Qin Yufen:

Qin Yufen - Echolot, 1998 Qin Yufen Yufen Qin, 2001 Born in the Chinese town of Qindao in 1954 artist Qin Yufen has spent the last 15 years living and working in Berlin a cross cultural biography that in many ways is reflected in her site sensitive installation work Combining western artistic techniques with such symbolically eastern materials as bamboo rice paper and silk Qin engages an ongoing dialogue between form and content regionalism and internationalism and East and West At times serious humorous sublime and simple the aesthetics of her painterly sculptures have been compared with traditional Chinese poetry especially in her use of metaphor This catalogue contextualizes three of Qin s recent installations in Germany within her larger body of work Chinese Modernity and Global Biopolitics Sheldon H. Lu, 2007-05-31 This ambitious work is a multimedia interdisciplinary study of Chinese modernity in the context of globalization from the late nineteenth century to the present Sheldon Lu draws on Chinese literature film art photography and video to broadly map the emergence of modern China in relation to the capitalist world system in the economic social and political realms Central to his study is the investigation of biopower and body politics namely the experience of globalization on a personal level Lu first outlines the trajectory of the body in modern Chinese literature by focusing on the adventures pleasures and sufferings of the male and female body in the writings of selected authors He then turns to avant garde and performance art tackling the physical self more directly through a consideration of work that takes the body as its very theme material and medium In an exploration of mass visual culture Lu analyzes artistic reactions to the multiple uneven effects of globalization and modernization on both the physical landscape of China and the interior psyche of its citizens This is followed by an inquiry into contemporary Chinese urban space in popular cinema and experimental photography and art Examples are offered that capture the daily lives of contemporary Chinese as they struggle to make the transition from the vanishing space of the socialist lifestyle to the new capitalist economy of commodities Lu reexamines the history and implications of China s belated integration into the capitalist world system before closing with a postscript that traces the genealogy of the term postsocialism and points to the real relevance of the idea for the investigation of everyday life in China in the twenty first century Qin Yufen, 1998 China, Transnational Visuality, Global Postmodernity Hsiao-peng Lu, Sheldon H. Lu, 2001 By focusing on Chinese cultural formations and critical discourses of the last decade of the century the author dissects the intellectual economic and political contradictions of a turbulent era This wide ranging deeply interdisciplinary work demarcates the cultural terrain by examining diverse media film television avant garde art and literature as well as critical theory and intellectual history Children of Marx and Coca-Cola Xiaoping Lin, 2009-11-02 Children of Marx and Coca Cola affords a deep study of Chinese avant garde art and independent cinema from the mid 1990s to the beginning of the twenty first century Informed by the author s experience in Beijing and New York global cities with extensive access to an emergent transnational Chinese visual culture this work situates selected artworks and films in the context of Chinese nationalism and post socialism and against the background of the capitalist globalization that has so radically affected contemporary China It juxtaposes and compares artists and independent filmmakers from a number of intertwined perspectives particularly in their shared avant garde postures and perceptions Xiaoping Lin provides illuminating close readings of a variety of visual texts and artistic practices including installation performance painting photography video and film Throughout he sustains a theoretical discussion of representative artworks and films and succeeds in delineating a variegated postsocialist cultural landscape saturated by market forces confused values and lost faith This refreshing approach is due to Lin s ability to tackle both Chinese art and cinema rigorously within a shared discursive space He for example aptly conceptualizes a central thematic concern in both genres as postsocialist trauma aggravated by capitalist globalization By thus focusing exclusively on the two parallel and often intersecting movements or phenomena in the visual arts his work brings about a fruitful dialogue between the narrow field of traditional art history and visual studies more generally Children of Marx and Coca Cola will be a major contribution to China studies art history film studies and cultural studies Multiple audiences specialists teachers and students in these disciplines as well as general readers with an interest in contemporary Chinese society and culture will find that this work fulfills an urgent need for sophisticated analysis of China s cultural production as it assumes a key role in capitalist globalization contemporary society Contemporary Chinese Cinema and Visual Culture Sheldon Lu, 2021-07-15 Honourable Mention Best Monograph Award BAFTSS Publication Awards 2022 Sheldon Lu's wide-ranging new book investigates how filmmakers and visual artists from mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan have envisioned China as it transitions from a socialist to a globalized capitalist state. It examines how the modern nation has been refashioned and reimagined in order to keep pace with globalization and transnationalism. At the heart of Lu's analysis is a double movement in the relationship between nation and transnationalism in the Chinese post-socialist state. He considers the complexity of how the Chinese economy is integrated in the global capitalist system while also remaining a repressive body politic with mechanisms of control and surveillance. He explores the interrelations of the local, the national, the subnational and the global as China repositions itself in the world. Lu considers examples from feature and documentary film, mainstream and marginal cinema and a variety of visual arts: photography, painting, digital video, architecture and installation. His close case studies include representations of class, masculinity and sexuality in contemporary Taiwanese and Chinese cinema, the figure of the sex worker as a symbol of modernity and mobility and artists' representations of Beijing at the time of the 2008 Olympics.

Contemporary Chinese Art: Primary Documents Wu Hung, 2010 Invaluable resource for anyone who wants to understand contemporary Chinese art, one of the most fascinating art scenes of the late 20th and early 21st centuries.

Sound Art Revisited Alan Licht, 2019-08-22 The first edition of Sound Art Revisited published as Sound Art Beyond Music: Between Categories served as a groundbreaking work toward defining this emerging field and this fully updated volume significantly expands the story to include current research since the book's initial release. Viewed through a lens of music and art histories rather than philosophical theory, it covers dozens of artists and works not found in any other book on the subject. Locating sound art's roots across the centuries from spatialized church music to the technological developments of radio, sound recording and the telephone, the book traces the evolution of sound installations and sound sculpture, the rise of sound art exhibitions and galleries and finally looks at the critical cross-pollination that marks some of the most important and challenging art with and about sound being produced today.

Chinese Walls in Time and Space Roger Des Forges, Minglu Gao, Chiao-mei Liu, Haun Saussy, 2010-03-31 Are walls remnants of ancient and medieval societies destined to become anachronistic in modern and post-modern times? Or will they persist, shaping as well as adjusting to new conditions? Do walls necessarily constrain and even isolate those who live within them, or can they act as a medium of support and communication for people on both sides? This volume addresses these questions. Authors from six disciplines: history, art, law, medicine, communication and film, provide multiple perspectives on various kinds of walls: material ones around and within states, cities and towns as well as virtual ones regulating the administration of justice, the flow of pathogens and the transmission of information.

Making History Wu Hung, 2008 This volume analyzes the cultural origins, precedents, influences and aspirations of the contemporary Chinese artists.
