E-Planning and Collaboration: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information

Resources, 2018-06-04 As population growth accelerates, researchers and professionals face challenges as they attempt to plan for the future. E-planning is a significant component in addressing the key concerns as the world population moves towards urban environments. E-Planning and Collaboration: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications contains a compendium of the latest academic material on the emerging interdisciplinary areas of e-planning and collaboration.

Including innovative studies on data management, urban development, and crowdsourcing, this multi-volume book is an ideal source for planners, policymakers, researchers, and graduate students interested in how recent technological advancements are enhancing the traditional practices in e-planning.

Aging in Place Leon A. Pastalan, 2013-10-31 In this highly practical volume, the contributing authors explore some of the dimensions associated with aging in place. There are increasing numbers of older Americans who are faced with fundamental changes in their economic circumstances, health, and marital status, which have an impact on their ability to age in place. Without the necessary supports, many may have no other choice but to be prematurely or inappropriately placed in costly health care facilities or be forced to move into unfamiliar, less safe, less satisfactory housing environments. Aging in Place explores some of the dimensions associated with aging in place and informs readers about unmet needs and available living options for elderly persons. Experts discuss a number of crucial factors regarding the availability of social supports and the impact it has on the independence of the elderly, specifically their living arrangements. They address the issue of control and how access to social contact and real choices about services and facilities increases independence among the elderly. Congregate housing as an alternative to nursing care for those elderly too frail for less supportive housing, discharge policies concerning frailty in senior living arrangements, and the lack of a full range of services in many alleged full-service communities.

Four Lenses of Population Aging Patrik Marier, 2021-05-05 This book analyses the actions and plans enacted by the ten Canadian provinces to prepare for the new reality of an aging society.

Future Directions in Social Security United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Aging, 1975

Ageing Care in the Community: Current Practices and Future Directions Kenneth Nai-kuen FONG, Kar-wai TONG, 2024-02-09 Population ageing is a challenge to societies worldwide in terms of healthcare, social support, community infrastructure, and more. With one of the longest life expectancies in the world, Hong Kong will soon see a dramatic increase in the number of older residents together with a decrease in the old age dependency ratio. This book provides a timely examination of the current status and services available for Hong Kong's ageing population in four key areas: general healthcare needs such as health promotion and lifestyle modifications; specific healthcare needs including care of chronic conditions and hip fractures psychosocial needs for older people with intellectual disabilities and impairments as well as the needs of their caregivers and environmental and technological needs in relation to universal design information and communication technology and telehealth Drawing from a wide range of experience in local professional settings combined with international best practices the authors offer holistic evidence based solutions for the development of an age friendly society where elders can age in place at home in their communities These suggestions will be useful for policy makers healthcare practitioners social workers care workers as well as older people and their families not only in Hong Kong but globally
