People Of Britain:

The British: People from worldwide origins Birgit Lonnemann, 2008-11-04 Seminar paper from the year 1999 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1.7 University of Osnabrück Fachbereich Sprach und Literaturwissenschaften course Constructing Britishness Fiction Film Press language English abstract We call our islands by no less than six different names England Britain Great Britain the British Isles the United Kingdom and in very exalted moments Albion This quotation taken from George Orwell's essay England Your England 1941 clearly shows that the names quoted above are often used as synonyms although they patently are not So it is no surprise that some people define themselves as being English sorry British a term which occurred in the newspapers several times over the last few months A lot of people seem to be quite confused about their identity about who they are and where they belong But using the words English and British interchangeably is in my opinion not very fair especially with regard to the inhabitants of Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland In fact the so called United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland comprises four different indigenous nations English Scottish Welsh and Northern Irish And considering the fact that the British Isles cf map 1 page 2 of which the United Kingdom³ is a part have attracted settlers and immigrants for several centuries it is not surprising that the contemporary British are a very diverse people or as is stated in the title of my paper people from worldwide origins The question arises whether the majority of people in the United Kingdom consider themselves to be British or rather to be English Scottish Welsh Northern Irish or part of any other community often referred to as a so called ethnic minority group

The Birth of Britain Winston Churchill, 2023-11-16 The Birth of Britain covers the period of the history of Britain from Caesar's invasions of Britain to the end of the feudal age Sir Winston Churchill 1874-1965 was a British statesman army officer and writer who served as Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from 1940 to 1945 and again from 1951 to 1955 In addition to his careers of soldier and politician Winston Churchill was a prolific writer He started as a war journalist on Cuba and continued in British India then in the Sudan during the Mahdist War and in southern Africa during the Second Boer War Churchill received the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1953 Britain's Killing Fields John Igbino, 2023-01-19 Britain kept meticulous records of its casualties in Southern Nigeria but it did not collect and keep any coherent records of the casualties it inflicted on the so called natives Britain's failure to collect and keep natives casualty statistics was not an unconscious omission Instead it was a deliberate policy because it placed considerably less value on the lives of natives compared to European lives It held that a drop of European blood was worth four times more than natives blood The death of a District Officer on active duty was worth the lives of up to two hundred natives and it took twenty natives to service a Political Officer on the field Additionally it accepted the arguments of its top commander Colonel Arthur Montanaro that natives were engaged in illegal resistance to His Majesty's Government therefore while he had a duty to crush their resistance to the British Government he was not duty bound to account for their deaths Accordingly the book explores these untold aspects of British History particularly the computation of the number of Indigenous people of the landmass which became Southern Nigeria who were killed between 1900 and 1930 during one of the bloodiest periods in the history of Southern Nigeria as British troops of the West African Frontier Force WAFF and the West African Service Brigade WASB rampaged through Southern Nigeria In its explorations the book posed and addressed the following questions how many Indigenous people of Southern Nigeria were killed by the British Army between 1900 and 1930 What were the names of the people who were killed Were there women and children among the dead How old were they when they died Where were they buried Who buried them there What were the prevailing political circumstances when they were killed Under what military circumstances were they killed Was there a state of war between the Indigenous people of Southern Nigeria and Britain when they were killed The book's sources were unpublished original archival documents at the National Archives These document sources included Ordinances Proclamations Admiralty's and Crown Agents papers High Commissioners Governor General's and Lieutenant Governor's Correspondences and Despatches The Correspondences and Despatches included field reports compiled by British Army Officers Field Commanders British Police Commissioners Political Officers District Officers DO District Commissioners Divisional Officers Divisional Commissioners and Provincial Commissioners These sources are kept in the following Colonial Office Documents series Southern Nigeria CO520 series and Nigeria CO583 series
