Peoples Participation In Development In Black Africa:

West Africa's Security Challenges Adekeye Adebajo, Ismail O. D. Rashid, 2004 Provides a context for understanding West Africa's security dilemmas highlighting the link between failures of economic development governance and democratization on the one hand and military insecurity and violent conflicts on the other

Rural Development Abstracts, 1986

The NGO Factor in Africa Maurice N. Amutabi, 2013-09-13 The book breaks new ground in understanding the role of Non Governmental Organizations NGOs in Africa The book historicizes NGOs using the Rockefeller Foundation as a case study looking at its tripartite paradoxical roles as an agent of colonialism globalization and development underdevelopment It deploys interdisciplinary devices to show how the RF projects have engaged in marginalization patronage and othering of African values and customs and the ensuing controversies Using globalization postmodern and postcolonial theories the book deconstructs the long held myths about NGO inviolability and opens ground for understanding their strengths It interrogates sites of contestation apprehension and possibilities that the RF has produced Using RF projects it looks at structures of hegemony race power class and gender that the RF has created The book illustrates the extent to which the RF has been instrumental in spreading capitalism imperialism in economic political cultural and social realms through globalization It desists from the grand narrative approach that has dominated African history in the past but instead gives agency and voice to those that have previously been marginalized

Indigenous Communication in Africa Kwasi Ansu-Kyeremeh, 2005 This book argues that indigenous modes of communication for example the oral tradition drama indigenous entertainment forms cultural modes and local language radio are essential to the societies within which they exist and which create them and that coupled with newer or modern forms of communication technology such as the internet and digitised information endogenous modes of communication are paramount to the processes of human development in Africa Towards Democratic Development States in Southern Africa Kanyenze, Godfrey, Jauch, Herbert, 2016-12-14 The dawn of the twenty first century heralded an apparent change of fortunes for most sub Saharan African economies with annual growth averaging over 5% for fifteen years However this was not accompanied by structural transformation poverty food insecurity unemployment and inequality persist Structural transformation has not been and indeed cannot be delivered by market forces and neoliberal economic policies it requires a state committed to development and to achieving it in a democratic way To what extent do the countries of Southern Africa exhibit the characteristics of such a developmental state What steps if any do they need to take in order to become one The book answers the questions with respect to South Africa Botswana Namibia Zimbabwe Angola and Malawi Godfrey Kanyenze and his colleagues have assembled a distinguished team of writers to take the temperature of the regional political economy and chart a path for its future development Perspectives on Indigenous Communication in Africa: Theory and applications Kwasi Ansu-Kyeremeh, 1998 The Mind of Black Africa Dickson Mungazi, 1996-02-28 The violent colonization of Africa by European nations toward the end of the 19th century a colonization justified by theories about the African Mind promulgated in the Age of Reason had a profound impact upon the mind of Black Africa After World War II the mind of Black Africa rebelled this rebellion led to a struggle for the self After Africans achieved political independence the new African leaders betrayed their own people Africans now have the responsibility of restoring and reaffirming their true inheritance the mind of Black Africa Natural Resource Sovereignty and the Right to Development in Africa Carol Chi Ngang, Serges Djoyou Kanga, 2021-08-25 This book explores the nexus between natural resources ownership and the right to development in Africa The right to sovereignty over natural resources and the right to development are recognised and protected in an extensive framework of international regional and domestic instruments They guarantee people s entitlement to fully and freely utilise their natural resources as a means of subsistence and for economic social and cultural development Yet despite the abundance of natural resources in Africa a majority of the people on the continent remain largely impoverished This book articulates the central argument that to achieve the right to development in Africa requires appropriate governance of the continent s natural resources to which the people of Africa are guaranteed sovereign ownership With case study illustrations from Zimbabwe Ghana Ethiopia and the Democratic Republic of Congo chapters explore the normative measures specific guarantees and community entitlements to natural resources for the realisation of the right to development The book will be an invaluable guide to scholars and postgraduate students of Natural Resources Development and African studies as well as policymakers and practitioners in these areas

Perspectives on Indigenous Communication in Africa: Dynamics and future directions Kwasi Ansu-Kyeremeh, 1998

Reviews of National Policies for Education: South Africa 2008 OECD, 2008-09-05 Gives a brief overview of regional issues and the history of education in South Africa and describes the development of education in the country over the past 15 years

It presents an analysis of the education system identifying key directions for Sustainable Development for a Democratic South Africa Ken Cole, 2014-04-08 After the multi racial elections in April 1994 South Africa has been set on a new course For a country emerging from 45 years of apartheid democracy should prove to be the vital first step on the path to sustainability and equitability There are sure to be pitfalls along the way but the potential offered by long awaited equality is enormous and realising that potential is the key to the country s chances of achieving sustainable development This book analyses the changes which are needed and which might result from the new political culture It discusses the policy requirements necessary for sustainable development and looks at how the economy regional integration land reform the law local government NGOs health care and AIDs prevention education and the media will all be affected drawing on the experience of other countries in Africa which have witnessed the transition to black majority rule Accessible to general readers as well as to specialists it provides a comprehensive overview of the issues involved and a basis for understanding what prospects the future holds for South Africa Handbook on Economics of Discrimination and Affirmative Action Ashwini Deshpande, 2023-07-17 This Handbook deals with theoretical and empirical evidence on the economics of discrimination and affirmative action across the world assessed over a variety of social identities such as caste race ethnicity gender disability age tribal status It also outlines methodological advances in this area with plenty of additional references for the interested reader It combines theoretical frameworks developed in the West with historical writings about discrimination and social justice from primarily Indian philosophers aspects which are typically not found under one roof It offers the reader a combination of insights into theories across a range of disciplines as well as evidence data both quantitative and qualitative in addition to the latest methodological advances in the estimation of discrimination econometric experimental mixed methods Joint Acquisitions List of Africana , 1986 Law, Religion and Leadership in Africa F. Sibanda, E. Chitando, E.G. Konyana, B.P. Humbe, 2025-05-16 In Africa some heads of state sometimes prefer to take their oath on the Bible or the Quran rather than on an ancestral law or a fearsome fetish capable of causing misery in the event of a violation Thus in order to build credible institutions that can guarantee socio political and economic stability it is desirable to resort to certain ancestral practices in particular strict respect for customs At this level of our reflection it seems useless for Africans to reinvent the wheel rather we must look in the rearview mirror in order to exalt the pre colonial instruments capable of unravelling the invisible mystery of these societies In this same dynamic the ancestral law because of its historical and charismatic legitimacy imposes strict respect for the cosmic order Komo Guy Roland Kossonou Assistant Professor Legal Administrative and Management Sciences Training and Research Unit UFR SJAG Alassane Ouattara University Bouak C te d Ivoire There is no way the church leadership can ignore such issues which affect their people daily and only talk about the future kingdom to come Both the sacred and the secular kingdoms are important matters in the life of people in every community hence religious and political leaders should strive to resolve their conflicts because people look up to them for spiritual and political leadership When political leaders tell religious leaders to stick to preaching the gospel and not involve themselves in the political affairs of the country it silences the church's ability to speak for the poor Upendo Mwakasenga Ordained minister United Church of Zambia Doctoral student in systematic theology University of Kwa Zulu Natal Even today religious cultural beliefs inform the way the youths are viewed within Zimbabwe's political circles Such beliefs infantilize young people and disempower them from effective political participation In most cases this role is postponed into the future The existing political structures and regimes exploit youth to expend their energies as political and military foot soldiers for the political elite but they are not being mentored to be prepared for positions of leadership It therefore becomes crucial to question the maxim the future is young which seems to procrastinate youth political leadership in Zimbabwe Molly Manyonganise Senior Lecturer Department of Religious Studies and Philosophy Zimbabwe Open University Ultimately God provides and heals but the fisherman must still cast his net the farmer must still till the soil and the doctor must still administer medication It is no different in matters of governance military warfare or institution building Personal piety is inconsequential to the empirical workings of the world but it may weigh on the scales in the hereafter The Brotherhood's fatalism blinds them to the worldly instruments needed to govern a nation Study and experience in economic policy and statecraft cannot be replaced with saintly endeavours such as worship and charity Nabil Yasien Mohamed Lecturer in Islamic Studies Department of Religion and Theology University of the Western Cape
