People Of Nowhere The Palestinian Vision Of Home:

The People of Nowhere Danny Rubinstein,1993 Tourism and Memories of Home Sabine Marschall,2017-02-03

This book investigates home and homeland as destinations of touristic journeys and adds to recent scholarly interest in the intersection between tourism and migration It covers the temporary visits and journeys in search of home and homelands by migrants displaced people exiles and diasporic communities in a wide range of different geographical and historical contexts Personal and collective forms of memory are shown to play a key role in the motivation for and experience of such journeys The volume contributes to the investigation of the tourism memory nexus as it conceptualizes memory as underpinning touristic mobility experience and performativity Based on ethnographic case studies and other types of qualitative empirical research the chapters of this book foreground individual touristic experiences emotions memories perceptions the search for identity and a sense of belonging The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of tourism heritage anthropology identity studies memory studies and migration diaspora studies Palestinians Born in Exile Juliane Hammer,2009-08-17 In the decade following the 1993 Oslo Peace Accords some 100 000 diasporic Palestinians returned to the West Bank and Gaza Among them were children and young adults who were born in exile and whose sense of Palestinian identity was shaped not by lived experience but rather through the transmission and re creation of memories images and history As a result returning to the homeland that had never actually been their home presented challenges and disappointments for these young Palestinians who found their lifeways and values sometimes at odds with those of their new neighbors in the West Bank and Gaza This original ethnography records the experiences of Palestinians born in exile who have emigrated to the Palestinian homeland Juliane Hammer interviews young adults between the ages of 16 and 35 to learn how their Palestinian identity has been affected by living in various Arab countries or the United States and then moving to the West Bank and Gaza Their responses underscore how much the experience of living outside of Palestine has become integral to the Palestinian national character even as Palestinians maintain an overwhelming sense of belonging to one another as a people Palestinian Refugees Robert Bowker,2003 Encompassing history politics and political culture Bowker grapples with fundamental issues of Palestinian identity in the context of the peace process Palestinian Refugees Naseer Aruri,2001-07-20 With contributions from a range of international experts including Edward W Said Noam Chomsky Ilan Pappé Alain Gresh and Norman Finkelstein this collection examines the Palestinians right of return Chapters cover the historical roots of the Palestinian refugee question the rights of the refugees under international law the special case of Lebanon Israeli perceptions of the refugee question the practical feasibility of the return the role of the United States and the European Union and the Refugee Question the value of the refugee property the principles of compensation and a programme for an Independent Rights Campaign The Palestinian Refugees J. Ginat,Edward Joseph Perkins,2001 As violence escalates in the Middle East a peace agreement between Israel and Palestine seems more elusive than ever Yet one thing remains clear without constructive dialogue such an agreement cannot occur This timely volume presents just such a dialogue It brings together opinions perspectives and research focused on one of the region s most complex and volatile problems the Palestinian refugee situation Based on a 1999 conference at the University of Oklahoma International Program Center Palestinian Refugees combines contributions from Israelis Palestinians Jordanians Egyptians Americans and Europeans In addition to focusing on the Palestinian refugees the essays present various proposals for solving the Palestinian problem Organized in two parts the volume presents both scholarly essays and position papers The scholarly essays place current issues in historical context and explore the Palestinian belief in the right of return and questions of appropriate compensation The position papers focus on policy and offer a variety of perspectives Concluding the volume is a special essay on public polls that gauge how Palestinians and Israelis view the circumstances of Palestinian refugees and what they feel about possible solutions

The Palestinian Diaspora Helena Lindholm Schulz,2005-07-27 From the refugee camps of the Lebanon to the relative prosperity of life in the USA the Palestinian diaspora has been dispersed across the world In this pioneering study Helena Lindholm Schulz examines the ways in which Palestinian identity has been formed in the diaspora through constant longing for a homeland lost In so doing the author advances the debate on the relationship between diaspora and the creation of national identity as well as on nationalist politics tied to a particular territory But The Palestinian Diaspora also sheds light on the possibilities opened up by a transnational existence the possibility of new less territorialized identities even in a diaspora as bound to the idea of an idealized homeland as the Palestinian Members of the diaspora form new lives in new settings and the idea of homeland becomes one important but not the only source of identity Ultimately though Schulz argues the strong attachment to Palestine makes the diaspora crucial in any understandings of how to formulate a viable strategy for peace between Israelis and Palestinians

The Palestinian Uprising F. Robert Hunter,1993-01-01 The best sustained analysis of the Intifada Charles Smith author of Palestine and the Arab Israeli Conflict

Palestinian Village Histories Rochelle Davis,2011 This book chronicles the local histories written by modern Palestinians about their villages that were destroyed in the 1948 war

Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East Jamie Stokes,2009 Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East is a two volume A to Z reference to the history and culture of the peoples of Africa and the Middle East

Everywhere a Guest, Nowhere at Home Kim Chernin,2009 The title of this book is a phrase often used to describe the fate of the Jewish people in the world and invokes one of the central arguments for the creation of the state of Israel In this thoughtful collection of essays Kim Chernin suggests that the Zionist struggle has left the Palestinian people in a similar predicament now they too are merely guests in their former homeland Confronting her own uncritical support of Israel Chernin tries to reconcile her desire for a Jewish homeland with the reality of the violence carried out in order to secure it Following an in depth examination of the perspectives of both Jews and Palestinians Chernin writes eloquently of the process by which she gradually learned to hear once ignored Palestinian voices

By combining her knowledge of Jewish history with her insights as a psychotherapist Chernin discovers the psychological mechanisms that have kept her and other Jews from fully comprehending the suffering of both parties in this seemingly endless conflict She argues persuasively that by overcoming the mental blocks that prevent so many from seeing the Palestinian point of view Jews can learn to feel empathy for them without diminishing their love and support for Israel

Palestinian Collective Memory and National Identity M. Litvak,2009-05-25 This book analyzes the evolution and cultivation of modern Palestinian collective memory and its role in shaping Palestinian national identity from its inception in the 1920s to the 2006 Palestinian elections The Israelis Donna Rosenthal,2003 Rosenthal explores a people who while consciously living in a war zone contribute to one of the most vibrant civic societies anywhere It is the story of ordinary people living in an extraordinary place The Object of Memory Susan Slyomovics,1998-06 Well researched and written with passion and elegance International Journal of Middle East Studies

The Time beneath the Concrete Nasser Abourahme,2025-01-24 In The Time beneath the Concrete Nasser Abourahme argues that settler colonialism is always as much an attempt to conquer time as it is to conquer land Taking as his primary object Palestinian refugee camps created in the fallout of the eliminatory violence of Israel s founding Abourahme shows how these camps become the primary place where settler colonial attempts to dominate space and time encounter Indigenous refusal Seen from the camps Israel becomes a settler colonial project defined by its inability to move past the past a project stuck at its foundational moment of conquest At the same time the Palestinian insistence on return is a refusal to abide by the closure of the past into settler futurity Palestinian struggle does not just happen in the open time of dispossession it happens over this time That struggle Abourahme demonstrates is a form of anticolonial refusal that draws its power not from any decisive finality but precisely from irresolution and keeping time open Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award Sacred Landscape Meron Benvenisti,2000 The resulting encounters between two peoples who claim the same land have raised great moral and political dilemmas which Benvenisti presents with candor and impartiality BOOK JACKET Palestine and Jewish History Jonathan Boyarin,1996-01-01 This book enacts rather than reports on Boyarin s process or error pain impatience uncertainty discovery embarrassment self criticism intellectual struggle and dawning awareness challenging and engaging us in the process of discovery Behind Media Marginality Eli Avraham,2003-01-01 Behind Media Marginality examines the considerations and decisions that have resulted in the distorted and negative media coverage of minority groups in the Israeli media Author Eli Avraham looks closely at media portrayals of those living in the geographic margins of Israeli kibbutzim Jewish settlements in the West Bank development cities and the Israeli Arab community from the 1960s through the 1990s Through quantitative and qualitative analysis of newspaper articles interviews with reporters editors and government spokespeople and statistical and demographic data Avraham isolates and explores five factors that influence the way the media covers these social groups the group s characteristics and location their proximity to foci of power their social political environment the media's policy toward covering the group and the group's public relations strategies in response to coverage. An analysis both of media operations and of Israeli society, this book provides important insights into the role of the media in the formation of national identity. Herzl's Nightmare Peter Rodgers, 2009-04-27 Theodor Herzl's dream of a national homeland for the Jewish people was realized when Israel declared its independence in 1948. Yet it was made possible through the deaths of millions of European Jews and at the expense of Palestinian society, a people who would never forget what they saw as a grave injustice. Herzl's dream would prove illusory. This important new study from the former Australian ambassador to Israel shows how little the dynamics of the conflict have actually changed, how eerily reminiscent today's antagonisms and falsehoods are of yesteryear's, and how much today's self-righteous intransigence on both sides owes to what went before. The New York Times Book Review, 1992-04 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books, short reviews, essays, and articles on topics and trends in publishing, literature, culture, and the arts.
