Pushing Murder:

Pushing Murder Eleanor Boylan, 2014-12-30 Clara Gamadge's latest adventure finds the white haired sleuth in the hospital at Christmas of all times a victim of a bad hors d'oeuvre consumed at the opening of a friend's new mystery book shop Pushing Murder in Greenwich Village A poisoning attempt at the hospital however convinces Clara and her family that the mishap at the party was no accident but attempted murder Who could possibly want to kill Clara and why She hasn't been involved in any cases for quite some time so the murder attempts must mean she's been drawn into a new case without her knowledge She suspects that someone will need her services in the near future Sure enough an old friend suddenly appears on the scene seeking Clara's help and a web of ancient deceptions and green ensnares both women involving them in a deadly game of extortion and murder As Clara's family including her charming yet irascible cousin Sadd rallies to protect both women Clara directs the investigation from her hospital bed To her sorrow however she finds that the spirit of Christmas is proof against only the chill and is not strong enough to protect them all from the malice of one ambitious man Murder's Take Ellen M. Morrison, 2000-12 Dr Patricia Peterson a promising young archeology professor at Berkeley has made an astounding discovery an unspoiled tomb in the Valley of the Kings She and her academic partner Dr Roberta Burns are just tidying up the details of the dig with Egypt's Department of Antiquities when Pat must fly home to Palo Alto California for her sister's wedding On the eve of her return to Egypt a violent stormy night Roberta lands on the doorstep of Pat's brother's home demanding Pat's half to the combination for the locked gate to the tomb Pat refuses A struggle ensues complicated by the loyal intervention of Pat's sheepdog Sam leaving Pat dying Sam injured and Roberta without the combination Sam dog the welcome guest of Pat's brother and family and the unwelcome pest of the family cat Samantha must not only recover from his wounds and accept the death of his master but overcome his hatred and mistrust for Samantha the cat Sam cat too must swallow her distaste for the canine species become Sam dog's partner and communicate Roberta's treachery to her human family before Roberta returns putting what is left of her family in danger The

Perversion of Virtue Thomas Joiner, 2014 In The Perversion of Virtue suicide researcher Thomas Joiner explores the nature of murder suicide and offers a unique new theory to explain this nearly unexplainable act that true murder suicides always involve the wrongheaded invocation of one of four interpersonal virtues Deathtraps Marvin Carlson, 1993 Shows the comedy thriller to be a singularly postmodern form This work examines various elements of the thriller openings settings characters plot lines the role of the audience and endings and shows how they work to overturn the conventions of realism in detective drama Corpse Jessica Snyder Sachs, 2013-07-30 When detectives come upon a murder victim there's one thing they want to know above all else When did the victim die The answer can narrow a group of suspects make or break an alibi even assign a name to an unidentified body But outside the fictional world of murder mysteries time of death determinations have remained infamously elusive bedeviling criminal investigators throughout history Armed with an array of high tech devices and tests the world's best forensic pathologists are doing their best to shift the balance but as Jessica Snyder Sachs demonstrates so eloquently in Corpse this is a case in which nature might just trump technology. Plants, chemicals, and insects found near the body are turning out to be the fiercest weapons in our crime fighting arsenal. In this highly original book, Sachs accompanies an eccentric group of entomologists, anthropologists, biochemists, and botanists, a new kind of biological Mod Squad, on some of their grisliest, most intractable cases. She also takes us into the courtroom where post-O.J. forensic science as a whole is coming under fire and the new multidisciplinary art of forensic ecology is struggling to establish its credibility. Corpse is the fascinating story of the 2000-year search to pinpoint time of death. It is also the terrible and beautiful story of what happens to our bodies when we die. Mystery Women, Volume Two (Revised) Colleen Barnett, 2011-12-31. Many bibliographers focus on women who write. Lawyer Barnett looks at women who detect, at women as sleuths, and at the evolving roles of women in professions and in society. Excellent for all women's studies programs as well as for the mystery hound. Look at the popularity of such reading guides as Willetta Heising's Detecting Women, 3rd ed. 0 9644593 7 X or Amanda Cross's Fiction Honest Doubt 0 345 44011 0 11 00. The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Violence Mark Juergensmeyer, Margo Kitts, Michael K. Jerryson, 2015-11. Violence has always played a part in the religious imagination, from symbols and myths to legendary battles, from colossal wars to the theater of terrorism. The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Violence surveys intersections between religion and violence throughout history and around the world. The forty original essays in this volume include overviews of major religious traditions showing how violence is justified within the literary and theological foundations of the tradition, how it is used symbolically and in ritual practice, and how social acts of violence and warfare have been justified by religious ideas. The essays also examine patterns and themes relating to religious violence, such as sacrifice and martyrdom, which are explored in cross-disciplinary or regional analyses and offer major analytic approaches from literary to social scientific studies. The contributors to this volume, innovative thinkers who are forging new directions in theory and analysis related to religion and violence, provide novel insights into this important field of studies. By mapping out the whole field of religion and violence, The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Violence will prove an authoritative source for students and scholars for years to come. Reports of Cases Determined by the Supreme Court of the State of Missouri Missouri. Supreme Court, 1907. Seeing Cities Change Jerome Krase, 2016-04-01. Cities have always been dynamic social environments for visual and otherwise symbolic competition between the groups who live and work within them. In contemporary urban areas, all sorts of diversity are simultaneously increased and concentrated, chief amongst them in recent years being the ethnic and racial transformation produced by migration and the gentrification of once socially marginal areas of the city. Seeing Cities Change demonstrates the utility of a visual approach and the study of ordinary streetscapes to document and analyze how the built environment reflects the changing cultural and class identities of neighborhood residents. Discussing the manner in which these changes relate to issues of local and national identities and multiculturalism it presents studies of various cities on both sides of the Atlantic to show how global forces and the competition between urban residents in contested terrains is changing the faces of cities around the globe Blending together a variety of sources from scholarly and mass media this engaging volume focuses on the importance of seeing and in its consideration of questions of migration ethnicity diversity community identity class and culture will appeal to sociologists anthropologists and geographers with interests in visual methods and urban spaces Hellfire from Paradise Ranch

Joseba Zulaika,2020-03-03 In this intimate and innovative work terror expert Joseba Zulaika examines drone warfare as manhunting carried out via satellite Using Creech Air Force Base near Las Vegas as his center of study he interviews drone operators as well as resisters to the war economy of the region to expose the layers of fantasy on which counterterrorism and its self sustaining logic are grounded Hellfire from Paradise Ranch exposes the terror and warfare of drone killings that dominate our modern military It unveils the trauma drone operators experience in part due to their visual intimacy with their victims and explores the resistance to drone killings in the same apocalyptic Nevada desert where nuclear testing pacifist militancy and Shoshone tradition overlap Stunning and absorbing Zulaika offers a richly detailed account of how we continue to manufacture deconstruct and perpetuate terror *A Complete Collection of State Trials and Proceedings for High Treason and Other Crimes and Misdemeanors from the Earliest Period to the Year 1820.
