Puzzle Of The Red Stallion:

The Puzzle of the Red Stallion Stuart Palmer, 2013-05-14 A model is dead in Central Park and the only witness to the crime is a horse. A most readable and entertaining story. The New York Times. The evening's party is over and modeling sensation Violet Feverel wants to get in a quick horse ride before the dawn breaks. She saddles up Siwash the stallion and gallops onto the Central Park bridle path eager to begin what will be the last ride of her life. On the other side of the park Miss Hildegard Withers, schoolmarm and expert sleuth, breaks into a grin when she hears a patrolman's radio mention a Code 44. As she knows all too well, Code 44 means a dead body, and dead bodies mean adventure. Miss Withers follows the cop to the crime scene where they find Violet Feverel lying dead, having apparently fallen from her horse. But if she died when she hit the ground, then why is Siwash marked with a spot of blood? For Miss Withers, answering this question will prove more exciting than an afternoon at the races and much more risky. The Puzzle of the Red Stallion is part of the Hildegard Withers Mysteries series, which also includes The Penguin Pool Murder and Murder on the Blackboard.

The Puzzle of the Red Stallion Stuart Palmer, 1987-01-01 Hildegard Withers discovers the body of Violet Feverel, a fashion model, along the Central Park bridle path and realizes that it is not a riding accident but murder. Mystery Women, Volume One (Revised)

The Puzzle of the Blue Banderilla Stuart Palmer, 2013-05-14 A corrupt politician's trophy wife is targeted during a train ride. The best of the Hildegard Withers stories and that is saying a good deal. The New York Times. Oscar Piper doesn't belong on Mexican trains. A New York City detective he's in the Dominican Republic as part of an international delegation come to cut the ribbon on a new transcontinental highway. This grants him the honor of a trip to Mexico City on the hottest, dustiest train in North America: a crowded slow coach that's about to become a crime scene. The alderman's wife does not know how the bottle of Elixir d'Amour got into her bag. She only knows that when the porter smelled it, he dropped dead. She seems to have been the intended target for the poisoned perfume, but who would want to kill a corrupt politician's trophy wife? Oscar sends a wire to his friend Hildegard Withers, a schoolteacher and amateur sleuth whom he knows will not wilt in the Mexican heat. Before she begins her investigation, she has only one question: Cómo se dice murder. The Puzzle of the Blue Banderilla is part of the Hildegard Withers Mysteries series, which also includes The Penguin Pool Murder and Murder on the Blackboard.

The Puzzle of the Silver Persian Stuart Palmer, 2013-05-14 When fellow passengers on a ship bound for London start to disappear, Miss Withers must rely on a mischievous cat to help solve the mystery. Schoolteacher and occasional sleuth Hildegard Withers has not had good luck with vacations. On her last trip, she found herself enmeshed in the investigation of a dead man on a small plane. Now, on a three-day steamer voyage to London, she's about to encounter death again. A gruesome joke leads to a young woman going missing from the ship's aft rail. Is she somewhere onboard or has she fallen into the sea? In either case, turning about will do nothing for her, so the ship steams on. Soon the passengers descend into a nightmare as body after body appears. Putting an end to the chaos falls to Miss Withers, who must depend on the testimony of a particularly mischievous silver Persian cat. The teacher and the feline will make it to London safe and sound so long as their curiosity doesn't get the best of them. The Puzzle of the Silver Persian is part of the Hildegard Withers Mysteries series, which also includes The Penguin Pool Murder and Murder on the Blackboard. Omit Flowers Stuart Palmer, 2013-05-14. DIV. On a gloomy old California estate, the Cameron heirs confront greed, madness, and murder. DIV. In the heyday of silent cinema, Cameron Heights was billed as the California Wonder Town. A sprawling development of lavish bungalows, its streets were named after film stars, its houses decorated with Hollywood finery. Fifteen years later, it's a ghost town, and the spirit who rules over it is more disturbing than any horror that has ever haunted the silver screen. DIV. DIV. Elderly, eccentric Joel Cameron has more money than he knows what to do with, and he's too greedy for words. One Christmas, they convene at Cameron Heights, hoping to have the old man declared mad and the inheritance divided accordingly. But when part of the house goes up in flames, taking old Joel with it, there arises the question of who set the fatal fire and which family member will be left with nothing but ashes. DIV.

This companion volume to Mystery Movie Series of 1940s Hollywood (McFarland, 2010) focuses on 22 series and 167 individual films primarily released during the 1930s. It was a decade that featured some of the most famous cinema detectives of all time, among them Charlie Chan, Nick and Nora Charles, Philo Vance, Nancy Drew, and such lesser-known but equally entertaining figures as Hildegard Withers, Torchy Blane, Mr. Moto, Mr. Wong, and Brass Bancroft. Each mystery movie series is placed within its historical context, with emphasis on its source material and the changes or developments within the series over time. Also included are reviews of all the series films, analyzing the quality and cohesiveness of the mystery plotlines. For titles based on literary sources, a comparison between the film and the written work is provided. The Puzzle of the Pepper Tree Stuart Palmer, 2013-05-14. On vacation in California, the spinster sleuth stumbles onto the case of a man murdered in mid-air. Withers is still one of the best. Anthony Boucher. Because of the fog, the man in the brown suit arrives five minutes late for the ferry to Catalina Island. If he wishes to reach his destination today, his only option is the Dragonfly, a twelve-seat prop plane that makes up in speed what it lacks in comfort. The ride is bumpy, and all of the passengers, including a honeymooning couple, a film producer, and a would-be adventuress, find themselves feeling queasy. But none reacts as badly as the man in the brown suit, who sweats, shakes, and screams, "I'm dying. I don't want to die," and by the time they reach Catalina, he already has. Vacationing schoolmarm Hildegard Withers notices the corpse when they're taking it off the plane. An amateur sleuth with a nose for murder, it doesn't take her long to deduce foul play. But which of the passengers was dastardly enough to commit murder in mid-air? The Puzzle of the Pepper Tree is part of the Hildegard Withers Mysteries series, which also includes The Penguin Pool Murder and Murder on the
