Pursuit Of Local History:

The Pursuit of Local History Carol Kammen, American Association for State and Local History, 1996 In this work readers can discover the role local historians play find out what the experts see as the values of the local history while exploring their theories and see how local history has been practised by those who have dedicated their lives to it      On Doing Local History Carol Kammen, 2003-12-01 Since 1986 On Doing Local History has been an invaluable aid to local historians Now Carol Kammen has completely updated and revised this classic to reflect more than fifteen years of experience working with local historians She challenges all historians of the local to think about what they are doing and how they are doing it She dispels the myth that amateur historians who are frequent practitioners of local history necessarily produce a history less rigorous or useful For many years the author of a column in History News Kammen's thoughtful level headed ideas and personable writing style will keep this book a classic for years to come      Local History H. P. R. Finberg, Victor Henry Thomas Skipp, 1973      A Local History Reader Carol Kammen, 1991-01-01      Local History Herbert Patrick Reginald Finberg, 1967      ,      Why Place Matters Wilfred McClay, Ted McAllister, 2014-02-25 Contemporary American society with its emphasis on mobility and economic progress all too often loses sight of the importance of a sense of place and community Appreciating place is essential for building the strong local communities that cultivate civic engagement public leadership and many of the other goods that contribute to a flourishing human life Do we in losing our places lose the crucial basis for healthy and resilient individual identity and for the cultivation of public virtues For one can't be a citizen without being a citizen of some place in particular one isn't a citizen of a motel And if these dangers are real and present ones are there ways that intelligent public policy can begin to address them constructively by means of reasonable and democratic innovations that are likely to attract wide public support Why Place Matters takes these concerns seriously and its contributors seek to discover how given the American people as they are and American economic and social life as it now exists and not as those things can be imagined to be in some utopian scheme we can find means of fostering a richer and more sustaining way of life The book is an anthology of essays exploring the contemporary problems of place and placelessness in American society The book includes contributions from distinguished scholars and writers such as poet Dana Gioia former chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts geographer Yi Fu Tuan urbanist Witold Rybczynski architect Philip Bess essayists Christine Rosen and Ari Schulman philosopher Roger Scruton transportation planner Gary Toth and historians Russell Jacoby and Joseph Amato      Levittown Margaret Lundrigan Ferrer, Tova Navarra, 1999-03 Levittown the prototype for suburban housing development in America emerged from the hands of legendary builders Abraham William and Alfred Levitt in 1947 in response to the housing dilemmas faced by veterans returning home after World War II Skeptics predicted that the community would deteriorate but Levittown soon became the model for housing developments throughout the nation Its strategically planned neighborhoods were reproduced overseas as well including cities in Germany France Spain and Israel

Through more than 200 vintage photographs combined with a thoroughly researched text Levittown Volume II illuminates the evolution of this close knit community and invites readers to meet the families that contributed to its growth This second volume of Levittown images takes us a step beyond the pre Levitt history presented in Levittown The First 50 Years and further explores the town s progress to date Tompkins County New York Municipal Historians of Tompkins

County,Tompkins County Historian,2009-09-01 Decades of memories culled from attics albums and organizations alike are preserved in this charming collection of photographs chronicling the everyday lives of Tompkins County residents This book showcases images of activity such as farmers hard at work and people dancing into the early hours of the morning as well as the more subdued images of universal human connection such as moments of sorrow contemplation and reflection The stories of those from the past unfold as they bring to life a history long forgotten and a sense of continuity and familiarity uniting these disparate worlds Practicalities for the pursuit of local history (pbk). W. a Roberts,1988 Familia 1999

Trevor Parkhill,1999-12 Familia which was first published in 1985 aims to provide informed writing on sources and case studies relating to that area where Irish history and genealogy overlap with mutual benefit Members of the Foundation s Guild receive Familia and the Directory of Irish Family History Research as part of the return on their annual subscription

The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred,2014-05-23 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia

Firsting in the Early-Modern Atlantic World Lauren Beck,2019-06-20 For centuries historians have narrated the arrival of Europeans using terminology discovery invasion conquest and colonization that emphasizes their agency and disempowers that of Native Americans This book explores firsting a discourse that privileges European and settler colonial presence movements knowledges and experiences as a technology of colonization in the early modern Atlantic world 1492 1900 It exposes how textual culture has ensured that Euro settlers dominate Native Americans while detailing misrepresentations of Indigenous peoples as unmodern and proposing how the western world can be un firsted in scholarship on this time and place Adapting to Capitalism Pamela Sharpe,2016-07-27 This book considers patterns of women s employment in the period 1700 1850 Focusing on the county of Essex material on the worsted industry agriculture fashion trades service prostitution and marriage and family life will shed light on contemporary debates in history such as the sexual division of labour controversy over continuity or change in women s employment the importance of ideas of separate spheres and domestic ideology and the overall effects of capitalism on women s employment Dig Where You Stand Sven Lindqvist,2023-03-14 On the 45th anniversary of its initial publication in Swedish Sven Lindqvist s polemic on history politics and power is finally available in English for the first time This volume brings Dig Where You Stand Sven Lindqvist s classic text on history power and politics to English speaking audiences for the first time First published in 1978 Dig Where You Stand is a rallying cry for workers to become researchers to follow the money take on the role as experts on their job and dig out its hidden histories in order to take a vital step towards social and economic transformation A how to guide that inspired an entire movement it makes the case that everyone not just academics can learn how to critically and rigorously explore history especially their own history and in doing so find a blueprint for how to transform society for the better In a world where the balance of power is overwhelmingly stacked against the working class Dig Where You Stand s manifesto for the empowerment of workers through self education historical research and political solidarity is as important and relevant today as it was in 1978 Remembering Roadside America John A. Jakle,Keith A. Sculle,2011-09-30 The use of cars and trucks over the past century has remade American geography pushing big cities ever outward toward suburbanization spurring the growth of some small towns while hastening the decline of others and spawning a new kind of commercial landscape marked by gas stations drive in restaurants motels tourist attractions and countless other retail entities that express our national love affair with the open road By its very nature this landscape is ever changing indeed ephemeral What is new quickly becomes old and is soon forgotten In this absorbing book John Jakle and Keith Sculle ponder how Roadside America might be remembered especially since so little physical evidence of its earliest years survives In straightforward and lively prose supplemented by copious illustrations historic and modern photographs advertising postcards cartoons roadmaps they survey the ways in which automobility has transformed life in the United States Asking how we might best commemorate and preserve this part of our past which has been so vital economically and politically so significant to the cultural aspirations of ordinary Americans yet so often ignored by scholars who dismiss it as kitsch they propose the development of an actual outdoor museum that would treat seriously the themes of our roadside history Certainly museums have been created for frontier pioneering the rise of commercial agriculture and the coming of water and steam powered industrialization and transportation especially the railroad Is now not the time the authors ask for a museum forcefully exploring the automobile s emergence and the changes it has brought to place and landscape Such a museum need not deny the nostalgic appeal of roadsides past but if done properly it could also tell us much about what the authors describe as the most important kind of place yet devised in the American experience John A Jakle is Emeritus Professor of Geography at the University of Illinois

Urbana Champaign Keith A Sculle is the former head of research and education at the Illinois Historic Preservation Agency They have coauthored such books as America's Main Street Hotels Transiency and Community in the Early Automobile Age Motoring The Highway Experience in America Fast Food Roadside Restaurants in the Automobile Age and The Gas Station in America
