Maya has really shown an interest in completing different puzzles. Jigsaws, stacking cups, stacking rings and shape sorters she is developing her fine motor and cognitive development skills as she completes these different puzzles. I set up a variety of different types of puzzles on the puzzle mat for Maya to complete. She walked over and chose the lock board. "I want this one" Maya said. She began to fiddle and unlock each of the different types of locks to open the doors. "
