The Sermon on the Mount, the Twelve Steps, and the Royal Road Daniel Hazelwood,2018-04-13 In The Sermon on the Mount the Twelve Steps and the Royal Road Dan Hazelwood presents a unique blend of early church Christianity and the twelve step recovering program that explains how the Christian experience changed over the last four hundred years and how the twelve step process reconnects a spiritually seeking person to a deeper Christ experience that many mainstream churches cannot duplicate In preparation for this journey into studying the sermon he takes the reader on a historical church odyssey and highlights significant philosophical church and secular events that not only affected Christian thought but also were significant in altering how current Christians view Christ He also demonstrates why early Christians viewed Christ differently By providing this background he prepares the reader to study the sermon in a manner the early church did while simultaneously demonstrating why the twelve steps represent a reconnection to an almost lost and forgotten Christ experience Complementing this journey is an exhaustive examination of biblical Greek so that the reader may gain a deeper understanding of the sermon in its original majestic splendor This challenging and thought provoking book unlocks the deeper meanings of many biblical passages and greatly enhances a spiritual seekers walk

Cloud of the Impossible Catherine Keller,2014-12-02 The experience of the impossible churns up in our epoch whenever a collective dream turns to trauma politically sexually economically and with a certain ultimacy ecologically Out of an ancient theological lineage the figure of the cloud comes to convey possibility in the face of the impossible An old mystical nonknowing of God now hosts a current knowledge of uncertainty of indeterminate and interdependent outcomes possibly catastrophic Yet the connectivity and collectivity of social movements of the fragile unlikely webs of an alternative notion of existence keep materializing a haunting hope densely entangled suggesting a more convivial relational world Catherine Keller brings process feminist and ecopolitical theologies into transdisciplinary conversation with continental philosophy the quantum entanglements of a participatory universe and the writings of Nicholas of Cusa Walt Whitman A N Whitehead Gilles Deleuze and Judith Butler to develop a theopoetics of nonseparable difference Global movements personal embroilments religious diversity the inextricable relations of humans and nonhumans these phenomena in their unsettling togetherness are exceeding our capacity to know and manage By staging a series of encounters between the nonseparable and the unknowable Keller shows what can be born from our cloudiest entanglement

Trapani, 2004 Drawing upon the richness and breadth of Jacques Maritain s thought the contributors to this volume engage readers with philosophical essays about the search for truth in human life and civic engagement The essays examine a broad range of topics from those that are more properly theoretical such as God science natural law practical reason education and democracy to those that are more practical such as capital punishment eugenics friendship love and art In each essay the author implicitly challenges the claims of relativism and postmodernism specifically the idea that there is no real truth and that what matters is merely the perspective of one s own frame of reference The essays argue instead that theoretical truth claims have practical consequences that truth matters to those who are affected by it In addition to the editor the contributors are Gavin T Colvert John A D Cuddeback Raymond Dennehy Bernard E Doering Desmond J FitzGerald Sarah J Fodor William J Fossati W Matthews Grant James G Hanink Katie Hollenberg Gregory Kerr James P Mesa Peter Pagan Matthew S Pugh James V Schall S J Michael D Torre John R Traffas Cornelia A Tsakiridou Timothy S Valentine S J A Leo White Anne M Wiles and Henk E S Woldring John G Trapani Jr is Professor of Philosophy and Chair of the Humanities Division at Walsh University in North Canton Ohio

The Poet's Work Reginald Gibbons,1989-02-15 This anthology brings together essays by 20th century poets on their own art some concern themselves with its deep sources and ultimate justifications others deal with technique controversies among schools the experience behind particular poems The great Modernists of most countries are presented here Paul Valéry Federico García Lorca Boris Pasternak Fernando Pessoa Eugenio Montale Wallace Stevens as are a range of younger less eminent figures from the English speaking world Seamus Heaney Denise Levertov Wendell Berry The reader will find here a lively debate over the individualistic and the communal ends served by poetry and over other issues that divide poets inspiration and craft the use or the condemnation of science traditional and organic form Alan Williamson New York Times Book Review      For the Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen,2017-07-05 For most of the last century the methodology of art history has followed a positivist approach emphasizing form and style fact and history as the means of studying works of art By contrast the philosophical pursuit of truth once central to the fine arts and humanities has largely been abandoned In For the Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen offers a searching and ambitious critique of modern aesthetic practice that aims to restore the pursuit of the knowledge of reality Being to its rightful place Pontynen begins by addressing the question of why the pursuit of truth be it called Dao Dharma God Logos Ideal etc is no longer acceptable in academic circles even though it has been intrinsic to the purpose of art at most times and in most cultures Lacking the pursuit of truth of some degree of knowledge of what is true and good the humanities necessarily lack intellectual and cultural grounding and purpose Fields of study such as philosophy music art and history are therefore trivialized and brutalized Pontynen's focus on the study of the visual arts details the how the denial of purpose and quality in modernist and postmodernist aesthetics has denied art any possibility of transcending entertainment therapy or propaganda In place of the established narratives Pontynen offers a counter narrative based on a cross cultural pursuit of the good the true and the beautiful He recognizes that substantively different cultural traditions exist and that the truth claims of each may be valid in whole or in part He shows how the history of art parallels the intellectual history of Western culture and how these parallels affect both aesthetics and ethics Pontynen engages with those elements of modernist and postmodernist thought that might be true His purpose is not simply to deny their validity but to engage a viewpoint that does not privilege the notion of a purposeless cosmos For the Love of Beauty will be of interest      The Works of T.
