She's determined to succeed on her own merits and make the Wilder Inn a huge success at the same time. There's one thing standing in her way: Ethan Wilder. New Blood Chris Bobel, 2010-05-05 New Blood offers a fresh interdisciplinary look at feminism in flux. For over three decades menstrual activists have questioned the safety and necessity of feminine care products while contesting menstruation as a deeply entrenched taboo. Chris Bobel shows how a little-known yet enduring force in the feminist health, environmental, and consumer rights movements lays bare tensions between second and third wave feminisms and reveals a complicated story of continuity and change within the women's movement. Through her critical ethnographic lens, Bobel focuses on debates central to feminist thought including the utility of the category gender and challenges to building an inclusive feminist movement. Filled with personal narratives, playful visuals, and original humor, New Blood reveals middle-aged progressives communing in Red Tents, urban punks and artists culture jamming commercial menstrual products in their zines, and sketch comedy, queer anarchists practicing DIY health care, African American health educators espousing holistic womb health, and hopeful mothers refusing to pass on the shame to their pubescent daughters. With verve and conviction, Bobel illuminates today's feminism on the ground, indisputably vibrant, contentious, and ever dynamic.
