Popular Music of Vietnam Dale A. Olsen, 2008-06-30 Based on the author's research in Ho Chi Minh City Hanoi and other urban areas in Vietnam this study of contemporary Vietnamese popular music explores the ways globalization and free market economics have influenced the music and subcultures of Vietnamese youth focusing on the conflict between the politics of remembering nurtured by the Vietnamese Communist government and the politics of forgetting driven by the capitalist interests of the music industry Vietnamese youth at the end of the second and beginning of the third millennium are influenced by the challenges generated by a number of seemingly opposite ideologies and realities such as the past versus the present socialism versus capitalism and cultural traditionalism versus globalization Vietnam has undergone a radical demographic shift with a very pronounced youth movement and consequently Vietnamese popular culture has been radically reshaped by a young population coming of age in the twenty first century As Olsen reveals the way Vietnamese young people cope with these opposing and contrasting forces is often expressed in their active and passive music making

Intersectionality and the City Lucie

Bernroider,Anthony Miro Born,Christy Kulz,Sung Un Gang,2025-06-06 This book combines intersectional perspectives and urban research to demonstrate the importance of intersectionality as a concept that can complement refigurational understandings of social change as the outcome of spatial conflicts Showing how intersectionality enables us to grasp the intersecting categories of inequality in these spatial tensions it remains attentive to the role of social difference and power in these processes as well as to modes of normativity and resistance With case studies gathered from a range of national contexts it provides rich empirical insights into the relationship between urban spatialities power dynamics and embodied social inequalities addressing the manner in which different conflicts are made manifest intersectionally in and through situated urban spaces The chapters consider issues such as the gendering and racialization of urban spaces urban marginality and environmental pressures intersectional power dynamics in research heteronormative and cisgender centric structures in the city aging in the city young people control and insecurity police violence migrant emplacement and activism racialized gentrification and commoning and pandemic safety and protest to explore the uneven outcomes of spatial planning and urban development As such it draws attention to the interplay of various forces in the production of exclusion and injustice and will therefore appeal to scholars of sociology geography and urban studies with interests in inequality social change and resistance to exclusion

Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer,Bernardo

P. Gallegos,Annette Henry,Mary Bushnell Greiner,Paula Groves Price,2011-07-05 Parts one and two of this volume present the theoretical lenses used to study the social contexts of education These include long established foundations disciplines such as sociology of education and philosophy of education as well as newer theoretical perspectives such as critical race theory feminist educational theory and cultural studies in education Parts three four and five demonstrate how these theoretical lenses are used to examine such phenomena as globalization media popular culture technology youth culture and schooling This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study This book is appropriate as a reference volume not only for scholars in the social foundations of education but also for scholars interested in the cultural contexts of teaching and learning formal and informal It is also appropriate as a textbook for graduate level courses in Social Foundations of Education School and Society Educational Policy Studies Cultural Studies in Education and Curriculum and Instruction
