Chinese economy traces the increasing role of market forces and refutes the widely advanced argument that Chinese economic progress rests on the government s control of the economy s commanding heights In another challenge to conventional wisdom Lardy finds little evidence that the decade of the leadership of former President Hu Jintao and Premier Wen Jiabao 2003 13 dramatically increased the role and importance of state owned firms as many people argue This book offers powerfully persuasive evidence that the major sources of China s growth in the future will be similarly market rather than state driven with private firms providing the major source of economic growth the sole source of job creation and the major contributor to China s still growing role as a global trader Lardy does however call on China to deregulate and increase competition in those portions of the economy where state firms remain protected especially in energy and finance

The Role of the State in China's Urban System Development Jiejing Wang,2021-02-13 This book investigates how the state intervenes in the urban system in China in the post reform period To do so it constructs a conceptual framework based on the perspective of political hierarchy suggesting that the state power is hierarchically organized in China s urban system leading to variations in urban government capacities among cities The book reveals that the state has largely achieved the goal of its national urban system policy to strictly control the scale of large cities resulting in the under development of the large cities if they are mainly developing according to the market force However this has become less influential with the advances toward a market economy Further state regulation and policies have reduced the gaps between cities at the top and bottom of the urban hierarchy The book argues that the Urban Administrative System UAS is an important tool for the state to regulate urban system development and the administrative level has a significant effect on urban growth performance It contends that China s urban system is strongly shaped by the omnipresent state through the UAS which hierarchically differentiates between the urban growth processes By controlling the administrative level upgrading process the state can prevent the size and number of cities from increasing too rapidly This theoretical and empirical enquiry highlights the fact that the hierarchical power relations among cities and the resulting variations in urban government capacities are the key to understanding the role of the state in China's urban system development in the post reform period

Social Policy Reform in Hong Kong and Shanghai Linda Wong, 2004
