Perception 1971 Key Texts:

Call to Mission and Perceptions of Proselytism John Baxter-Brown, 2022-04-13 Proselytism remains one of the most divisive issues in global Christianity jeopardizing many ecumenical initiatives and projects Almost all traditions accuse others of proselytism but none readily confess to it as one tradition's mission and evangelism is another's proselytism This work brings together for the first time significant formal statements from Christian bodies and churches alongside articles from leading commentators in this hotly contested issue It gives clergy academics and students a vital resource in understanding the perspectives of different traditions and therefore the opportunity to study and understand viewpoints and opinions from competing perspectives The volume originates in a process of work commissioned by the World Pentecostal Fellowship the World Council of Churches the World Evangelical Alliance and the Roman Catholic Church under the auspices of the Global Christian Forum We discovered that there are no easy answers that resolve the tensions and debates about proselytism but through listening and understanding different voices new opportunities for establishing constructive relationships can and do emerge

Perceptions of Sustainability in Heritage Studies Marie-Theres Albert, 2015-07-01 With contributions Francesco Bandarin Minja Yang and Mechthild Ressler This publication is the fourth in the Heritage Studies series and aims to reflect upon the many dimensions of sustainability and sustainable development within the Heritage Studies discourse Sustainability as a concept and sustainable development as a goal are presented in official policies within UNESCO's understanding of heritage in its paradigmatic reflections and in the diversity of theories and methods including many different and sometimes conflicting understandings of sustainability within this discourse Thus the contributors to this publication discuss sustainability as it directly concerns the potential of different approaches to World Heritage and Intangible Heritage The inclusion of the four dimensions of sustainability environmental economic social and cultural into the Heritage Studies discourse opens a new perspective on the discourse itself

Changing Perceptions of Thomas Mann's Doctor Faustus John F. Fetzer, 1996 Ever since its appearance in 1947 Thomas Mann's novel Doctor Faustus has generated heated reactions among critics Whereas initial ideological differences stemming from the Cold War and the division of Germany have abated following the reunification of 1990 diverse opinions and controversies persist about Mann's daring treatment of the Faust theme These include such topics as the political stance of the author and the historical dimensions of the novel the biographical and autobiographical and backgrounds of the work especially in light of the subsequent publication of Mann's diaries and private notebooks the writer's sexual and psychological proclivities the thorny issues of montage collage and intertextuality musical concerns such as the extent to which the novel's protagonist appropriates as his own Arnold Schonberg's twelve tone system of composition or the role of Mann's fellow exile and mentor Theodor W Adorno in indoctrinating his pupil into avant garde musical techniques the degree to which the novel exhibits structural features of the music on which the narrative focuses and the function of certain mythic prototypes for this modern parody in fashioning the fortunes and fate of Adrian Leverkühn A provocative and still unresolved question centers on the precise role played by Goethe's Faust in the conception and execution of Doctor Faustus in spite of Mann's assertion that his version of the legend had nothing in common with the work of his famous predecessor Finally the presence of strong visual elements in the novel leads to an assessment of the critical reception accorded Franz Seitz's film adaptation of Doctor Faustus 1982 a dicey subject in Mann's circles since few filmed versions of his novellas or novels have enjoyed an unsullied reputation Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993

Filming Literature Neil Sinyard, 2013-07-18 This is a comprehensive survey of the relationship between film and literature It looks at the cinematic adaptations of such literary masters as Shakespeare Henry James Joseph Conrad and D H Lawrence and considers the contribution to the cinema made by important literary figures as Harold Pinter James Aggrey and Graham Greene Elsewhere the book draws intriguing analogies between certain literary and film artists such as Dickens and Chaplin Ford and Twain and suggests that such analogies can throw fresh light on the subjects under review Another chapter considers the film genre of the bio pic the numerous cinematic attempts to render in concrete terms the complexities of the literary life whether the writer be Proust Joyce Oscar Wilde Dashiell Hammett Agatha Christie or Boris Pasternak Originally published in 1986 this is a book to appeal to any reader with an interest in film or literature and is of especial value to those involved in the teaching or study of either subject

Aristotle and Plotinus on Memory Richard A.H. King, 2009-12-15 Two treatises on memory which have come down to us from antiquity are Aristotle's On memory and recollection and Plotinus On perception and memory IV 6 the latter also wrote at length about memory in his Problems connected with the soul IV 3 4 esp 3 25 4 6 In both authors memory is treated as a modest faculty both authors assume the existence of a persistent subject to whom memory belongs and basic cognitive capacities are assumed on which memory depends In particular both theories use phantasia representation to explain memory Aristotle takes representations to be changes in concrete living things which arise from actual perception To be connected to the original perception the representation has to be taken as a kind of copy of the original experience this is the way Aristotle defines memory at the end of his investigation Plotinus does not define memory he is concerned with the question of what remembers This is of course the soul which goes through different stages of incarnation and disincarnation Since the disembodied soul can remember so he does not have Aristotle's resources for explaining the continued presence of representations as changes in the concrete thing Instead he thinks that when acquiring a memory we acquire a capacity in respect of the object of the memory namely to make it present at a later time

Annette von Droste Hülshoff 1798-1848 remains Germany's foremost female author. Perhaps best known for her novella Die Judenbuche and her ballads, Droste's narrative ability in prose or verse and her gift for forging highly crafted, often poignant lyrical works have brought her continuing and growing critical acclaim. Recent critical interest has brought her new recognition as a forerunner in the struggle of women to find their own literary voices. This volume is the first comprehensive study in English of Droste's works and authorial career. It combines a broad view of her literary and epistolary writings with close readings of individual works. Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998
