Islamic Development Management Noor Zahirah Mohd Sidek, Roshima Said, Wan Norhaniza Wan Hasan, 2019-07-10. This book examines a range of current issues in Islamic development management. The first part of the book explores practical issues in governance and the application of Islamic governance in new areas such as quality management systems and the tourism industry, while the second delves into questions of sustainability. The book proposes a new Islamic sustainability and offers new perspectives on CSR in connection with waqf, Islamic endowments and microfinance. The third part of the book addresses Islamic values and how they are applied in entrepreneurship, inheritance, consumer behavior and marketing. The fourth part examines the issues of waqf and takaful, a form of insurance in line with the Islamic laws, while the fifth discusses the fiqh, the study of Islamic legal codes and legal framework from the perspectives of entrepreneurship, higher education, reporting and inheritance wills. The final chapter is dedicated to the application of Islamic principles in various other issues. Written in an accessible style, the book will appeal to newcomers to the field as well as researchers and academics with an interest in Islamic development management.

Students' Quality Circles Dinesh P. Chapagain, 2022-07-13. This book explains what Students Quality Circles (SQC) are, how they function, key constraints and issues in implementation and possible solutions to make it a valuable co-curricular activity. It showcases how Quality Control Circle (QCC) is reengineered with the sole purpose of prosocial personality development of students at their early age. It is a research outcome which depicts the direction of the education system toward character building rather than only developing knowledge and skills. The logical sequence of presentation of the book is why, what and toward the end, how SQC in education. The book satisfies four hierarchical levels of readers. The first level is of educationists and national policy makers who may take up SQC as an important approach of the education system in their country for prosocial personality development of students and thereby targeting to produce quality citizens in the future. At the second level are chief executives or managers of educational institutes who may identify the potential of SQC approach for developing the positive personality of their students. Teachers and SQC facilitators are at the third level and they can use the book to train and educate their students while initiating and promoting SQC activities at their institutes And finally at the fourth level obviously are students who may refer to this book from time to time and practice SQC on their own for self development and empowerment
