Port Of Last Resort The Diaspora Communities Of Shanghai:

Port of Last Resort Marcia Reynders Ristaino, 2001 This book examines two large and generally overlooked diaspora communities one Jewish the other Slavic who found refuge in Shanghai during the tumultuous first half of the twentieth century

The Jdc at 100 Linda G. Levi, Maud S. Mandel, Avinoam Patt, Atina Grossmann, 2019-05-13 It will appeal to readers with a more general interest in Jewish studies and refugee studies Holocaust museum professionals and those engaged in Jewish and other relief and resettlement programs

Displaced Comrades Ebony Nilsson, 2023-11-02 This book explores the lives of left wing Soviet refugees who fled the Cold War to settle in Australia and uncovers how they adjusted to life under surveillance in the West As Cold War tensions built in the postwar years many of these refugees happily resettled in the West as model refugees proof of capitalist countries superiority But for a few this was not the case Displaced Comrades provides an account of these Cold War misfits those refugees who fled East for West but remained left wing or pro Soviet Drawing on interviews government records and surveillance dossiers from multiple continents this book explores how these refugees ideas took root in new ways As these radical ideas drew suspicion from western intelligence these everyday lives were put under surveillance shadowed by the persistent threat of espionage With unprecedented access to intelligence records Nilsson focuses on how a number of these left wing refugees adjusted to life in Australia opening up a previously invisible segment of postwar migration history and offering a new exploration of life as a Soviet enemy alien in the West

Global Shanghai, 1850-2010 Jeffrey N Wasserstrom, 2008-11-25 This book explores the play of international forces and international ideas about Shanghai looking backward as far as its transformation into a subdivided treaty port in the 1840s and looking forward to its upcoming hosting of China's first World's Fair the 2010 Expo As such Global Shanghai is a lively and informative read for students and scholars of Chinese studies and urban studies and anyone interested in the history of Shanghai

Frontiers of Memory in the Asia-Pacific Shu-Mei Huang, Hyun Kyung Lee, Edward Vickers, 2022-08-01 Frontiers of Memory in the Asia Pacific explores the making and consumption of conflict related heritage throughout the Asia Pacific region Contributing to a growing literature on difficult heritage this collection advances our understanding of how places of pain shame oppression and trauma have been appropriated and refashioned as heritage in a number of societies in contemporary East and Southeast Asia and Oceania The authors analyse how the repackaging of difficult pasts as heritage can serve either to reinforce borders transcend them or even achieve both simultaneously depending on the political agendas that inform the heritage making process They also examine the ways in which these processes respond to colonialism decolonization and nationalism The volume shows how efforts to preserve various sites of difficult heritage can involve the construction of new borders in the mind between what is commemorated and what is often deliberately obscured or forgotten Taken together the studies presented here suggest new directions for comparative research into difficult heritage across Asia and beyond applying an interdisciplinary and critical perspective that spans history heritage studies memory studies urban studies architecture and international relations Bringing together an excellent range of cases from diverse locations across the Asia Pacific this book is an important contribution not only to this part of the world but to understandings of heritage struggles especially in relation to colonial histories more widely Sharon Macdonald Humboldt University zu Berlin This collection is an important contribution to our understanding of the place of Asia within global memory culture Going beyond the tunnel vision of national memories it provides us with a sophisticated examination of the ways the difficult heritage of colonialism revolution and war intersects with contemporary politics to produce an Asia Pacific memory sphere Ran Zwigenberg Pennsylvania State University Crafting Chinese Memories Katherine Swancutt, 2021-10-15 Through an interdisciplinary conversation with contributors from social anthropology religious studies film studies literary studies cultural studies and history Crafting Chinese Memories is a novel book which addresses how works of art shape memories and offers new ways of conceptualising storytelling memory making art and materiality It explores the memories of artists filmmakers novelists storytellers and persons who come to terms with their own histories even as they reveal the social memories of watershed events in modern China The History of the Shanghai Jews Kevin Ostoyich, Yun Xia, 2022-11-28 This volume provides a historical narrative historiographical reviews and scholarly analyses by leading scholars throughout the world on the hitherto understudied topic of Shanghai Jewish refugees Few among the general public know that during the Second World War approximately 16 000 to 20 000 Jews fled the Nazis found unexpected refuge in Shanghai and established a vibrant community there Though most of them left Shanghai soon after the conclusion of the war in 1945 years of sojourning among the Chinese and surviving under the Japanese occupation generated unique memories about the Second World War lasting goodwill between the Chinese and Jews and contested interpretations of this complex past The volume makes two major contributions to the studies of Shanghai Jewish refugees First it reviews the present state of the historiography on this subject and critically assesses the ways in which the history is being researched and commemorated in China Second it compiles scholarship produced by renowned scholars who aim to rescue the history from isolated perspectives and look into the interaction between Jews Chinese and Japanese From Things Lost Shirli Gilbert, 2017-05-15 An intimate history of the Holocaust that casts new light on our understanding of victimhood and survival In May 1933 a young man named Rudolf Schwab fled Nazi Germany His departure allegedly came at the insistence of a close friend who later joined the Party Schwab eventually arrived in South Africa one of the few countries left where Jews could seek refuge and years later resumed a relationship in letters with the Nazi who in many ways saved his life From Things Lost Forgotten Letters and the Legacy of the Holocaust is a story of displacement survival and an unlikely friendship in the wake of the Holocaust via an extraordinary collection of letters discovered in a forgotten trunk Only a handful of extended Schwab family members were alive in the war's aftermath Dispersed across five continents their lives mirrored those of countless refugees who landed in the most unlikely places Over years in exile a web of communication became an alternative world for these refugees a place where they could remember what they had lost and rebuild their identities anew Among the cast of characters that historian Shirli Gilbert came to know through the letters one name that appeared again and again was Karl Kipfer He was someone with whom Rudolf clearly got on exceedingly well there was lots of joking familiarity and sentimental reminiscing That was Grandpa s best friend growing up Rudolf s grandson explained to Gilbert He was a Nazi and was the one who encouraged Rudolf to leave Germany He also later helped him to recover the family s property Gilbert takes readers on a journey through a family s personal history wherein we learn about a cynical Karl who attempts to make amends for his undemocratic past and a version of Rudolf who spends hours aloof at his Johannesburg writing desk dressed in his Sunday finest holding together the fragile threads of his existence The Schwab family s story brings us closer to grasping the complex choices and motivations that even in extreme situations or perhaps because of them make us human In a world of devastation the letters in From Things Lost act as a surrogate for the gravestones that did not exist and funerals that were never held Readers of personal accounts of the Holocaust will be swept away by this intimate story

Someday We Will Fly Rachel DeWoskin, 2020-01-21 From the author of Blind a heart wrenching coming of age story set during World War II in Shanghai one of the only places Jews without visas could find refuge Warsaw Poland The year is 1940 and Lillia is fifteen when her mother Alenka disappears and her father flees with Lillia and her younger sister Naomi to Shanghai one of the few places that will accept Jews without visas There they struggle to make a life they have no money there is little work no decent place to live a culture that doesn t understand them And always the worry about Alenka How will she find them Is she still alive Meanwhile Lillia is growing up trying to care for Naomi whose development is frighteningly slow in part from malnourishment Lillia finds an outlet for her artistic talent by making puppets remembering the happy days in Warsaw when her family was circus performers She attends school sporadically makes friends with Wei a Chinese boy and finds work as a performer at a gentlemen s club without her father s knowledge But meanwhile the conflict grows more intense as the Americans declare war and the Japanese force the Americans in Shanghai into camps More bombing more death Can they survive caught in the crossfire

Historical Dictionary of World War II Anne Sharp Wells, 2023-12-15 World War II was the largest and most costly conflict in history the first true global war Fought on land on sea and in the air it involved numerous countries and killed maimed or displaced millions of people both civilian and military around the world In spite of the alliances that bound many of the same participants the war was essentially two separate but simultaneous conflicts one involved Japan as the major antagonist and took place mostly in Asia and the Pacific and the other initiated by Germany and Italy was contested mainly in Europe North Africa the Mediterranean and the Atlantic This book focuses on the lesser known war the war with Japan It begins with Japan s seizure of Manchuria from China in 1931 and covers Japan s ambitious attacks on Pearl Harbor and other territories ten years later the use of atomic bombs on Japan s cities and the end of the Allied occupation of Japan in 1952 Although Japan renounced war in its 1947 constitution conflict continued across Asia as former colonies fought for independence and civil war engulfed other areas Historical Dictionary of World War II The War Against Japan Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on the military diplomatic political social economic and scientific aspects of the war in addition to the lives of the people who participated in and directed the war This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the war against Japan during World War II
