People And Planet The Right Livelihood Award Speeches:

People and Planet Tom Woodhouse,1987 The edited acceptance speeches of 28 social and environmental pioneers including Leopold Kohr Petra Kelly Bill Mollison Hassan Fathy Sir George Trevelyan Wangari Maathai Mike Cooley and Manfred Max Neef      A New World Order Paul Ekins,2005-08-04 First published in 1992 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      People, Land, and Community Nancy Jack Todd,1997-01-01 Degradation of environment and community along with its economic causes has been the subject of much concern in recent years In this book some authorities in the field discuss the historical cultural social political and economic implications of this degradation and suggest citizen initiatives that may halt it      Teaching Right Livelihood. Eine Handreichung für Lehrkräfte und Lehrerbildner. Mit englischsprachigen Unterrichtsmaterialien Ellen Christoforatu,2012      Prosperity for All Matthew Hilton,2011-05-02 The history of consumerism is about much more than just shopping Ever since the eighteenth century citizen consumers have protested against the abuses of the market by boycotting products and promoting fair instead of free trade In recent decades consumer activism has responded to the challenges of affluence by helping to guide consumers through an increasingly complex and alien marketplace In doing so it has challenged the very meaning of consumer society and tackled some of the key economic social and political issues associated with the era of globalization In Prosperity for All the first international history of consumer activism Matthew Hilton shows that modern consumer advocacy reached the peak of its influence in the decades after World War II Growing out of the product testing activities of Consumer Reports and its international counterparts including Which in the United Kingdom Que Choisir in France and Test in Germany consumerism evolved into a truly global social movement Consumer unions NGOs and individual activists like Ralph Nader emerged in countries around the world including developing countries in Southeast Asia and Latin America concerned with creating a more equitable marketplace and articulating a politics of consumption that addressed the needs of both individuals and society as a whole Consumer activists achieved many victories from making cars safer to highlighting the dangers of using baby formula instead of breast milk in countries with no access to clean water The 1980s saw a reversal in the consumer movement s fortunes thanks in large part to the rise of an antiregulatory agenda both in the United States and internationally In the process the definition of consumerism changed focusing more on choice than on access As Hilton shows this change reflects more broadly on the dilemmas we all face as consumers Do we want more stuff and more prosperity for ourselves or do we want others less fortunate to be able to enjoy the same opportunities and standard of living that we do Prosperity for All makes clear that by abandoning a more idealistic vision for consumer society we reduce consumers to little more than shoppers and we deny the vast majority of the world s population the fruits of affluence      The Energy of Slaves Andrew Nikiforuk,2012-08-17 A robustly researched and smoothly written overview of the many challenges confronting our devotion to fossil fuels from the author of Tar Sands Quill Ancient civilizations relied on shackled human muscle It took the energy of slaves to plant crops clothe emperors and build cities Nineteenth century slaveholders viewed critics as hostilely as oil companies and governments now regard environmentalists Yet the abolition movement had an invisible ally coal and oil As the world's most versatile workers fossil fuels replenished slavery's ranks with combustion engines and other labor saving tools Since then cheap oil has transformed politics economics science agriculture and even our concept of happiness Many North Americans today live as extravagantly as Caribbean plantation owners We feel entitled to surplus energy and rationalize inequality even barbarity to get it But endless growth is an illusion In this provocative book Andrew Nikiforuk winner of the Rachel Carson Environment Book Award argues that what we need is a radical emancipation movement that ends our master and slave approach to energy We must learn to use energy on a moral just and truly human scale Published in Partnership with the David Suzuki Institute In his cautionary tale about the evils of oil Nikiforuk makes his case for impending doom if we don't mend our energy spending ways The Star In this cogently argued book Andrew Nikiforuk deploys a powerful metaphor Oil dependency he writes is a modern form of slavery and it's time for a global abolition movement Taras Grescoe author of Shanghai Grand A startling critique that should rouse us from our pipe dream of endless plenty Ronald Wright author of On Fiji Islands

Your Resource Guide to Environmental Organizations John Seredich, 1991 Summary Includes the purposes programs accomplishments volunteer opportunities publications and membership benefits of 150 environmental organizations
