Qualitative Methodologies For Geographers Issues And Debates:

Milhaud Daniel Milhaud,1983 Practising Human Geography Paul Cloke,2004-05-25 Practising Human Geography is critical introduction to disciplinary debates about the practice of human geography that is informed by an inquiry into how geographers actually do research In examining those methods and practices that are integral to doing geography the text presents a theoretically informed reflection on the construction and interpretation of geographical data including factual and fictional sources the use of core research methodologies and the interpretative role of the researcher Framed by an historical overview how ideas of practising human geography have changed the following three sections offer an comprehensive and integrated overview of research methodologies Illustrated throughout the te Doing Ethnographies Mike Crang,Ian Cook,2007-04-06 Doing Ethnographies is an introductory and applied guide to ethnographic methods It focuses on those methods participant observation interviewing focus groups and video photographic work that allow us to understand the lived everyday world Informed by the authors fieldwork experience the book covers the relation between theory practice and writing and demonstrates how methods work in the field so preparing the first time ethnographer for the loss of control and direction often experienced Qualitative Methodologies for Geographers Daniel Milhaud,2001 Handbook of Research Methods in Migration Carlos Vargas-Silva,2012-01-01 Covering both qualitative and quantitative topics the expert contributors in this Handbook explore fundamental issues of scientific logic methodology and methods through to practical applications of different techniques and approaches in migration research The chapters of this interdisciplinary Handbook maintain an introductory level of discussion on migration research methods while providing readers with references necessary for those wishing to go deeper into the topic Using a combination of concepts and techniques with research experiences from the field this Handbook will prove to be an invaluable guide Master level students and academics in migration related programs will find this compendium a useful and stimulating resource It also discusses issues relating to the collection of data on migrants including topics such as survey designs interviewing techniques and ethical issues that policymakers and government employees will find informative Advisory Board Professor Stephen Castles Professor Robin Cohen Professor Josh DeWind Professor Rael Delgado Wise Methods in Human Geography Robin Flowerdew,David M. Martin,2013-10-08 First published in 2004 This text is an essential guide to current research approaches in human geography covering all aspects of undertaking a geography research project from the selection of an appropriate topic through to the organisation and writing of the final report Covering a wide range of contemporary research methods the authors provide practical advice on how to actually undertake a project The Politics of Conducting Research in Africa Lyn Johnstone,2018-08-29 This edited volume investigates the ethical and emotional challenges of conducting fieldwork in Africa It reflects on difficulties researchers face such as objectivity access gender issues and information risks Focusing across a wide range of states and themes the project makes an original contribution and builds upon existing strengths and insights in various disciplines by presenting research practical insights from contemporary cases of fieldwork As such the book is an accessible and useful guide for students and scholars alike Encyclopedia of Human Geography Barney Warf,2006-05-16 Publisher description Fieldwork in the Global South Jenny Lunn,2014-03-26 Choosing to do fieldwork overseas particularly in the Global South is a challenge in itself The researcher faces logistical complications health and safety issues cultural differences language barriers and much more But permeating the entire fieldwork experience are a range of intermediating ethical issues While many researchers seek to follow institutional and disciplinary guidelines on ethical research practice the reality is that each situation is unique and the individual researcher must negotiate their own path through a variety of ethical challenges and dilemmas This book was created to share such experiences to serve not as a manual for ethical practice but rather as a place for reflection and mutual learning Since ethical issues face the researcher at every turn and cannot be compartmentalized into one part of the research process this book puts them at the very center of the discussion and uses them as the lens with which to view different stages of fieldwork The book covers four thematic areas ethical challenges in the field ethical dimensions of researcher identity ethical issues relating to research methods and ethical dilemmas of engagement with a variety of actors This volume also provides fresh insights by drawing on the experiences of research students rather than those of established academics The contributors describe research conducted for their master s degrees and doctorates offering honest and self critical reflections on how they negotiated ethical challenges and dilemmas The chapters cover fieldwork carried out in countries across Africa Asia and Latin America on a broad sweep of development related topics This book should have wide appeal to undergraduates postgraduates and early career researchers working under the broad umbrella of development studies Although focused on fieldwork in the Global South the discussions and reflections are relevant to field research in many other countries and contexts Innovations in Youth Research S. Heath,C. Walker,2011-11-15 This book explores and celebrates imaginative and creative approaches to youth research showcasing a wide range of innovative methods including music elicitation mental mapping blog analysis and mobile methods Affective Tourism Dorina Maria Buda,2015-05-15 This book brings together explores and expands socio spatial affect emotion and psychoanalytic drives in tourism for the first time Affect is to be found in visceral intensities and resonances that circulate around and shape encounters between and amongst tourists local tourism representatives and places When affect manifests it can take shapes in the form of emotions such as fun joy fear anger and the like When it remains a visceral force of latent bodily responses affect overlaps with drives as expounded in psychoanalysis The aim of the title therefore is to explore how and in what ways affects emotions and drives are felt and performed in tourism encounters in places of socio political turmoil such as Jordan Palestine Israel with a detour to Iraq Affective Tourism is highly innovative as it offers a new way of theorising tourism encounters bringing together critically examining and expanding three areas of scholarship affective and emotional geographies psychoanalytic geographies and dark tourism It has relevance for tourism industries in places in the proximity of ongoing conflicts as it provides in depth analyses of the interconnections between tourism danger and conflict Such understandings can lead to more socio culturally and politically sustainable approaches to planning development and management of tourism This ground breaking book will be of valuable reading for students and researchers from a number of fields such as tourism studies geography anthropology sociology and Middle Eastern studies
