Miller,2021-07-11 The 1960s were it was believed the end of the era of transatlantic liners Grand graceful but aging luxury ships such as the Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth were surpassed and outmoded by the new age of jet aircraft By 1963 airlines had secured over 95 percent of all transatlantic travellers But looking to the future the historic Cunard Line believed that there was room for one more last Atlantic super ship Thus came the ship which became the most successful super liner of all time the Queen Elizabeth 2 Fondly known as the QE2 she was launched and named by HM the Queen in 1967 entered service two years later and went on to sail for 39 years She now resides in a museum hotel like role out of Dubai The QE2 is a lasting and fitting tribute to Cunard to British shipping to all ocean liners This book has been created on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the ship s maiden crossing in May 1969 from Southampton to New York A maritime icon she well deserves yet another tribute Voices from the Grave Ed Moloney,2010-06-01 A candid and brutal account of murder abduction and violence during the Troubles in Northern Ireland from two men on opposite sides of the conflict After the long war in Ireland came to an end very few paramilitary leaders on either side spoke openly about their role in that bloody conflict but in Voices from the Grave two leading figures from opposing sides reveal their involvement in bombings shootings and killings on one condition that their stories were kept secret until after their deaths In extensive interviews given to researchers from Boston College Brendan Hughes and David Ervine spoke with astonishing openness about their turbulent violent lives Hughes was a legend in the Republican movement An operator a gun runner and mastermind of some of the most savage IRA violence of the Troubles he was a friend and close ally of Gerry Adams and was by his side during the most brutal years of the conflict David Ervine was the most substantial political figure to emerge from the world of Loyalist paramilitaries A former Ulster Volunteer Force bomber and confidante of its long time leader Gusty Spence Ervine helped steer Loyalism s gunmen towards peace persuading the UVF s leaders to target IRA and Sinn Fein activists and push them down the road to a ceasefire Now their stories have been woven into a vivid narrative which provides compelling insight into a secret world and events long hidden from history
