Bridges to Science Fiction and Fantasy Gregory Benford,Gary Westfahl,Howard V. Hendrix,2018-03-05 The J Lloyd Eaton Conferences on Science

Fiction and Fantasy Literature long held at the University of California Riverside have been a major influence in the study of science fiction and fantasy for thirty years The conferences have attracted leading scholars whose papers are published in Eaton volumes found in university libraries throughout the world This collection brings together 22 of the best papers most with new afterwords by the authors presented in chronological order to show how science fiction and fantasy criticism has evolved since 1979

Island Dr. James Lazell, 2005-11-01 Guana in the British Virgin Islands is home to a remarkably diverse assortment of animal and plant life mangroves flamingos iguanas frogs birds snakes spiders tortoises grasshoppers and bats to name but a few What is so surprising about Guana s astonishing panoply is that according to prevailing ecological theories the island s diversity should be much lower than it actually is This provocative book describes Guana s flora and fauna against the backdrop of islands worldwide and their ecology evolution and conservation Much more than a book about one island it raises important challenges to prevailing dogma of island biogeography and theoretical ecology James Skip Lazell demonstrates that meaningful conservation and avoiding tragic loss of biodiversity demand we know far more about biological interactions physiographic and geological structure meteorology and other factors He presents compelling evidence that high levels of natural biodiversity underpin ecosystem resilience and stability Lazell s engaging narrative containing many entertaining asides and personal reflections widens into an evocative commentary about the nature of life on earth
