Raising Accountable Kids

John G. Miller, Karen G. Miller, 2016-10-18

How often have we heard complaints like these: "Why don't my kids do what I say?" "Who made the mess in here?" "When will my teen make better choices?" These are the kinds of questions that parents ask that lead not only to complaining but to victim thinking, procrastination, and blaming. The solution? Learn to parent the QBQ way and bring personal accountability to life within our families. Based on the same concepts that have made John Miller's signature work QBQ: The Question Behind the Question an international bestseller over the last decade, Raising Accountable Kids provides the tool called the QBQ or The Question Behind the Question that will help every parent look behind questions such as "Why won't my kids listen?" or "When will they do what I ask?" to find better ones. QBQs like "What can I do differently?" or "How can I improve as a parent?" This simple but challenging concept turns the focus and responsibility back to parents and to what they can do to make a difference. With thoughtful commentary, observation, and advice illustrated with engaging and memorable anecdotes that are the hallmarks of John Miller's previous books, Raising Accountable Kids provides all moms and dads with the means and inspiration to be more effective parents as well as teach their children how to practice their own brand of personal accountability to create a happy, healthy family for a lifetime.
