Poppy! Flora Wilson, 1883 The Liar's Child Sheryl Browne, 2021-09-21 I'll do anything to protect my daughter. When I pick my beloved daughter Poppy up from school one afternoon, my mind races when I see the little girl holding Poppy's hand. With the same heart-shaped face, long brown hair and dark eyes, the two girls look identical. In fact, they look like sisters. Is the secret I've been holding on to for so long about to be revealed? That night I cuddle Poppy even harder, desperately trying to decide what to do. And then my husband's phone vibrates. A message. And then another. And another. All from a number I don't recognise. Is someone going to tell my husband what I did? Could I be about to lose everything I have worked so hard to protect? But I've spent so long hiding the truth I never stopped to wonder if I was the only liar in the family. The only thing I'm sure of is that nobody is going to take my child away from me. If you can't get enough of addictive psychological thrillers like Gone Girl, The Wife, Between Us and The Marriage, you'll love The Liar's Child. By the Letter Book Reviews: 5 stars. In Kierkegaard's Garden with the Poppy Blooms Chris Boesel, 2021-07-27 Chris Boesel invites readers into a Kierkegaardian style literary conceit, creating two pseudonymous voices: one philosophical and deconstructive.

one theological and confessional in order to stage an encounter between two commentaries on Kierkegaard's Fear and Trembling. On one level the contest between the two commentaries demonstrates the extent to which an encounter between deconstruction and Kierkegaard has not taken place in the one place everyone thinks it has in Derrida's reading of Fear and Trembling in The Gift of Death. On a deeper level Boesel argues that Derrida's misreading of Fear and Trembling is both source and symptom of a wider problem: an apophatic blind spot in deconstructive engagements with Christian theology in philosophy of religion and postmodern theology. This blind spot erases the theological and ethical possibilities of what Boesel calls a Kierkegaardian confessional faith possibilities rooted in a deconstructive deconstructibility that produces its own deconstructive-like effects. As a corrective to this blind spot, the encounter between deconstruction and Kierkegaard staged here shows how these effects do the very things heralded by self-proclaimed apophatic remedies of confessional faith: disrupt human mastery over God and neighbor while calling for concrete commitments to justice for the widow, orphan, and stranger.
