Pyramids And Poppies:

Springboks On The Somme - South Africa in the Great War 1914 - 1918 Bill Nasson, 2012-10-02 The Great War of 1914-18 was a conflict which engulfed the whole world directly or indirectly. It was an imperialist world war that tugged the new Union of South Africa and its people into a series of separate but connected conflicts from the domestic Afrikaner Rebellion on the highveld through the sands of German South West Africa, the steamy bush of German East Africa and on to the mud and blood of France and Flanders. This book is the first general study of the complex ways in which South Africans experienced the impact of the First World War and responded to its demands, burdens and opportunities. Told with his customary narrative energy and ironic style, Bill Nasson's new history is a lively account not only of how South Africa fought the war but also of the miscalculations and illusions that surrounded its involvement and of how South African society came to imagine and remember that great and terrible conflict.

Rediscovering the British World Phillip Alfred Buckner, R. Douglas Francis, 2005 Rediscovering the British World is one part of an ongoing attempt to approach British Imperial history from a different viewpoint, placing the colonies of settlement at the centre. Editors Phillip Buckner and Douglas Francis have included nineteen essays from expert scholars in the field which cover a broad range of cultural, social and intellectual topics in British imperial history from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century. The essays focus on the history of Britain and the Empire with considerable emphasis on the self-governing dominions of Canada, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand. They attempt to show the centrality of the Empire in the history of the nations created by the British diaspora overseas while at the same time calling into question the extent of the existence of a British World. The goal is not to wax nostalgic but rather to re-examine the complex phenomenon of this far-reaching empire and to shed light on the ways in which it has shaped our world. With contributions by James Belich, Frank Bongiorno, Bettina Bradbury, Patrick H. Brennan, Phillip Buckner, Elizabeth Elbourne, R. Douglas Francis, Jeffrey Grey, Catherine Hall, John Lambert, Douglas Lorimer, David Lowe, Stuart Macintyre, Adele Perry, Paul Pickering, Satadru Sen, R. Scott Sheffield, Paul Ward, Stuart Ward, Wendy Webster.

Passchendaele in Perspective Peter H. Liddle, 2017-01-30 Passchendaele in Perspective explores the context and real nature of the participants' experience, evaluates British and German High Command, the aerial and maritime dimensions of the battle, the politicians and manpower debates on the home front and it looks at the tactics employed, the weapons and equipment used, the experience of the British, German and indeed French soldiers. It looks thoroughly into the Commonwealth soldiers' contribution and makes an unparalleled attempt to examine together in one volume specialist facets of the battle: the weather, field survey and cartography, discipline and morale, and the cultural and social legacy of the battle in art, literature and commemoration. Each one of its thirty chapters presents a thought-provoking angle on the subject. They add up to a unique analysis of the battle from Commonwealth, American, German, French, Belgian and United Kingdom historians. This book will undoubtedly become a valued work of reference for all those with an interest in World War One.

of the First World War Anna Maguire,2021-08-26 This is the first in depth and comparative study of the experience of colonial encounters for troops from the British Empire during the First World War Drawing on a rich variety of textual and visual material Anna Maguire explores new contact zones that materialised beyond the battlefield on troopships in ports in military camps and hospitals in cafes and city streets She reveals how the colonial mobilisation of troops during the conflict prompted the emergence of spaces for interactions fleeting moments or ongoing relationships Through their personal experiences she uncovers how men from New Zealand South Africa and the West Indies viewed themselves and their identities during a time of global conflict simultaneously asserting the strength of the existing colonial order and challenging its enactment through contact conflict and collaboration In spaces away from the frontlines Maguire uses these cultural encounters of colonial troops to offer a more intricate understanding of imperial power relations Pyramids and Poppies Peter K.
